French Through Their Films:

The French Through Their Films Robin Buss,1988      The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz,MaryEllen Higgins,2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinématographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinématographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean-Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike      Handbook of French Popular Culture Pierre L.

Horn,1991-05-21 Throughout the world there has been much scholarly and general interest in French popular culture but very little has been written on the subject in English The authors of this book address that lack in a series of highly readable and well documented essays describing French life styles attitudes and entertainments as well as the writers and performers currently favored by the French public Several chapters explore French tastes in popular literature and other reading matter including comics cartoons mystery and spy fiction newspapers and magazines and science fiction Film popular music radio and television are also discussed in detail and influences from other cultures particularly American imports are assessed The remaining essays examine French sports the use of leisure time the French style of eating and drinking and relations between men and women and their attitudes toward romantic love Each chapter provides up to date historical and bibliographic information that will enable the reader to pursue subjects of particular interest Written by an international group of specialists this handbook offers the benefits of broad coverage a variety of viewpoints and solid scholarship

French New Wave and Beyond: A Journey Through the Cinema of Jean Renoir Pasquale De Marco,2025-03-18 Jean Renoir and François Truffaut were two of the most important and influential filmmakers of the 20th century Their work revolutionized the art of cinema and their films continue to be enjoyed and studied by audiences around the world This book is a comprehensive exploration of the lives careers and legacies of these two great filmmakers It examines their shared love of cinema their passion for telling stories that are both entertaining and thought provoking and their belief that film could be a powerful force for social change The book begins with a discussion of the birth of the French New Wave a cinematic movement that Renoir and Truffaut were both instrumental in shaping It then provides a detailed analysis of Renoir s early films which were influenced by the French Impressionist movement and his later films which explored themes of love war and social injustice The book also examines Truffaut s early masterpieces such as The 400 Blows and Jules and Jim as well as his later films which often dealt with themes of childhood adolescence and the search for meaning in life In addition to discussing the individual achievements of Renoir and Truffaut the book also explores their relationship with each other Truffaut was a great admirer of Renoir s work and he often cited Renoir as a major influence on his own filmmaking The book examines the ways in which Truffaut s films were influenced by Renoir s and it also discusses the personal and professional relationship between the two filmmakers This book is a must read for anyone interested in the history of cinema the work of Renoir and Truffaut or the French New Wave movement It is a celebration of two great filmmakers who left an indelible mark on the world of cinema If you like this book write a review

A History of the French New Wave Cinema

Richard Neupert, 2007-04-20 The French New Wave cinema is arguably the most fascinating of all film movements famous for its exuberance daring and avant garde techniques A History of the French New Wave Cinema offers a fresh look at the social economic and aesthetic mechanisms that shaped French film in the 1950s as well as detailed studies of the most important New Wave movies of the late 1950s and early 1960s Richard Neupert first tracks the precursors to New Wave cinema showing how they provided blueprints for those who would follow He then demonstrates that it was a core group of critics turned directors from the magazine Cahiers du Cin ma especially Fran ois Truffaut Claude Chabrol and Jean Luc Godard who really revealed that filmmaking was changing forever Later their cohorts Eric Rohmer Jacques Rivette Jacques Doniol Valcroze and Pierre Kast continued in their own unique ways to expand the range and depth of the New Wave In an exciting new chapter Neupert explores the subgroup of French film practice known as the Left Bank Group which included directors such as Alain Resnais and Agn s Varda With the addition of this new material and an updated conclusion Neupert presents a comprehensive review of the stunning variety of movies to come out of this important era in filmmaking

French film directors

Douglas Morrey, 2005-10-07 This volume offers a new interpretation of one of the most innovative directors in the history of cinema It is the first book to cover the whole of Godard s career from the French New Wave to the recent triumphs of Histoire s du cin ma and Eloge de l amour Drawing on a wide range of literary filmic and philosophical texts the book places Godard s work within its intellectual context examining how developments in French culture and thought since 1950 have been mirrored in and sometimes anticipated by Godard s films Numerous sequences from Godard s films are singled out for close analysis demonstrating how the director's radical approaches to narrative editing, sound, and shot composition have made the cinema into an analytical tool in its own right.

French Comedy on Screen R. Lanzoni, 2014-10-30 French comedy films occupy a specific cultural space and are influenced by national traditions and shared cultural references but at the same time they have always been difficult to classify. This book investigates the different methods in which these comedies textually inscribed and exemplified a variety of cultural and historical landmarks.

The French Cinema Book Michael Temple, Michael Witt, 2018-01-18 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day. The contributors, who include leading historians and film scholars, provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history. Each chronological section addresses seven key themes: people, business, technology, forms, representations, spectators, and debates, providing an essential overview of the cinema industry, the people who worked in it (including technicians and actors as well as directors), and the culture of cinema going in France from the beginnings of cinema to the contemporary period.

French Musical Culture and the Coming of Sound Cinema Hannah Lewis, 2018-09-05 In French Musical Culture and the Coming of Sound Cinema, author Hannah Lewis argues that debates about sound film resonated deeply within French musical culture of the early 1930s and conversely that discourses surrounding French musical styles and genres shaped cinematic experiments during the transition to sound.

Hollywood's Film Wars with France Jens Ulf-Møller, 2001 It is based on hitherto unstudied documents from these institutions. While European film production was at a standstill after World War I, Hollywood companies flooded the European market with hundreds of films at very low prices.

A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema Alistair Fox, Michel Marie, Raphaëlle Moine, Hilary Radner, 2015-01-27 A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema presents a comprehensive collection of original essays addressing all aspects of French cinema from 1990 to the present day. Featuring contributions from an international cast of established and emerging scholars of French cinema, these innovative essays highlight the diversity of French films and filmmaking techniques that have emerged since the New Wave era. Themes and topics covered include the social, political, and cultural contexts of recent French cinema; contemporary filmmakers and performers; genres, cycles, and cinematic forms; gender and sexuality; and emerging trends and innovative new filmmaking forms. Among the French films examined in depth are hit comedies including Bienvenue chez les Ch'tis and Intouchables; blockbusters such as The Crimson Rivers; police films like 36th Precinct; historical films such as Farewell My Queen and Days of Glory; celebrated animated features such as Kirikou and the Sorceress; films representative of the new French extreme such as Romance, Baisemoi, and Trouble Every Day; and numerous auteur films ranging from Bruno Dumont's Hors Satan and Franois Ozon's shorts to Pascale Ferran's Lady Chatterley and Alain Guiraudie's L'Inconnu du lac. Combining cutting-edge scholarship with wide-ranging methodological approaches and perspectives, A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of French film as well as all those interested in the evolution of this celebrated cinematic tradition

It's So French! Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2007-12-15 The recent history of cultural exchange between France and the United States would appear to be defined by freedom fries and boycotts against Beaujolais or on the other side of the Atlantic by enraged farmers toppling statues of Ronald McDonald But this dismal state of affairs is a long way from the mutual admiration that followed World War II epitomized in a 1958 cover of Look magazine that declared Brigitte Bardot conquers America It's So French explores the close affinity between the French and American film industries that flourished in the postwar years breaking down myths of American imperialism and French cultural protectionism while illuminating the vital role that cinema has played in the globalization of culture Hollywood was once enamored with everything French and this infatuation blossomed in a wildly popular series of films including An American in Paris Gigi and Funny Face Schwartz here examines the visual appeal of such films and then broadens her analysis to explore their production and distribution probing the profitable influences that Hollywood and Paris exerted on each other This exchange moved beyond individual films with the sensational spectacle of the Cannes Film Festival and the meteoric career of Brigitte Bardot And in turn their success led to a new kind of film that celebrated internationalism and cultural hybridity Ultimately Schwartz uncovers an intriguing paradox that the road to globalization was paved with nationalist clichés and thus films beloved for being so French were in fact the first signs of a nascent cosmopolitan culture Packed with an array of colorful film stills publicity photographs paparazzi shots ads and never before seen archival images It's So French is an incisive account of the fertile collaboration between France and the United States that expanded the geographic horizons of both filmmaking and filmgoing forever changing what the world saw and dreamed of when they went to the movies

French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2014-04-23 The second edition of this innovative textbook brings together leading scholars to provide detailed analyses of twenty two key films within the canon of French cinema from the 1920s to the 1990s Films discussed include masterpieces such as Renoir's La Bête Humaine and Carne's Les Enfants du Paradis popular classics such as Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Ma Nuit chez Maud landmarks of the New Wave such as Les 400 Coups and A bout de souffle important films of the 1990s such as Nikita and La Haine The films are considered in relation to such issues as the history of French cinema the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception the relationship with Hollywood cinema gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema

New Spaces for French and Francophone Cinema James F. Austin, 2009-01-01 On the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the French Nouvelle Vague this volume of Yale French Studies aims to take the pulse of French and Francophone cinema today by exploring the national transnational and post colonial spaces of twenty first century France From publisher description

French National Cinema Susan Hayward, 2006-09-07 This examination of France's national cinema takes its primary artefact the feature film and discusses both popular cinema and the avant garde cinema that contests it Susan Hayward argues that writing on French national cinema has tended to focus on either great film makers or on specific movements addressing moments of exception rather than the global picture Her work offers a thorough and much needed historical textualisation of those moments and relocates them in their wider political and cultural context Beginning with an ecohistory of the French film industry she then traces the various movements in French cinema and the directors associated with them including the avant garde Poetic Realist New Wave and today s postmodern cinema Her analysis includes amongst other considerations the social and political concerns these cinemas reflect

Contemporary French Cinema Alan J. Singerman, Michèle Bissière, 2018-09-15 Like its French language companion volume Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe Alan Singerman and Michèle Bissière s Contemporary French Cinema A Student s Book offers a detailed look at recent French cinema through its analyses of twenty notable and representative French films that have appeared since 1980 Sure to delight Anglophone fans of French film it can be used with equal success in English language courses and when paired with its companion volume dual language ones Acclaim for Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe From Le Dernier Métro to Intouchables Bissière and Singerman cover the latest trends of French cinema emphasizing context and analytical method as Singerman did in Apprentissage du cinéma français Focus 2004 The authors offer a selection of films most French cinephiles will applaud and they incorporate insights from some of the best critical work on French cinema Students of French film will also find all the bibliographical pointers they need to dig deeper and instructors will appreciate the pedagogical components included in the chapters Jonathan Walsh Department of French Studies Wheaton College Massachusetts This remarkable book comes to us from two seasoned teachers and critics and beautifully complements an earlier work Alan Singerman s Apprentissage du cinéma français The time period covered more targeted here than in the preceding text is admirably well chosen and the breakdown by broad category each offering multiple options guides the teacher while offering a choice among an abundance of interesting films The preliminary chapters both succinct and informative give students an excellent overview of French cinema as a whole and of the technical knowledge needed for film analysis Each of the subsequent chapters offers an indispensable introduction discussing the plot director production actors reception and context of the film in question and also provides a very useful filmography and bibliography an exemplary work Brigitte E Humbert Department of French and Francophone Studies Middlebury College

The History of French Literature on Film Kate Griffiths, Andrew Watts, 2020-12-24 French novels plays poems and short stories however temporally or culturally distant from us continue to be incarnated and reincarnated on cinema screens across the world From the silent films of Georges Méliès to the Hollywood production of Gustave Flaubert s Madame Bovary directed by Sophie Barthes The History of French Literature on Film explores the key films directors and movements that have shaped the adaptation of works by French authors since the end of the 19th century Across six chapters Griffiths and Watts examine the factors that have driven this vibrant adaptive industry as filmmakers have turned to literature in search of commercial profits cultural legitimacy and stories rich in dramatic potential The volume also explains how the work of theorists from a variety of disciplines literary theory translation theory adaptation theory can help to deepen both our understanding and our appreciation of literary adaptation as a creative practice Finally this volume seeks to make clear that adaptation is never a simple transcription of an earlier literary work It is always simultaneously an adaptation of the society and era for which it is created Adaptations of French literature are thus not only valuable artistic artefacts in their own right so too are they important historical documents which testify to the values and tastes of their own time Muslim Women in French Cinema Leslie Kealhofer-Kemp,2015-12-14 Bringing together a diverse corpus of over 60 documentaries short films t l films and feature films released in France between 1979 and 2014 this book represents the first comprehensive study of cinematic representations of first generation Muslim women from the Maghreb Algeria Morocco Tunisia in France The Legacy of the New Wave in French Cinema Douglas Morrey,2019-09-05 In this study of the impact and influence of the New Wave in French cinema Douglas Morrey looks at both the subsequent careers of New Wave filmmakers and the work of later film directors and film movements in France This book is organized around a series of key moments from the past 50 years of French cinema in order to show how the meaning and legacy of the New Wave have shifted over time and how the priorities approaches and discourses of filmmakers and film critics have changed over the years Morrey tackles key concepts such as the auteur the relationship of form and content gender and sexuality intertextuality and rhythm Filmmakers discussed include Godard Truffaut Varda Chabrol and Rohmer plus Philippe Garrel Luc Besson Leos Carax Bruno Dumont the Dardenne brothers Christophe Honor Fran ois Ozon and Jacques Audiard
