R. Martin,Christian M. I. M. Matthiessen,2004 This book is intended as a systemic functional contribution to language typology both for those who would like to understand and describe particular languages against the background of generalizations about a wide range of languages and also for those who would like to develop typological accounts that are based on and embody descriptions of the systems of particular languages rather than isolated constructions. The book is a unique contribution in at least two respects. On the one hand it is the first book based on systemic functional theory that is specifically concerned with language typology. On the other hand the book combines the particular with the general in the description of languages: it presents comparable sketches of particular languages while at the same time identifying generalizations based on the languages described here as well as on other languages. The volume explores eight languages covering seven language families: French, German, Pitjantjatjara, Tagalog, Telugu, Vietnamese, Chinese and Japanese. Learn French Parallel Text - Easy Stories (English/ French) Polyglot Planet Publishing, 2015-08-19. Business French 3 - Parallel Text - Management Polyglot Publishing, 2016-08-31. Business French 3 Learning. Business French 3 with parallel text is the most rewarding and effective method to learn a language. Existing vocabulary is refreshed while new vocabulary is instantly put into practice. Our stories evolve around French business in marketing, making the terms and phrases easier to remember in the learning process. Learning Business French 3 with Parallel Text is recommended for beginners with a good basis of French, intermediate level learners and as a refresher course. The stories have been written to keep the readers' attention and are fun to read for you to learn through your motivation. What is Parallel Text? There are various strategies to learn a foreign language. An important and increasingly popular method in language learning is reading parallel texts, also known as bilingual texts or interlinear texts. Parallel texts include the translation in the learner's native language either below or next to the target language. Parallel text works best for Indo-European languages as grammar, syntax and quite often vocabulary can be similar. This makes it easier to compare process and memorise sentence structures, vocabulary and idioms. Using parallel texts is a great way to learn a new language. Being able to use the new vocabulary in context helps students memorise the new words in different forms more quickly. For those who simply need to refresh their language skills, parallel text helps quickly revive some of those old brain connections. Parallel texts give immediate feedback to the student, eliminating the need to look up other resources such as dictionaries or online translation tools. Moreover, comparing words, phrases and idioms in the two languages is incredibly useful for memorising them and becoming familiar with the sentence structure, which can increase your grammar skills while avoiding boring and often complicated theory. Most importantly, the language you are learning is put directly into context. Although some linguists argue that learners should engage in 3-4 hours of learning a day, 20-30 minutes a day of reading a parallel text is more than enough.

That makes parallel text a fantastic addition to the language course you might already be taking Business French 2 - Parallel Text - Marketing Polyglot Publishing, 2016-09-02 Business French 2 Learning Business French with parallel text is the most rewarding and effective method to learn a language Existing vocabulary is refreshed while new vocabulary is instantly put into practice Our stories evolve around French business in marketing making the terms and phrases easier to remember in the learning process Learning Business French 2 with Parallel Text is recommended for beginners with a good basis of French intermediate level learners and as a refreshers course The stories have been written to keep the readers attention and are fun to read for you to learn through your motivation What is Parallel Text There are various strategies to learn a foreign language An important and increasingly popular method in language learning is reading parallel texts also known as bilingual texts or interlinear texts Parallel texts include the translation in the learner's native language either below or next to the target language Parallel text works best for Indo European languages as grammar syntax and quite often vocabulary can be similar This makes it easier to compare process and memorise sentence structures vocabulary and idioms Using parallel texts is a great way to learn a new language Being able to use the new vocabulary in context helps students process the new words in different forms more quicker For those who simply need to refresh their language skills parallel text helps quickly revive some of those old brain connections Parallel texts give immediate feedback to the student eliminating the need to look up other recourses such as dictionaries or online translation tools Moreover comparing words phrases and idioms in the two languages is incredibly useful for memorising them and becoming familiar with the sentence structure which can increase your grammar skills while avoiding boring and often complicated theory Most importantly the language you are learning is put directly into context Although some linguists argue that learners should engage in 3 4 hours of learning a day 20 30 minutes a day of reading a parallel text is more than enough That makes parallel text a fantastic addition to the language course you might already be taking French Short Stories, Volume 2 / Nouvelles Françaises Tome 2 Simon Lee, 1972 Collection of eight short stories representative of 20th century French writing French Short Stories: Improve Your Reading and Speaking Skills with Fun Tales for Beginners, Intermediate and Advanced French Learners Santi Herrera, Unlock French Fluency Through Cultural Immersion Struggling with French textbooks that feel disconnected from real life Want to improve your French while experiencing authentic culture Ready to move beyond dry vocabulary lists to genuine language mastery French Short Stories Improve Your Reading and Speaking Skills with Fun Tales for Beginners Intermediate and Advanced French Learners is the ultimate collection that transforms language learning from a chore into an adventure This carefully crafted book combines engaging storytelling with practical language acquisition in a format proven to accelerate fluency Inside this book you'll discover 10 captivating stories following an American student's journey through authentic French settings from Parisian cafés to Provençal markets Side by side French and English text for immediate comprehension support Progressive difficulty that grows with your skills perfect for continuing your journey
