Preti, 2017-07-05 The history of collecting is a topic of central importance to many academic disciplines and shows no sign of abating in popularity As such scholars will welcome this collection of essays by internationally recognised experts that gathers together for the first time varied and stimulating perspectives on the nineteenth century collector and art market for French eighteenth century art and ultimately the formation of collections that form part of such august institutions as the Louvre and the National Gallery in London The book is the culmination of a successful conference organised jointly between the Wallace Collection and the Louvre on the occasion of the acclaimed exhibition Masterpieces from the Louvre The Collection of Louis La Caze Exploring themes relating to collectors critics markets and museums from France England and Germany the volume will appeal to academics and students alike and become essential reading on any course that deals with the history of collecting the history of taste and the nineteenth century craze for the perceived douceur de vivre of eighteenth century France It also provides valuable insight into the history of the art markets and the formation of museums

Radical Art and the Formation of the Avant-Garde David Cottington, 2022-03-08 An authoritative re definition of the social cultural and visual history of the emergence of the avant garde in Paris and London Over the past fifty years the term avant garde has come to shape discussions of European culture and modernity ubiquitously taken for granted but rarely defined This ground breaking book develops an original and searching methodology that fundamentally reconfigures the social cultural and visual context of the emergence of the artistic avant garde in Paris and London before 1915 bringing the material history of its formation into clearer and more detailed focus than ever before Drawing on a wealth of disciplinary evidence from socio economics to histories of sexuality bohemia consumerism politics and popular culture David Cottington explores the different models of cultural collectivity in and presumed hierarchies between these two focal cities while identifying points of ideological influence and difference between them He reveals the avant garde to be at once complicit with resistant to and a product of the modernizing forces of professionalization challenging the conventional wisdom on this moment of cultural formation and offering the means to reset the terms of avant garde studies

Pictures-within-Pictures in Nineteenth-Century Britain Catherine Roach,2017-07-05 Repainting the work of another into one's own canvas is a deliberate and often highly fraught act of reuse This book examines the creation display and reception of such images Artists working in nineteenth century London were in a peculiar position based in an imperial metropole yet undervalued by their competitors in continental Europe Many claimed that Britain had yet to produce a viable national school of art Using pictures within pictures British painters challenged these claims and asserted their role in an ongoing visual tradition By transforming pre existing works of art they also asserted their own painterly abilities Recognizing these statements provided viewers with pleasure in the form of a witty visual puzzle solved and with prestige in the form of cultural knowledge demonstrated At stake for both artist and audience in such exchanges was status the status of the painter relative to other artists and the status of the viewer relative to other audience members By considering these issues this book demonstrates a new approach to images of historic displays Through examinations of works by J M W Turner John Everett Millais John Scarlett Davis Emma Brownlow King and William Powell Frith this book reveals how these small passages of paint conveyed both personal and national meanings

The French in London Isabelle Janvrin,Catherine Rawlinson,2016-07-24 Ever since 1066 there has been a substantial French presence in London It is now said to be the sixth most populous French city and this book illustrates explains and exposes how this came about over more than a 1000 years Full of individual stories and overlooked details covering a common history from William the Conqueror to Charles de Gaulle

"Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris, 1870-1914 " Susan Waller,2017-07-05 Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris 1870 1914 examines Paris as a center of international culture that attracted artists from Western and Eastern Europe Asia and the Americas during a period of burgeoning global immigration Sixteen essays by a group of emerging and established international scholars including several whose work has not been previously published in English address the experiences of foreign exiles immigrants students and expatriates They explore the formal and informal structures that permitted foreign artists to forge connections within and across national communities and in some cases fashion new transnational identities in the City of Light Considering Paris from an innovative global perspective the book situates both important modern artists such as Edvard Munch Sonia Delaunay Marc Chagall and Gino Severini and lesser known American Czech Italian Polish Welsh Russian Japanese Catalan and Hungarian painters sculptors writers dancers and illustrators within the larger trends of international mobility and cultural exchange Broadly appealing to historians of modern art and history the essays in this volume characterize Paris as a thriving transnational arts community in which the interactions between diverse cultures peoples and traditions contributed to the development of a hybrid and multivalent modern art The Edwardian Sense Morna O'Neill, Michael Hatt, 2010 This is the twentieth in a series of occasional volumes devoted to studies in British art published by the Yale Center for British Art and the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art and distributed by Yale University Press Book Jacket "Marketing Art in the British Isles, 1700 to the Present " Charlotte Gould, 2017-07-05 A cultural history of the first truly modern art market Marketing Art in the British Isles 1700 to the Present furthers the burgeoning exploration of Britain's struggle to carve a niche for itself on the international art scene Bringing together scholars from the UK US Europe and Asia this collection sheds new light on such crucial notions as the internationalization of the art market the emergence of an increasingly complex exhibition culture issues of national rivalry and emulation artists individual and collective strategies for their own promotion and survival the persistent anti commercialism of an elite group of art lovers and critics and accusations of philistinism levelled at the middle classes as well as an unquestionable native British genius at reconciling jarring discourses Essays explore the unresolved tension between artistic aspirations and commercial interest a tension that has come to shape Britain's national artistic tradition from the perspectives of artists dealers and super collectors and the upwardly mobile middle classes whose consumerism gave rise to the British art market as it is known today Specific case studies include Whistler Roger Fry Damien Hirst and Charles Saatchi essays consider art markets from London and Manchester to Paris and Flanders "The Concept of the 'Master' in Art Education in Britain and Ireland, 1770 to the Present " Matthew C. Potter, 2017-07-05 A novel investigation into art pedagogy and constructions of national identities in Britain and Ireland this collection explores the student master relationship in case studies ranging chronologically from 1770 to 2013 and geographically over the national art schools of England Ireland Scotland and Wales Essays explore the manner in which the Old Masters were deployed in education fuelled the individual creativity of art teachers and students were used as a rhetorical tool for promoting cultural projects in the core and periphery of the British Isles and united as well as divided opinions in response to changing expectations in discourse on art and education Case studies examined in this book include the sophisticated tradition of academic inquiry of establishment figures like Joshua Reynolds and Frederic Leighton as well as examples of radical reform undertaken by key individuals in the history of art education such as Edward Poynter and William Coldstream The role of Modern Masters like William Orpen Augustus John Gwen John and Jeff Wall is also discussed along with the need for students and teachers to master the realm of art theory in their studio based learning environments and the ultimate pedagogical repercussions of postmodern assaults on the academic bastions of the Old Masters French Art of the Eighteenth Century Heather Eleanor MacDonald, 2016-01-01 Since 2004 the Dallas Museum of Art has been the repository of the renowned collection of eighteenth century French art assembled by the late Michael Rosenberg The long term loan of these masterpieces greatly enhances the collection of

European art at the Museum and the series of scholarly lectures funded by the Foundation the Michael L Rosenberg Lecture Series gives a powerful boost to its European art program Those lectures presented by top scholars in the field of European art history are re presented in this volume Representations of Classical Greece in Theme Parks Filippo

Carlà-Uhink,2020-04-16 Theme park studies is a growing field in social and cultural studies Nonetheless until now little attention has been dedicated to the choice of the themes represented in the parks and the strategies of their representation This is particularly interesting when the theme is a historical one for example ancient Greece Which elements of classical Greece find their way into a theme park and how are they chosen and represented What is the entertainment element in ancient Greek history culture and myth which allows its presence in commercial structures aiming to people s fun How does the representation of Greece change against different cultural backgrounds e g in different European countries in the USA in China This book frames a discussion of these representations within the current debates about immersive spaces uses of history and postmodern aesthetics and analyses how ancient Greece has been represented and made enjoyable in seven different theme parks across the world providing an original and ground breaking contribution to theme park studies and classical reception Paul Delaroche Patricia Smyth,2022-06-15 Paul Delaroche Painting and Popular Spectacle explores the connections between painting and an emergent popular visual culture in the early nineteenth century which included new forms of optical entertainment such as Panoramas and Dioramas and innovation in fields such as illustration art reproduction and stage decor Delaroche s paintings caused a sensation at the Paris Salon with critics comparing the emotional response they elicited to that of popular melodrama Yet his appeal to a certain type of spectator lay behind the increasingly hostile criticism to which his works were subjected and has in our own time led to his uncertain status in the art historical canon This book focuses on Delaroche s popularity with a newly expanded audience Lacking in specialist knowledge but nevertheless keen to engage with and deeply affected by art the behaviour of this new public prompted lively discussions about who has the right to judge art and on what grounds Working across disciplinary boundaries this book proposes a new reading both of Delaroche and of the connections between the arts in this period The artist emerges as a figure at the cutting edge of an emergent trans medial popular visual culture in which we see the formation of modern spectatorship Gustave Doré and the Modern Biblical Imagination Sarah C. Schaefer,2021-09-14 Gustave Dor and the Modern Biblical Imagination explores the role of biblical imagery in modernity an era that has often been defined through a process of secularization It does so through the lens of Gustave Dor 1832-83 whose work is among the most reproduced and adapted scriptural imagery in the history of Judeo Christianity The book argues that Dor s biblical imagery negotiated the challenges of visualizing the Bible for modern audiences in both sacred and secular contexts A set of texts whose veracity and authority were under unprecedented scrutiny in this period the Bible was at the center of a range of historical theological and cultural debates Gustave Dor is at the nexus of these narratives as his work established the most pervasive visual language for biblical imagery in the past two and a half centuries and constitutes the means by which the Bible has persistently been translated visually

In Nelson's Wake James Davey, 2016-03-17 Battles blockades convoys raids An impressive account of how the indefatigable British Royal Navy ensured Napoleon's ultimate defeat International Journal of Military History Horatio Nelson's celebrated victory over the French at the Battle of Trafalgar in 1805 presented Britain with an unprecedented command of the seas Yet the Royal Navy's role in the struggle against Napoleonic France was far from over This groundbreaking book asserts that contrary to the accepted notion that the Battle of Trafalgar essentially completed the Navy's task the war at sea actually intensified over the next decade ceasing only with Napoleon's final surrender In this dramatic account of naval contributions between 1803 and 1815 James Davey offers original and exciting insights into the Napoleonic wars and Britain's maritime history Encompassing Trafalgar the Peninsular War the War of 1812 the final campaign against Napoleon and many lesser known but likewise crucial moments the book sheds light on the experiences of individuals high and low from admiral and captain to sailor and cabin boy The cast of characters also includes others from across Britain dockyard workers politicians civilians who made fundamental contributions to the war effort and in so doing both saved the nation and shaped Britain's history

The Europeans Orlando Figes, 2019-10-08 From the master of historical narrative Financial Times a dazzling richly detailed panoramic work the first to document the genesis of a continent wide European culture The nineteenth century in Europe was a time of unprecedented artistic achievement It was also the first age of cultural globalization an epoch when mass communications and high speed rail travel brought Europe together overcoming the barriers of nationalism and facilitating the development of a truly European canon of artistic musical and literary works By 1900 the same books were being read across the continent the same paintings reproduced the same music played in homes and heard in concert halls the same operas performed in all the major theatres Drawing from a wealth of documents letters and other archival materials acclaimed historian Orlando Figes examines the interplay of money and art that made this unification possible At the center of the book is a poignant love triangle the Russian writer Ivan Turgenev the Spanish prima donna Pauline Viardot with whom Turgenev had a long and intimate relationship and her husband Louis Viardot an art critic theater manager and republican activist Together Turgenev and the Viardots acted as a kind of European cultural exchange they either knew or crossed paths with Delacroix Berlioz Chopin Brahms Liszt the Schumanns Hugo Flaubert Dickens and Dostoyevsky among many other towering figures As Figes observes nearly all of civilization's great advances have come during periods of heightened cosmopolitanism when people ideas and artistic creations circulate freely between nations Vivid and insightful The Europeans shows how such cosmopolitan ferment shaped artistic traditions that came to dominate world culture
