Nineteenth-Century French Drawings Britany Salsbury,2023-01-24 This volume is a survey of the remarkable quality and range of the Cleveland Museum of Art s collection of French drawings one of the best such collections in the United States Nineteenth Century French Drawings explores the history of this medium and chronicles the remarkable part it has played throughout the past decades at the Cleveland Museum of Art There are works by such iconic artists as Honor Daumier Berthe Morisot and Auguste Renoir a luminous coloured pencil study by symbolist artist Alexandre S on and a group of noir drawings named for their use of varied black drawing media by Henri Fantin Latour Albert Charles Lebourg and Adolphe Appian among others Entries illuminate the role of drawing within 41 artists works and five essays by leading scholars shed new light on the making and collecting of drawings in France during this extraordinary period In nineteenth century France drawing expanded from a means of artistic training to an independent medium with rich potential for experimentation A variety of new materials became available to artists encouraging figures ranging from Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres to Paul Cezanne to reconsider drawing s place within their practice Public and private exhibition venues increasingly began to display their works building an audience attracted by the intimacy of drawings and their unique techniques and subjects

David to Corot Fogg Art Museum,Agnes Mongan,1996 This catalogue reproduces nearly 500 works which include the most significant group of drawings outside France by such masters as David Gericault Ingres Delacroix and Prud hon Many of the drawings are published here for the first time French Drawings from European Collections Ronald Gobiet,Olga K. Preisner,1979-11 Pomp and Power Xavier Salmon,Wallace Collection (London, England),2006 This lavish and beautiful book illustrates and discusses 52 French drawings dating from the late 17th to the early 19th century all from the extraordinary collection Chateau de Versailles Together the drawings tell the story of the major buildings at Versailles its gardens the court and the personalities associated with the palace of Louis XIV and later French kings Among the artists represented are many of the major figures of this magnificent period of French art including Le Brun Lemoine Cochin Claude

Joseph Horace Vernet Jean Baptiste Isabey Paul Delaroche and Jacques Louis David whose splendid compositional study for his Oath of the Tennis Court the event that marked the beginning of the French Revolution is of particular interest

French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations
