French Photography, from Its Origins to the Present Claude Nori, 1979 Photographers Peter E. Palmquist, 2000

Photography and Its Origins Tanya Sheehan, Andres Zervigon, 2014-11-20 Recent decades have seen a flourishing interest in and speculation about the origins of photography Spurred by rediscoveries of first photographs and proclamations of photography's death in the digital age scholars have been rethinking who and what invented the medium Photography and Its Origins reflects on this interest in photography's beginnings by reframing it in critical and specifically historiographical terms How and why do we write about the origins of the medium Whom or what do we rely on to construct those narratives What's at stake in choosing to tell stories of photography's genesis in one way or another And what kind of work can those stories do Edited by Tanya Sheehan and Andr s Mario Zervigon this collection of 16 original essays illustrated with 32 colour images showcases prominent and emerging voices in the field of photography studies Their research cuts across disciplines and methodologies shedding new light on old questions about histories and their writing Photography and Its Origins will serve as a valuable resource for students and scholars in art history visual and media studies and the history of science and technology Historical Dictionary of France Gino Raymond, 2008-10-23 From the construction of Notre Dame and the Eiffel Tower to the Fall of the Bastille and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen to Napoleon Bonaparte's defeat at Waterloo to Albert Camus L'Etranger and the existentialism of Jean Paul Sartre France has been a part of some of the greatest and most memorable events in human history Author Gino Raymond relates the history of these events in the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of France Through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on kings politicians authors architects composers artists and philosophers a thorough history of France is presented Vision and Textuality Stephen W. Melville, Bill Readings, 1995 The influence of contemporary literary theory on art history is increasingly evident but there is little or no agreement about the nature and consequence of this new intersection of the visual and the textual Vision and Textuality brings together essays by many of the most influential scholars in the field both young and more established writers from the United States England and France to address the emergent terms and practices of contemporary art history With essays by Rosalind Krauss Hal Foster Norman Bryson Victor Burgin Martin Jay Louis Marin Thomas Crow Griselda Pollock and others the volume is organized into sections devoted to the discipline of art history the implications of semiotics the new cultural history of art and the impact of psychoanalysis The works discussed in these essays range from Rembrandt's Danae to Jorge Immendorf's Caf Deutschland from Vauxhall Gardens to Max Ernst and from the Imagines of Philostratus to William Godwin's novel Caleb Williams Each section is preceded by a short introduction that offers further contexts for considering the essays that follow while the editors' general introduction presents an overall exploration of the relation between vision and textuality in a variety of both institutional and theoretical contexts Among other issues it examines the relevance of aesthetics the current concern with modernism and postmodernism and the possible development of new disciplinary formations in the humanities Contributors Mieke Bal John Bender Norman Bryson Victor Burgin Thomas Crow Peter de Bolla Hal Foster Michael Holly Martin Jay Rosalind Krauss Fran oise Lucbert Louis Martin Stephen Melville Griselda Pollock Bill Readings Irit Rogoff Bennet Schaber John Tagg Burning with Desire Geoffrey Batchen, 1999-03-15 In an 1828 letter to his partner Nic phore Ni pce Louis Daguerre wrote I am burning with desire to see your experiments from nature In this book Geoffrey Batchen analyzes the desire to photograph as it emerged within the philosophical and scientific milieus that preceded the actual invention of photography Recent accounts of photography s identity tend to divide between the postmodern view that all identity is determined by context and a formalist effort to define the fundamental characteristics of photography as a medium Batchen critiques both approaches by way of a detailed discussion of photography s conception in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries He examines the output of the various nominees for first photographer then incorporates this information into a mode of historical criticism informed by the work of Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida The result is a way of thinking about photography that persuasively accords with the medium s undeniable conceptual political and historical complexity History of Photography Peter Turner, 1987 France and the Americas Bill Marshall, 2005-05-24 A unique multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the impacts that French and American politics foreign policy and culture have had on shaping each country s identity From 17th century fur traders in Canada to 21st century peacekeepers in Haiti from France s decisive role in the Revolutionary War leading to the creation of the United States to recent disagreements over Iraq France and the Americas charts the history of the inextricable links between France and the nations of the Americas This comprehensive survey features an incisive introduction and a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of France s transatlantic relations Students of many disciplines as well as the lay reader will appreciate this comprehensive survey which traces the common themes of both French policy language and influence throughout the Americas and the wide ranging transatlantic influences on contemporary France Prêt-à-Porter, Paris and Women Alexis Romano, 2022-05-19 In the first critical history of French ready made fashion Alexis Romano examines an array of cultural sources including surviving garments fashion magazines film photography and interviews to weave together previously disparate historical narratives The resulting volume Pr t Porter Paris and Women situates the ready made in wider cultural discourses of art design urbanism technology and international policy Through a close study of fashion magazines including Vogue and Elle Romano reveals how the French ready made and the genre of fashion photography in France developed in tandem Analyses of representations of space women and pr t porter in such magazines alongside other cultural ephemera such as contemporary film documentary photography and family photographs demonstrate that popular conceptions of fashion and modernity shifted in the period 1945 68 By connecting national and personal histories Pr t Porter Paris and Women reveals the importance of the ready made to broader narratives of postwar reconstruction national identity gender and international dialogue The Proustian Quest William Carter, Jeffrey Lange, 1994-02 An ambitious study the fruit of sustained work over many years Professor Carter s book deploys a stunning knowledge of Proust and places Carter among the first line of Proust scholars in the country Roger Shattuck Boston University The Proustian Quest is the first full length study that explores the influence of social change on Proust s vision In Remembrance of Things Past Proust describes how the machines of transportation and communication transformed fashion social mores time space perception and the understanding of the laws of nature Concentrating on the motif of speed Carter establishes the centrality of the modern world to the novel s main themes and produces a far reaching synthesis that demonstrates the work s profound structural unity The British Journal of Photography ,1874 Verbal, Visual Crossings, 1880-1980 Theo d'. Haen,1990 Downcast Eyes Martin Jay,1993-10 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes s writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians

Verbal/Visual Crossings 1880-1890 Theo D'haen,2023-12-18 A History of Women Photographers Naomi Rosenblum,1994 In a work of staggering beauty and immense learning Rosenblum presents a comprehensive history of women s accomplishments in photography around the world and throughout the entire history of the medium from the mid 1800s to the present She explores the work of some 240 photographers from Anna Atkins Julia Margaret Cameron and Frances Benjamin Johnston to Tina Modotti Lisette Model Margaret Bourke White Louise Dahl Wolfe Susan Meiselas and Cindy Sherman Includes 263 photographs 30 in color Extensive bibliography Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford,2025-09-22 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada's settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification Reproducing images of people places events and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations Inuit and Métis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland Langford asks where and when photographs were taken why and by whom How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness Alongside accomplished portraits landscapes still lifes and their vernacular counterparts the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel official reports and personal diaries newspapers magazines letters and travelogues Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering artmaking and journaling Langford's sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience

The Cromer Collection of Nineteenth-century French Photography

,2022-05-31 A deep dive into the pioneering collection of nineteenth century French photographs equipment and ephemera which is a cornerstone of the George Eastman Museum In the early twentieth century Parisian photographer amateur historian and collector Gabriel Cromer 1873-1934 amassed a collection that traced photography's prehistory invention and development to about 1890 His dream was to found a national museum of the photographic arts in France Although Cromer's ambition was never realized his collection was central to establishing the world's first museum dedicated to photography the George Eastman Museum The Cromer Collection of Nineteenth Century French Photography considers the origin and circulation of the collection as well as the influence it has had on photography as a field of study The book's six essays written by French and American scholars explore the Cromer Collection's complex passage across markets borders and functions For more than half a century curators and scholars worldwide have drawn extensively on the Gabriel Cromer Collection for exhibitions and publications this book provides the first focused scholarly study of the foundational resource
