Agnes Varda

between Film, Photography, and Art Rebecca J. DeRoo, 2017-10-17 Agnès Varda is a prolific film director photographer and artist whose cinematic career spans more than six decades Today she is best known as the innovative mother of the French New Wave film movement of the 1950s and 60s and for her multimedia art exhibitions Varying her use of different media she is a figure who defies easy categorization In this extensively researched book Rebecca J DeRoo demonstrates how Varda draws upon the histories of art photography and film to complicate the overt narratives in her works and to advance contemporary cultural politics Based on interviews with Varda and unparalleled access to Varda's archives this interdisciplinary study constructs new frameworks for understanding one of the most versatile talents in twentieth and twenty first century culture Women in French Studies, 2008 French-speaking Women Film Directors Janis L. Pallister, 1997 This guide offers listings of some 300 Francophone women from around the world their work Wherever possible entries include dates brief biographies descriptions brief critical analyses Feminist Collections, 2014 New Books on Women and Feminism, 2005 Noteworthy Francophone Women Directors Janis L. Pallister, Ruth A. Hottell, 2011-11-17 Noteworthy Francophone women directors a sequel is a comprehensive guide that acts as both a teaching tool and a directory for research The book begins by following films released after the publication of Pallister and Hottell's last volume Francophone women film directors in 2005 and stops after the Cannes film festival in 2010 Book cover Bibliographic Index, 2007 Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Agnès Varda Agnès Varda, 2014 Collected interviews with the French filmmaker who is sometimes called the Mother of the New Wave The Female Gaze in Documentary Film Lisa French, 2021-07-04 The Female Gaze in Documentary Film an International Perspective makes a timely contribution to the recent rise in interest in the status presence achievements and issues for women in contemporary screen industries It examines the works contributions and participation of female documentary directors globally The central preoccupation of the book is to consider what might constitute a female gaze an inquiry that has had a long history in filmmaking film theory and women's art It fills a gap in the literature which to date has not substantially examined the work of female documentary directors Moreover research on sex gender and the gaze has infrequently been the subject of scholarship on documentary film particularly in comparison to narrative film or television drama A distinctive feature of the book is that it is based on interviews with significant female documentarians from Europe Asia and North America The Routledge Handbook of Multilingualism Marilyn Martin-Jones, Adrian Blackledge, Angela Creese, 2012-05-31 The Routledge Handbook of Multilingualism provides a comprehensive survey of the field of multilingualism for a global readership and an overview of the research which situates multilingualism in its social cultural and political context The handbook includes an introduction and five sections with thirty two chapters by leading international contributors The introduction charts the changing landscape of social and ethnographic research on multilingualism theory methods and research sites and it foregrounds key contemporary debates Chapters are structured around sub headings such as early developments key issues related to theory and method new research directions This handbook offers an authoritative guide to shifts over time in thinking about multilingualism as well as providing an overview of the range of contemporary themes debates and research sites The Routledge Handbook of Multilingualism is the ideal resource for postgraduate students of multilingualism as well as those studying education and anthropology Resources in Education, 1997
