Teacher Development for Immersion and Content-Based Instruction Laurent Cammarata, T.J. Ó Ceallaigh, 2020-09-15. Teacher preparation and professional development endeavors are key drivers of successful immersion bilingual I B and content based language education CBLE programs across a variety of models. However, research in this critical area is scant and has not to date received the academic attention it deserves. Aimed at a broad audience, this timely volume is essential reading for anyone interested in knowing what research has to say about teacher development in the I B and CBLE field. Its primary aim is to inform teacher education practice and stimulate additional research in the field by showcasing ground breaking research on teacher preparation and professional development programs from around the globe as well as teacher educators' experience in these varied educational contexts. The contributions illustrate several points of access into classroom research and pedagogy and add insight into the complexity of teacher preparation and professional development in this dynamic and constantly evolving sector. The depth of scholarship and breadth of experience represented by the contributors promises a productive and rewarding read. Minority Populations in Canadian Second Language Education Katy Arnett, Callie Mady, 2013-08-09. Until now, the picture painted of French second language learning in Canada has tended to focus on successful French immersion. This volume offers a broader representation in response to the demographic changes that have made the French language classroom a more complex place. Focusing on inclusion and language maintenance, the chapters discuss how a multilingual population can add the two official languages to their repertoire whilst maintaining their languages of origin/heritage, how the revitalization of Indigenous languages can best be supported in the language classroom and how students with disabilities can be helped to successfully learn languages.

French Immersion Ideologies in Canada Sylvie Roy, 2020-06-01. In French Immersion Ideologies in Canada, Sylvie Roy gives voice to people who have experiences with French immersion programs in Alberta, Canada. Using a sociolinguistics for change approach, she interprets questions related to language ideologies as well as reasons people learn French as an additional language and why some students are asked to learn English first. She also reflects on what it means to become or to be bilingual or multilingual in a globalized world. Roy discusses teachers and learners' linguistic and cultural practices and examines transculturality for the future. By questioning concepts that recur in French Blockbusters Charlie Michael, 2019-07-17 Cutting across a swath of recent French produced cinema French Blockbusters offers the first book length consideration of the theoretical implications historical impact and cultural consequences of a recent grouping of popular films that are rapidly changing what it means to make or to see a French film today Muslim and Catholic Experiences of National Belonging in France Carol A. Ferrara, 2024-09-05 How do experiences of national identity and belonging differ for French Muslims and Catholics respectively What can these differences tell us about the causes and dynamics of minority marginalization in plural secular societies To address these questions Carol Ferrara draws upon extensive ethnographic fieldwork across France within spaces of religious education and interfaith dialogue illustrating the inequities between Muslim and Catholic citizens in opportunities for national belonging political and civic engagement and institution building This reexamination of Muslim exclusion against the backdrop of Catholic inclusion calls into question popular explanations for minority marginalization especially those that blame non adherence to French Republican principles or the exclusionary power of secular discourse Instead Ferrara argues that the boundaries of French belonging are policed by francit a tacit national imaginary ideal type that draws upon and reproduces national cognitive biases and undermines the French republican values of secularism equality liberty and fraternity Given the central role of francit in the politics of belonging Ferrara suggests that paths toward greater pluralism in France and beyond lie in the reframing of national identity narratives and reimagining the inclusive potential of secular democratic values

Debates of the Senate Canada. Parliament. Senate, 1922 So They Want Us to Learn French Matthew Hayday, 2015-09-15 Since the 1960s bilingualism has become a defining aspect of Canadian identity And yet today relatively few English Canadians speak or choose to speak French Why has personal bilingualism failed to increase as much as attitudes about bilingualism as a Canadian value In So They Want Us to Learn French Matthew Hayday explores the various ways in which bilingualism was promoted to English speaking Canadians from the 1960s to the late 1990s He analyzes the strategies and tactics employed by organizations on both sides of the bilingualism debate Against a dramatic background of constitutional change and controversy economic turmoil demographic shifts and the on again off again possibility of Quebec separatism English speaking Canadians had to decide whether they and their children should learn French Highlighting the personal experiences of proponents and advocates Hayday provides a vivid narrative of a complex controversial and fundamentally Canadian question Manitoba's French-Language Crisis Raymond M. Hébert, 2004-05-25 H bert considers various theoretical models to explain aspects of the crisis and concludes that the authoritarian personality model is the most relevant Right wing authoritarianism exists everywhere and he argues under proper conditions especially demagogic leadership can provoke populist explosions of racist and prejudiced sentiment hence the cautionary nature of this Canadian tale

The Top Books of the Year French Immersion Debate French For All Or All For French The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. French Immersion Debate French For All Or All For French : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. French Immersion Debate French For All Or All For French : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
