Women and Slavery in the French Antilles, 1635-1848 Bernard Moitt, 2001-11-14 Women and Slavery in the French Antilles 1635 1848 Bernard Moitt Examines the reaction of black women to slavery In Women and Slavery in the French Antilles 1635 1848 Bernard Moitt argues that gender had a profound effect on the slave plantation system in the French Antilles He details and analyzes the social condition of enslaved black women in the plantation societies of Martinique Guadeloupe Saint Domingue now Haiti and French Guiana from 1635 to the abolition of slavery in the French colonial empire in 1848 Moitt examines the lives of black women in bondage evaluates the impact that the slave experience had on them and assesses the ways in which women reacted to and coped with slavery in the French Caribbean for over two centuries As males outnumbered females for most of the slavery period and monopolized virtually all of the specialized tasks the disregard for gender in task allocation meant that females did proportionately more hard labor than did males In addition to hard work in the fields women were engaged in gender specific labor and performed a host of other tasks Women resisted slavery in the same ways that men did as well as in ways that gender and allocation of tasks made possible Moitt casts slave women in dynamic roles previously ignored by historians thus bringing them out of the shadows of the plantation world into full view where they belong Bernard Moitt is Assistant Professor in the History Department at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond Previously he taught at the University of Toronto and at Utica College of Syracuse University Educated in Antigua where he was born Canada and the United States he has written on aspects of francophone African and Caribbean history with particular emphasis on gender and slavery Blacks in the Diaspora Darlene Clark Hine John McCluskey Jr David Barry Gaspar general editors June 2001 256 pages 6 1 8 x 9 1 4 index append cloth0 253 33913 8 44 95 L 34 00 paper0 253 21452 1 19 95 s 15 50 Background Notes, French Antilles and Guiana ,1984 The French Antilles Andrew Gerald Gravette,1989 "Music and the Performance of Identity on Marie-Galante, French Antilles " Ron Emoff,2017-07-05 Marie Galante is a small island situated in the Caribbean to the south of Guadeloupe The majority of Marie Galantais are descendants of the slave era though a few French settlers also occupy the island Along with its neighbours Guadeloupe and Martinique Marie Galante forms an official d rtement of France Marie Galante historically has never been an independent polity Marie Galantais express sentiments of being deux fois colonis or twice colonized concomitant with their sense of insularity from a global organization of place Dr Ron Emoff translates this pervasive sense of displacement into the concept of the non nation Musical practices on the island provide Marie Galantais with a means of re connecting with other significant distant places Many Marie Galantais display a split subjectivity embracing an African heritage a French association and a Caribbean regionalism This book is unique in part with regard to its treatment of a particular mode of self consciousness expressed musically on a virtually forgotten Caribbean island The book also combines literary narrative historical and musical sources to theorize a postcolonial subsurreal in the French Antilles The focus of the book is upon kadril
