Houle, 2001-01-01 French Immigrants, 1840-1940 Kay Melchisedech Olson, 2002-06 Discusses the reasons French people left their homeland to come to America the experiences the immigrants had in the new country and the contributions this cultural group made to American society Includes sidebars and activities The English and French in North America Justin Winsor, 1967 The Colonization of North America (Spanish and French Settlers) ,1968* The Franco-Americans of New England Yves Roby, 2004 Between 1840 and 1930 approximately 900 000 people left Quebec for the United States and settled in French Canadian colonies in New England's industrial cities Yves Roby draws from first person accounts to explore the conversion of these immigrants and their descendants from French Canadian to Franco American The first generation of immigrants saw themselves as French Canadians who had relocated to the United States They were not involved with American society and instead sought to recreate their lost homeland The Franco Americans of New England reveals that their children however did not see a need to create a distinct society Although they maintained aspects of their language religion and customs they felt no loyalty to Canada and identified themselves as Franco American Roby s analysis raises insightful questions about not only Franco Americans but also the integration of ethno cultural groups into Canadian society and the future of North American Francophonies Frenchmen Into Peasants Leslie Phyllis Choquette,1994 The Influence of the French in the Settlement of North America Mrs. C. F.
