French Canadian Sources A Guide For Family Historians:

French Canadian Sources Patricia Kenney Geyh, 2002 A six year collaborative effort of members of the French Canadian Acadian Genealogical Society this book provides detailed explanations about the genealogical sources available to those seeking their French Canadian ancestors

The ^AOxford Guide to Library Research Thomas Mann, 2015-02-27 In this fourth edition of The Oxford Guide to Library Research Thomas Mann spells out the range of amazing resources available in research libraries that cannot be found on the Internet These include not only the tens of millions of books journals and other post 1923 printed sources that cannot be digitized because of copyright restrictions but a rich array of subscription databases in all subject areas that are not accessible on the open Web but are freely searchable via research libraries The Oxford Guide to Library Research provides scores of concrete examples drawn from the experience of a veteran reference librarian who has helped tens of thousands of researchers over three decades

The Source Loretto Dennis Szucs, Sandra Hargreaves Luebking, 2006 Genealogists and other historical researchers have valued the first two editions of this work often referred to as the genealogist's bible The new edition continues that tradition Intended as a handbook and a guide to selecting locating and using appropriate primary and secondary resources The Source also functions as an instructional tool for novice genealogists and a refresher course for experienced researchers More than 30 experts in this field genealogists historians librarians and archivists prepared the 20 signed chapters which are well written easy to read and include many helpful hints for getting the most out of whatever information is acquired Each chapter ends with an extensive bibliography and is further enriched by tables black and white illustrations and examples of documents Eight appendixes include the expected contact information for groups and institutions that persons studying genealogy and history need to find

Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers
