World War II The Liberal Year Book ,1919 Expelling the Germans Matthew James Frank,2007 Expelling the Germans focuses on how Britain perceived the mass movement of German populations from Poland and Czechoslovakia at the end of the Second World War Drawing on a wide range of British archival material Matthew Frank examines why the British came to regard the forcible removal of Germans as a necessity and evaluates the public and official responses in Britain once mass expulsion became a reality in 1945 Central to this study is the concept of population transfer the contemporary idea that awkward minority problems could be solved rationally and constructively by removing the population concerned in an orderly and gradual manner while avoiding unnecessary human suffering and economic disruption Dr Frank demonstrates that while most British observers accepted the principle of population transfer most were also consistently uneasy with the results of putting that principle into practice This clash of principle with practice reveals much not only about the limitations of Britain s role but also the hierarchy of British priorities in immediate post war Europe The Use and Utility of Ultimata in Coercive Diplomacy Tim Sweijjs,2023-05-12 Ultimata feature as a core concept in the coercive diplomacy scholarship Conventional wisdom holds that pursuing an ultimatum strategy is risky This book shows that the conventional wisdom is wrong on the basis of a new dataset of 87 ultimata issued from 1920 2020 It provides a historical examination of ultimata in Western strategic political and legal thought since antiquity until the present and offers a four pronged typology that explains their various purposes and effects 1 the dictate 2 the conditional war declaration 3 the bluff and 4 the brinkmanship ultimatum The book yields a better understanding of interstate threat behaviour at a time of surging competition Background materials can be consulted at www.coercivediplomacy.com Memoranda and Letters of Dr. Muehlon Wilhelm Muehlon,1918 The Disclosures from Germany American Association for International Conciliation,1918 The Aims of the War ,1918 International Conciliation ,1919 International Conciliation American Association for International Conciliation,1918
