French Flea Bites George East, 2000-06-01 For fifteen years humourist writer raconteur and generally funny man George East and his wife Donella lived in the remnants of an old water mill in the heart of Normandy's Cherbourg peninsula. The former night club bouncer, radio presenter, seamstress and professional bed tester's accounts of the couple's life and times in and around the tiny village of Nehou have been enjoyed by millions. This is the FOURTH book in the best selling Mill of the Flea series, continuing the often farcical and always entertaining adventures of the author and his wife as they attempt to make a new life in rural France. In FRENCH FLEA BITES new characters and bizarre situations encountered by our innocents abroad include a man who believes he died in 1979, a cat who becomes a werewolf at full moon and a plan to turn a farmyard compost heap into Nehou's answer to the Millennium Dome. Totally unlike any other book in the genre, FRENCH FLEA BITES covers another eventful year for our hero and his wife as they stumble knee deep through the rice pudding of their lives in darkest rural Normandy and at the Mill of the Flea. This episode introduces another galaxy of weird characters and situations and a number of distinctly distinctive recipes such as the favourite dishes of an alleged Ancient Egyptian god and his travelling companion EVERY TYPE and age of reader from the confirmed Francophile or Francophobe to the armchair adventurer or anyone in search of a rattling good and very funny read will LOVE this book. Funny, clever, often poignant and always hugely entertaining. Above all so true about life and people anywhere on the planet. As usual, George has given us his beautifully idiosyncratic view of life in rural France. As ever, it is very, very funny and achingly true throughout. For those with the ability to understand that observation is much more important than actuality, this is another masterclass in humanity.

French Kisses George East, 2003-06-01 In FRENCH KISSES, George East, our world famous raconteur, funny man and the ultimate innocent abroad, encounters another array of weird characters and situations as the notorious Fox of Cotentin nobbles the local chicken show and a fishing boat disguised as a carrot runs aground in a village square. Elsewhere a Parisian clock repairer poses as the Prince of Darkness while a synchronised drinking team clashes with the baton-dropping champions of all Normandy. There's also the descendant of Nostradamus who makes his predictions after rather than before the event. If you like to laugh at life and the foibles and follies of human nature anywhere, just relax, pucker up and enjoy some affectionate embraces from a master story teller. George East is the present day guru of French Living and Life with the French countryside.

French Lessons George East, 2007-06-01 He's back and this time it's really serious. Failed rock legend, pickled onion manufacturer, air hostess and euro entrepreneur George East takes us through another eventful year of his doomed attempts to make a living out of living in rural France. Fleeing from the Mill of the Flea with creditors in hot pursuit, our hero and his long suffering wife arrive at a rambling manor house on the vast and brooding stretches of the Normandy marshlands. The cunning plan is to set up a fox sanctuary, chicken farm and arts & crafts commune.

for the creatively challenged but the East's new home soon reveals its grim secrets. A lifeline is offered by a stranger with a scheme to bring the delights of the Great British Pub to homesick expatriates. The George Inn. Sometimes will be the first of a chain of hugely successful Anglo pubs stretching from Normandy to Nice and beyond. At least that's the idea. As the clock ticks towards opening time and final financial meltdown for the ultimate innocent abroad we encounter another host of improbable and frankly sometimes unbelievable characters and situations. The amazing thing is that any of it is true. Will George find fame fortune and contentment or has this modern Micawber taken his final drink in the Last Chance Saloon.

Manual of Diseases of the Skin: from the French of MM. Cazenave and Schedel, with Notes and Additions, by T.H. Burgess Pierre-Louis Alphée Cazenave, H. E. Schedel, Thomas Henry Burgess, Arthur Rook, 2025-08-11 Reprint of the original first published in 1842. The Antigonus publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage.

A Jovial Crew Richard Brome, 2014-02-27. A Jovial Crew or the Merry Beggars is a comedy about four noble lovers who join the beggar community for a pastoral life of dance and song. Or is it? Whilst maintaining its unremitting good humour, A Jovial Crew shows that the literary depiction of beggar life and real beggar life are profoundly different. Daily aspects of life in the beggar world: poverty, dirt, licentiousness come as a surprise to the well-born who are ultimately led to question their own values. The last production mounted before theatres were closed for the English Civil War. A Jovial Crew's exploration of class, commonwealth, kinship and kingship shows an intense engagement with contemporary politics. This edition with dedicated sections on music and language in the play argues that A Jovial Crew also offers a nostalgic farewell to English theatre. It explores Brome's attitude to performance and print and follows A Jovial Crew from its first Caroline staging to its later manifestations as a Restoration comedy, an eighteenth-century opera and a twentieth-century proto-Marxist tragicomedy.

Challenging Orthodoxies: The Social and Cultural Worlds of Early Modern Women Melinda S. Zook, 2016-04-15. Offering a broad and eclectic approach to the experience and activities of early modern women, Challenging Orthodoxies presents new research from a group of leading voices in their respective fields. Each essay confronts some received wisdom, truth or orthodoxy in social and cultural, scientific and intellectual and political and legal traditions to demonstrate how women from a range of social classes could challenge the conventional thinking of their time as well as the ways in which they have been traditionally portrayed by scholars. Subjects include women's relationship to guns and gunpowder, the law and legal discourse, religion, public finances and the new science in early modern Europe as well as women and indentured servitude in the New World. A testament to the pioneering work of Hilda L. Smith, this collection makes a valuable contribution to scholarship in women's studies, political science, history, religion and literature.
