Remembering the Occupation in French film L. Hewitt,2008-02-18 When collective memory is a source of national debate the public representation of history quickly becomes a locus of controversy and ideological struggle This work shows how French film has allowed for a public airing of current concerns through the lens of memory's recreations of the Occupation

French Cinema Romy Fournier Lanzoni,Romy Fournier-Lanzoni,2015-10-22 An all encompassing history of French motion pictures and cinematographic trends chronologically from 1895 to the present The History of French Literature on Film Kate Griffiths,Andrew Watts,2020-12-24 French novels plays poems and short stories however temporally or culturally distant from us continue to be incarnated and reincarnated on cinema screens across the world From the silent films of Georges Méliès to the Hollywood production of Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary directed by Sophie Barthes The History of French Literature on Film explores the key films directors and movements that have shaped the adaptation of works by French authors since the end of the 19th century Across six chapters Griffiths and Watts examine the factors that have driven this vibrant adaptive industry as filmmakers have turned to literature in search of commercial profits cultural legitimacy and stories rich in dramatic potential The volume also explains how the work of theorists from a variety of disciplines literary theory translation theory adaptation theory can help to deepen both our understanding and our appreciation of literary adaptation as a creative practice Finally this volume seeks to make clear that adaptation is never a simple transcription of an earlier literary work It is always simultaneously an adaptation of the society and era for which it is created Adaptations of French literature are thus not only valuable artistic artefacts in their own right so too are they important historical documents which testify to the values and tastes of their own time The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumi re in 1895 with the invention of the cin matographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cin matographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumi re s La Sortie de l usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumi re factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges M li s Alice Guy and Charles Path Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world s best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard Fran ois Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve G rard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike Claiming the Real Brian Winston, 2019-07-25 Claiming the Real II describes the origins development and current state of documentary cinema and the social political industrial and ethical factors that determine its production This new edition addresses the ethical quagmires digital technologies and proliferating forms that have transformed documentary cinema Making Meaning David BORDWELL, David Bordwell, 2009-06-30 David Bordwell s new book is at once a history of film criticism an analysis of how critics interpret film and a proposal for an alternative program for film studies It is an anatomy of film criticism meant to reset the agenda for film scholarship Rural Writing Mauricette Fournier, 2019-01-17 If as a corollary of urbanization many artists seized as early as the nineteenth century and most of the twentieth century the city as object and scene of their reflection on a world under construction it was not the same for rural areas Generally speaking until recently the countryside s representations have been shaped by the writings of a ruling class However in recent decades alongside the country novels or terroir novels that follow in line with the rustic current initiated in the nineteenth century more demanding literary productions have emerged These writings often fed by the sense of loss and the end of a certain agricultural lifestyle are also exploring the contemporary reconstructions of rural areas little publicized They redefine a new regionality less militant and certainly less connoted in its nostalgic link to the land This book revisits rural areas and their representations in contemporary writing in both popular and high culture in order to draw a global landscape of current rural areas and new regionalities Film and Nationalism Alan Larson Williams, 2002 This text examines the ways in which cinema has been considered an arena of conflict and interaction between nations and nationhood Robert Bresson Tony Pipolo, 2010-01-19 Robert Bresson A Passion for Film looks at the great filmmaker's body of work not only by coming to terms with its thematic preoccupations and the development of its unique authorial style but also in terms of the oeuvre's seminal place in the history of film The filmic rhetoric that Bresson pursued was nothing less than an effort to create film narrative's exemplary form throwing off the conventions of the theater and acting that still dominate mainstream filmmaking In this respect Bresson's films are no less ground breaking than those of D W Griffith and Sergei Eisenstein whose formal innovations have been thoroughly explored Wonderfully written and subtle in its exploration of literary models and source material Pipolo's book is the first comprehensive study to give equal attention to the films their literary sources and psycho biographical aspects of the work A thorough portrait Bresson's sources style and biography are explored via a chronological investigation of his films yielding a rich analysis worthy of this master filmmaker Artists in the Audience Greg Taylor, 2018-06-05 Gone with the Wind an inspiration for the American avant garde Mickey Mouse a crucial source for the development of cutting edge intellectual and aesthetic ideas As Greg Taylor shows in this witty and provocative book the idea is not so far fetched One of the first ever studies of American film criticism Artists in the Audience shows that film critics beginning in the 1940s turned to the movies as raw material to be molded into a more radical modernism than that offered by any other contemporary artists or thinkers In doing so they offered readers a vanguard alternative that reshaped postwar American culture nonaesthetic mass culture reconceived and refashioned into rich personally relevant art by the attuned creative spectator Moving Pictures and Renaissance Art History Patricia Emison, 2025-10-01 Film like the printed imagery inaugurated during the Renaissance spread ideas not least the idea of the power of visual art across not only geographical and political divides but also strata of class and gender Moving Pictures and Renaissance Art History examines the early flourishing of film from the 1920s to the mid 1960s as partly reprising the introduction of mass media in the Renaissance allowing for innovation that reflected an art free of the control of a patron though required to attract a broad public Rivalry between word and image between the demands of narrative and those of visual composition spurred new ways of addressing the compelling nature of the visual The twentieth century also saw the development of the discipline of art history transfusions between cinematic practice and art historical postulates are part of the story told here New Novel, New Wave, New Politics Lynn A. Higgins, 1998-03-01 Until now writings on the celebrated movements in literature and film that emerged in France in the mid 1950s the New Novel and New Wave have concentrated on their formal innovations not on their engagement with history or politics New Novel New Wave New Politics overturns this traditional approach Lynn A Higgins argues that the New Novelists e g Alain Robbe Grillet Claude Simon Marguerite Duras and New Wave filmmakers e g Claude Chabrol Francois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Alain Resnais engage in a kind of historiography They enact the conflicts the double binds of postwar history and representation Higgins claims that what art historian Serge Guilbaut has said of American Abstract Expressionism is equally true of the New Novel and New Wave that its aesthetic innovations provided a way for avant garde artists to preserve their sense of social commitment while eschewing the art of propaganda and illustration It was in a sense a political apoliticism Higgins shows how the New Novel and New Wave are related developments While their individual styles and themes remain distinctive she writes they share an ecriture that can be described as alternately or interconnectedly filmic and novelistic New Wave filmmakers borrowed novelistic devices and made frequent literary allusions while the vision of the novelists is distinctly cinematic A lively account that takes us to the crossroads where culture and politics meet New Novel New Wave New Politics dramatically revises our view of a whole generation of important influential artists

Jean-Luc Godard, Cinema Historian Michael Witt, 2013-11-07 Originally released as a videographic experiment in film history Jean Luc Godard's Histoire(s) du cinéma has pioneered how we think about and narrate cinema history and in how history is taught through cinema In this stunningly illustrated volume Michael Witt explores Godard's landmark work as both a specimen of an artist's vision and a philosophical statement on the history of film Witt contextualizes Godard's theories and approaches to historiography and provides a guide to the wide ranging cinematic aesthetic and cultural forces that shaped Godard's groundbreaking ideas on the history of cinema

Truffaut Antoine De Baecque, Serge Toubiana, 2022-02-23 One of the most celebrated filmmakers of all time Francois Truffaut was an intensely private individual who cultivated the public image of a man completely consumed by his craft But his personal story from which he drew extensively to create the characters and plots of his films is itself an extraordinary human drama Now with captivating immediacy Antoine de Baecque and Serge Toubiana give us the definitive story of this beloved artist They begin with the unwanted mischievous child who learned to love movies and books as an escape from sadness and confusion as a boy Francois came to identify with screen characters and to worship actresses Following his early adult years as a journalist during which he gained fame as France's most iconoclastic film critic the obsessive prodigy began to make films of his own and before he was thirty notched the two masterpieces The 400 Blows and Jules and Jim As Truffaut's dazzling body of work evolves in the shadow of the politics of his day including the student uprisings of 1968 we watch him learning the lessons of his masters Fellini and Hitchcock And we witness the progress of his often tempestuous personal relationships including his violent falling out with Jean Luc Godard who owed Truffaut the idea for Breathless and his rapturous love affairs with the many glamorous actresses he directed among them Jacqueline Bisset and Jeanne Moreau With Fanny Ardant Truffaut had a child only thirteen months before dying of a brain tumor at the age of fifty two Here is a life of astonishing emotional range from the anguish of severe depression to the exaltation of Oscar victory Based on unprecedented access to Truffaut's papers including notes toward an unwritten autobiography de Baecque and Toubiana's richly detailed work is an incomparably authoritative revelation of a singular genius

Sport and physical culture in Occupied France Keith Rathbone, 2022-02-08 Sport and physical culture in Occupied France examines the Vichy state's attempts to promote physical education and sports in order to rejuvenate French men and women during the Occupation Through this cultural lens it illuminates the central paradox of state power during the Vichy Regime The state organised a centralised physical cultural programme meant to control and discipline French men and women However these activities instead empowered individuals and sporting associations to create spaces for individual expression protect entrenched business enterprises preserve republican institutions and organise sites for mutual aid and assistance Based on extensive archival research this innovative multi city analysis demonstrates how French sporting federations associations and athletes appropriated Vichy's physical education directives to reshape the ideology of the state and serve their own local agendas
