Law's Dominion Jay R. Berkovitz, 2019-11-26 In Law's Dominion Jay Berkovitz offers a novel approach to the history of early modern Jewry Set in the city of Metz on the Moselle river this study of a vibrant prerevolutionary community draws on a wide spectrum of legal sources that tell a story about community religion and family that has not been told before Focusing on the community's leadership public institutions and judiciary this study challenges the assumption that Jewish life was in a steady state of decline before the French Revolution To the contrary the evidence reveals a robust community that integrated religious values and civic consciousness interacted with French society and showed remarkable signs of collaboration between Jewish law and the French judicial system In Law's Dominion Jay Berkovitz has gathered and meticulously mined a dazzling array of rich and complex rabbinic texts and records from Western Europe during the early modern period including the pinkas of the rabbinic court of Metz that he previously rescued from oblivion What emerges is a remarkably fresh depiction and incisive comparative treatment of central aspects of Jewish law religion and family which will have far reaching ramifications for all future studies in these disciplines Ephraim Kanarfogel E Billi Ivry University Professor of Jewish History Literature and Law at Yeshiva University
