French Cinema in the 1990s Phil Powrie, 1999 Following on from Phil Powrie's French Cinema in the 1980s Nostalgia and the Crisis of Masculinity Clarendon Press 1997 this collection of essays which brings together scholars in the UK and the USA is the first on French films in the 1990s The collection focuses on continuity with the 1980s in terms of genres and preoccupations such as definitions of a national cinema the heritage film gay lesbian issues and ethnic issues But it also focuses on key differences new G nter Grass's novel Der Butt is one of his most important and best known works and yet it has not received the critical acclaim enjoyed by his other novels most notably Die Blechtrommel It is in many ways his most complex work having at its centre a narrator whose past spanning millennia of time through a bizarre procession of female cooks is no less immediate than his fraught domestic present It is a novel which impressively demonstrates Grass's ability to hold in vivid balance a multitude of criss crossing themes and figures This volume of essays addresses that complexity It is a collaborative venture the result of a series of discussions during which key issues and techniques of the novel were explored The eleven essays present individual perspectives whilst contributing to a general exposition

Jewish Identity in French Cinema (1950-2010) Serge Bokobza, 2016-02-22 This book examines the expression of a Jewish identity in French films and the characteristics used by filmmakers to portray this nebulous concept in movies produced after the Shoah and World War II Throughout a sixty year span French directors struggled to define Jewish identity and a correlation with the larger question of French national identity The study delves into the larger question of Jewish identity as characterised in works of cinematic fiction in accordance with the history of the Jews of France using the centrality of the emancipation paradigm of 1791 and the theoretical frame provided by Jean Paul Sartre's Reflexions sur la question juive The book identifies and describes three categories of films produced between 1950 and 2010 that represent the manner in which directors portrayed an evolving Jewish identity and its relation to French society rejecting the practice of labeling a film as Jewish because of the ethnicity of a director or writer Based on extensive research including the review of over 200 full length films the book provides an overview of features addressing the concept of Jewish identity and includes a Descriptive Filmography of productions matching the author's definition of a Jewish identity film From the template La Grande Illusion to contemporary releases the book argues that French Jewish identity films dwell in the sociological realm of Jewishness as the epicenter of tension is rooted in identity rather than religion
