DUVERGER (Teacher of French in London.),1796 The French and Indian War and the Conquest of New France William R. Nester,2014-05-07 The French and Indian War was the world s first truly global conflict When the French lost to the British in 1763 they lost their North American empire along with most of their colonies in the Caribbean India and West Africa In The French and Indian War and the Conquest of New France the only comprehensive account from the French perspective William R Nester explains how and why the French were defeated He explores the fascinating personalities and epic events that shaped French diplomacy strategy and tactics and determined North America s destiny What began in 1754 with a French victory the defeat at Fort Necessity of a young Lieutenant Colonel George Washington quickly became a disaster for France The cost in soldiers ships munitions provisions and treasure was staggering France was deeply in debt when the war began and that debt grew with each year Further the country s inept system of government made defeat all but inevitable Nester describes missed diplomatic and military opportunities as well as military defeats late in the conflict Nester masterfully weaves his narrative of this complicated war with thorough accounts of the military economic technological social and cultural forces that affected its outcome Readers learn not only how and why the French lost but how the problems leading up to that loss in 1763 foreshadowed the French Revolution almost twenty five years later One of the problems at Versailles was the king s mistress the powerful Madame de Pompadour who encouraged Louis XV to become his own prime minister The bewildering labyrinth of French bureaucracy combined with court intrigue and financial challenges only made it even more difficult for the French to succeed Ultimately Nester shows France lost the war because Versailles failed to provide enough troops and supplies to fend off the English enemy Globalizing Physics Roberto Lalli,Jaume Navarro,2024-07-09 This is an open access book available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free

Thinking through French Philosophy Leonard Lawlor, 2003-06-20 no other book undertakes to relate all these French philosophers to each other the way that Lawlor does brilliantly Fran ois Raffoul For many Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze represent one of the greatest movements in French philosophy But these philosophers and their works did not materialize without a philosophical heritage In Thinking through French Philosophy Leonard Lawlor shows how the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty formed an important current in sustaining the development of structuralism and post structuralism Seeking the point of diffraction or the specific ideas and concepts that link Derrida Foucault and Deleuze Lawlor discovers differences and convergences in these thinkers who worked the same terrain Major themes include metaphysics archaeology language and documentation expression and interrogation and the very experience of thinking Lawlor's focus on the experience of the question brings out critical differences in immanence and transcendence This illuminating and provocative book brings new vitality to debates on contemporary French philosophy

C. Angoville, 1858 Iran and French Orientalism Julia Caterina Hartley, 2023-12-28 New translations of Persian literature into French the invention of the Aryan myth increased travel between France and Iran and the unveiling of artefacts from ancient Susa at the Louvre Museum are among the factors that radically altered France's perception of Iran during the long nineteenth century And this is reflected in the literary culture of the period In an ambitious study spanning poetry historiography fiction travel writing ballet opera and marionette theatre Julia Hartley reveals the unique place that Iran held in the French literary imagination between 1829 and 1912 Iran's history and culture remained a constant source of inspiration across different generations and artistic movements from the Oriental poems of Victor Hugo to those of Anna de Noailles and Thophile Gautier's strategic citation of Persian poetry to his daughter Judith Gautier's full blown rewriting of a Persian epic Writing about Iran could also serve to articulate new visions of world history and religion as was the case in the intellectual debates that took place between Michelet Renan and Al Afghani Alternatively joyous as in Flicien David's opera Lalla Roukh and ominous as in Massenet's Le Mage Iran elicited a multiplicity of treatments This is most obvious in the travelogues of Flandin Gobineau Loti Jane Dieulafoy and Marthe Bibesco which describe the same cities and cultural practices in altogether different ways Under these writers pens Iran emerges as both an Oriental other and an alter ego its culture elevated above that of all other Muslim nations At times this led French writers to critique notions of European superiority But at others they appropriated Iran as proto European through racist narratives that reinforced Orientalist stereotypes Drawing on theories of Orientalism and cultural difference this book navigates both sides of this fascinating and complex literary history It is the first major study on the subject Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology
