French Romanesque Sculpture An Annotated Bibliography:

French Romanesque Sculpture Thomas W. Lyman, Daniel Smartt, 1987 Romanesque Sculpture An Ecstatic Art Susan Marcus, 2014 Architectural sculpture virtually abandoned for five hundred years following the demise of the Roman Empire was revived on the portals of Romanesque churches in eleventh and twelfth century France and Spain Long overdue is a reappraisal of those images whose aesthetic of rendering the invisible visible establish them as valuable witnesses to the culture of Europe in the Middle Ages Countless losses mutilation through wilful destruction centuries of accumulated grime and a dearth of studies in English have impeded the deserved realization and appreciation of these magnificent works of art Through illustration and illuminative interpretation Romanesque Sculpture An Ecstatic Art fills the void by tracing the beginnings maturation and efflorescence of monumental sculptured facades in the short lived Romanesque era Depictions on them are mirrors of the age sophisticated theological messages monastic life the cult of relics pilgrimages crusades and politics The survey considers too the sculptors mostly anonymous who in adapting models from several media both antique and current created a unique visual vocabulary The beauty of the sculptures comes to the fore The stones live A Companion to Medieval Art Conrad Rudolph, 2019-05-07 A fully updated and comprehensive companion to Romanesque and Gothic art history This definitive reference brings together cutting edge scholarship devoted to the Romanesque and Gothic traditions in Northern Europe and provides a clear analytical survey of what is happening in this major area of Western art history The volume comprises original theoretical historical and historiographic essays written by renowned and emergent scholars who discuss the vibrancy of medieval art from both thematic and sub disciplinary perspectives Part of the Blackwell Companions to Art History A Companion to Medieval Art Second Edition features an international and ambitious range of contributions covering reception formalism Gregory the Great pilgrimage art gender patronage marginalized images the concept of spolia manuscript illumination stained glass Cistercian architecture art of the crusader states and more Newly revised edition of a highly successful companion including 11 new articles Comprehensive coverage ranging from vision materiality and the artist through to architecture sculpture and painting Contains full color illustrations throughout plus notes on the book s many distinguished contributors A Companion to Medieval Art Romanesque and Gothic in Northern Europe Second Edition is an exciting and varied study that provides essential reading for students and teachers of Medieval art Historical Dictionary of France Gino Raymond, 2008-10-23 From the construction of Notre Dame and the Eiffel Tower to the Fall of the Bastille and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen to Napoleon Bonaparte s defeat at Waterloo to Albert Camus L Etranger and the existentialism of Jean Paul Sartre France has been a part of some of the greatest and most memorable events in human history Author Gino Raymond relates the history of these events in the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of France Through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on kings politicians authors architects composers artists and philosophers a thorough history of France is presented History of Art Horst Woldemar Janson, Anthony F. Janson, 2004 For forty years this widely acclaimed classic has remained unsurpassed as an introduction to art in the Western world boasting the matchless credibility of the Janson name This newest update features a more contemporary more colorful design and vast array of extraordinarily produced illustrations that have become the Janson hallmark A narrative voice makes this book a truly enjoyable read and carefully reviewed and revised updates to this edition offer the utmost clarity in contributions based on recent scholarship Extensive captions for the book's incredible art program offer profound insight through the eyes of twentieth century art historians speaking about specific pieces of art featured throughout Significantly changed in this edition is the chapter on The Late Renaissance in which Janson offers a new perspective on the subject tracing in detail the religious art tied to the Catholic Reform movement whose early history is little known to many readers of art history Janson has also rearranged early Renaissance art according to genres instead of time sequence and he has followed the reinterpretation of Etruscan art begun in recent years by German and English art historians With a truly humanist approach this book gives written and visual meaning to the captivating story of what artists have tried to express and why for more than 30 000 years The Nave Sculpture of Vézelay Kirk Ambrose, 2006 This scholarly work fundamentally changes the way we think about the monastic church of Vézelay and its sculptures Kirk Ambrose provides a new account of the celebrated sculptural ensemble at this important French Romanesque monastic church Whereas scholarly attention in the past has focused almost exclusively on the Pentecostal portal Ambrose devotes most of his analysis to the nave capitals He considers how these works intersect with various aspects of monastic culture from poetry to a sign language used during observed periods of silence From this study it emerges how many of the sculptures resonated with communal practices and with interpretive modes in use at the site Deeming the attempt to uncover an underlying or unifying program to be an anachronistic project Ambrose explores historically specific ways this ensemble cohered for medieval viewers Covering a range of themes including hagiography ornament and violence he develops alternative approaches for the examination of serial imagery As a result this book has broad implications for the study of eleventh and twelfth century art in the West BOOK JACKET Open Access Mickey Abel, 2011-12-08 Open Access Contextualizing the Archivolted Portals of Northern Spain and Western France within the Theology and Politics of Entry explores the history development and accrued connotations of a distinctive entry configuration comprised of a set of concentrically stepped archivolts surrounding a deliberate tympanum free portal opening These archivolted portals adorned many of the small rural ecclesiastical structures dotting the countryside of western France and northern Spain in the twelfth century Seeking to re contextualize this configuration within monastic meditational practices this book argues that the ornamented archivolts were likely composed following medieval prescriptions for the rhetorical ornamentation of poetry and employed the techniques of mnemonic recollection and imaginative visualization Read in this light it becomes clear that the architectural form underlying these semi circular configurations served to open the possibilities for meaning by making the sculptural imagery physically and philosophically accessible to both the monastic community and the lay parishioner Pointing to an Iberian heritage in which both light and space had long been manipulated in the conveyance of theological and political ideologies Abel suggests that the portal s architectural form grew out of a physical and social matrix characterized by pilgrimage crusade and processions where the elements of motion integral to the Quadrivium sciences of Math Geometry Astronomy and Music were enhanced by a proximity to and cultural interaction with the Islamic courts of Spain It was however within the politics of the Peace of God movement with its emphasis on relic processions that often encompassed all the parishes of the monastic domain that the archivolted portal with its elevated porch like space are shown to be the most effective National Endowment for the Humanities ... Annual Report National Endowment for the Humanities, French Art: Prehistory to the Middle Ages André Chastel,1994 The renowned art historian Andre Chastel intended his history of art in France from prehistoric times to the nineteenth century to be the crowning achievement of his long and distinguished career The fruit of ten years of research and writing this fully documented and erudite study goes beyond conventional art historical analysis to get at the heart of over two millenia of artistic creation Gothic Sculpture, 1140-1300 Paul Williamson,1995-01-01 This study examines the development of Gothic sculpture throughout Europe It discusses the most famous monuments such as the cathedrals of Chartres Amiens and Reims Westminster Abbey and the Siena Duomo and less familiar buildings in France England Italy Germany Spain and Scandinavia Conflicted Identities and Multiple Masculinities Jacqueline Murray,2013-09-05 Conflicting Identities and Multiple Masculinities takes as its focus the construction of masculinity in Western Europe from the early Middle Ages until the fifteenth century crossing from pre Christian Scandinavia across western Christendom The essays consult a broad and representative cross section of sources including the work of theological scholastic and monastic writers sagas hagiography and memoirs material culture chronicles exempla and vernacular literature sumptuary legislation and the records of ecclesiastical courts The studies address questions of what constituted male identity and male sexuality How was masculinity constructed in different social groups How did the secular and ecclesiastical ideals of masculinity reinforce each other or diverge These essays address the topic of medieval men and through a variety of theoretical methodological and disciplinary approaches significantly extend our understanding of how in the Middle Ages masculinity and identity were conflicted and multifarious Annual Report - National Endowment for the Humanities National Endowment for the Humanities,1982 A Bibliography of Sources in Christianity and the Arts Daven Michael Kari,1995 Works have been selected primarily for their utility to those conducting research in the fine arts relating to Christianity and religion General categories covered include bibliographies of bibliographies aesthetics architecture cinema dance and mime drama and rhetoric electronic communications radio TV and video fabric arts literature music photography visual arts calligraphy to sculpture wit and humor Early Periodical Indexes Robert Balay,2000 Balay s Early Periodical Indexes is the most comprehensive guide available to the indexing of periodical literature from the 16th century until the end of the 19th century limited in scope to European languages The material itself is widely scattered difficult to find and until now without a systematic way to identify it This extraordinarily useful tool lists and describes titles in a wide range of disciplines including indexes published prior to 1900 that are restricted to periodicals such as Poole's those published later such as Wellesley as well as serial and topical bibliographies citing publications in all formats and Balay explains the relationships among them Electronic databases both Web based and CD ROMs are included Indexes are by author title topical subjects and dates of coverage This landmark resource should be a familiar sight in every research library French Art André Chastel, 1994 The first volume opens with the artifacts left behind by the earliest inhabitants of the area that forms modern France prehistoric cave dwellers Celts Gallo Romans and Merovingians which are examined in Part I along with the stunning artistic achievements of Charlemagne and his Carolingian successors Part II explores the development of monumental Romanesque and Gothic sculpture and architecture as well as the growing importance of manuscript illumination ivory carving and precious metalwork The late Gothic period is the subject of the last section which concludes with the highly refined and stylized courtly art of the late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries the final and perfect flowering of the medieval world THE CLOISTERS. Elizabeth C. Parker, 1992 Contro l'arte romanica? Xavier Barral i Altet, 2009
