Freres De Sang Text In French:

The Vietnamese Novel in French Jack Andrew Yeager, University of New Hampshire, 1987 Analyzes over two dozen novels written in French by Vietnamese authors since 1920 showing how they reflect react against Vietnam's colonial heritage

Disorientation Karl Ashoka Britto, 2004-04-01 This book explores literary representations of cultural hybridity spanning nearly half a century a period marked by major shifts in Franco Vietnamese relations How can identity be thought and represented outside of the oppositional categories that divide cultures histories languages and races Can the intercultural subject be understood as more than a site of cultural contestation as anything other than a confrontation between incompatible binary opposites This book offers compelling responses to these questions through a series of close readings of francophone novels written by Vietnamese authors during and just after the colonial period While many contemporary studies of cultural hybridity tend to privilege the postmodern deconstructive play of postcolonial identities Disorientation seeks to uncover what is often obscured in such celebratory analyses the rigid and potentially traumatic conditions under which colonized subjects experienced the tensions and contradictions of intercultural identity The close readings that form the core of the book are inflected by cultural and historical considerations and informed by a range of primary documents that includes training manuals for colonial administrators works of imperialist propaganda tourist guidebooks and travel writing and textbooks from Franco Vietnamese schools These contextualized analyses recast the problem of interculturality in an Asian francophone context expanding the historical and cultural fields within which questions of identity and difference are currently discussed and offering a striking perspective from which to question postcolonial theories of hybridity

Touching Beauty Miléna Santoro, Jack A. Yeager, 2023-06-15 Kim Th y is a literary phenomenon rising in her first decade of writing to a level of international recognition that few Qu b cois writers ever attain The Vietnamese born author s novels have garnered literary prize recognition and have been translated from French into twenty nine languages in nearly forty countries Touching Beauty is the first collection to focus solely on Th y and her economical yet poetic storytelling style that expresses both the traumatic and the beautiful Her writings which manage to be culturally specific all while speaking to the fundamentals of the human condition are examined within the context of what is known as migrant literature in Canada and are situated within the history of Vietnamese literature in French that grew out of the colonial period Chapters explore food identity gender and the role of writing in Th y s life and work Th y herself contributes an unpublished poem and an extended interview that focus on her ongoing struggle to find and write beauty amidst war migration poverty and loss Touching Beauty maps the themes that have to date animated a literary career of global relevance and enduring value and encourages a deeper appreciation of Th y s writing

Writing Ambition Literary Engagements between Women in France Katharine Ann Jensen analyzes the work of three pairs of women writing in French Genlis and Lafayette Colette and Annie de P ne and Nancy Huson and Le la Sebbbar to assess how their literary ambitions affected their engagements with each other Focused on the psychological aspects of the women s relationships the author combines close textual readings of their works with attention to historical and biographical contexts to consider how and why one or both women in the pair express contradictory or anxious feelings about literary ambition

Of Vietnam J. Winston,L. Chau-Pech,2001-12-06 A rich space of criticism and document Of Vietnam moves contemporary figurings of Vietnam out of the nostalgic enclaves of the past and the stagnant places of a mythological present into the rich potential of our historical epoch This provocative book is the first to bring together works by photographers established and unpublished writers poets and artists from Vietnam and its diasporas and critical pieces by scholars of anthropology art history history and literary and cultural studies Focusing on issues of identity displacement language sexuality and class their contributions challenge and encourage readers to experience the multiplicity of experiences that make up the fabric of identity Performing the Pied-Noir Family Aoife Connolly,2020-10-16 The impact of the Algerian War 1954 1962 continues to resonate in France where the subject was long repressed in the collective psyche This book sheds new light on a memory community at the heart of the conflict the million European settlers known as the pieds noirs who migrated to France as the war reached its bloody end Aoife Connolly draws on theories of performativity to explore autobiographical and fictional narratives by the settlers in over 30 canonical and non canonical works of literature and film produced from the colony s imminent demise up to the present day Connolly focuses on renewed attachment to the family in exile in a comprehensive analysis of settler masculinity femininity childhood and adolescence that uncovers neglected representations including homosexual and Jewish voices Findings on the construction of a post independence identity and collective memory have broader implications for communities affected by colonization and migration Scholars of French Studies Postcolonial Studies Cultural Studies Gender and Identity Studies Memory Studies and Migration Studies will find this book particularly useful

Violence and Propaganda in European Civil Wars Yiannis Kokosalakis,Francisco J. Leira-Castiñeira,2025-03-31 This volume offers a broad overview of the conditions motives and practices of violence during the most prominent intra state conflicts in Europe during the first half of the 20th century This book seeks to move beyond accounts of civil war violence that focus on microlevel motives or grand cleavages arguing instead that violence is best examined as a multidimensional phenomenon involving a range of structural personal and conjectural factors operating at various levels of societal interaction Making a case for methodological pluralism the volume brings together an interdisciplinary team of historians and social scientists to address the aspects of civil war violence from a broad range of empirical and methodological perspectives The book consists of three thematic sections The first section covers contextual issues related to civil war violence including the role of ideology and social dynamics The second and third sections comprise empirical case studies that examine the dimensions of violence in six prominent European civil wars The volume focuses on these particular conflicts because they are almost universally recognized as instances of civil war and this enables the volume to maintain its analytical focus on the dynamics of violence This book will be of much interest to students of European history civil wars political violence and International Relations in general Chapter 8 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Decolonising the Intellectual Jane Hiddleston, 2014 This book explores the impossible dilemma facing Francophone intellectuals writing in the lead up to decolonisation How could they redefine their culture and the humanity they felt had been denied by the colonial project in terms that did not replicate the French thinking by which they were formed

Civil Wars David Armitage, 2017-02-03 A highly original history tracing civil war the least understood and most intractable form of organized human aggression from Ancient Rome through the centuries to present day

Queer Maghrebi French Denis M Provencher, 2017-06-06 Queer Maghrebi French investigates the lives and stories of queer Maghrebi and Maghrebi French men who moved to or grew up in contemporary France and how these queer men living in France and the diaspora stake claims to time and space construct kinship and imagine their own future

Franz Liszt, His Circle, and His Elusive Oratorio Xavier Jon Puskowski, 2014-09-09 Many scholars concert pianists and classical music fans deem Franz Liszt the preeminent pianist of the nineteenth century In Franz Liszt His Circle and His Elusive Oratorio Xavier Puskowski engages in a detailed study of the links between Liszt his contemporaries and his milieu Drawing on Liszt's famous Saint Stanislas Oratorio as a focal point Puskowski brings together the history of the Romantic period in classical music and the intersection of key figures and historical events in his story of Liszt's achievements told from a distinctly historicist perspective Readers get a new view of Liszt as Puskowski brings together a remarkable cast of characters Friend and rival Frederic Chopin stands tall as a symbol of Poland's fight for independence the remarkable French people's poet Pierre Beranger makes his entrance virtuoso violinist Niccolò Paganini takes center stage later in Liszt's life the indefatigable French composer Hector Berlioz and the domineering Richard Wagner assume their roles in this musical drama and finally two of Poland's premier violinists Karol Lipinski and Henryk Wieniawski stand side by side with Russian pianist Anton Rubinstein as the story of Liszt's influence reaches across national boundaries and time itself to make its presence felt

The Astrological Works of Jean Thénault Nicolae Alexandru Virastau, 2025-05-01 This critical edition highlights the astrological writings of Jean Thénault a sixteenth century astrologer at the French court who served Louise of Savoy and her son King Francis I Thénault's works provide a rare glimpse into the intense fascination with astrology at the

Renaissance court particularly during the crisis of 1524 when planetary conjunctions led to widespread fears of floods and natural disasters By creatively incorporating Lucian of Samosata's dialogues Thénault also crafted one of the earliest cosmic journeys in early modern European literature This book enriches our understanding of how astrology prophecy politics and literature interacted in shaping early modern European thought Deviant Women of the French Revolution and the Rise of Feminism Lisa Beckstrand, 2009 Despite critical interest in the role of women in the French Revolution there is no single comprehensive study of the works of the two most prolific women writers of the period Olympe de Gouges and Manon Roland At a time when politicians were molding public policy concerning life liberty the pursuit of happiness and constituting criteria for citizenship increasing numbers of women in Paris were clamoring for rights New medical and philosophical theories redefining female nature were trotted out to justify women's continued exclusion from full political participation Such theories focused on the female body as the locus of women's intellectual inadequacies and promulgated the idea that women who acted outside of the confines of their physiological nature were considered desensitized and unfeminine Deviant Women of the French Revolution and the Rise of Feminism aims to uncover the work of those women who challenged prevailing views of female nature sought social reforms and were deemed deviant for their writing and/or activism during the French Revolution Jacket The Black Musketeer Eric Martone, 2011-05-25 Alexandre Dumas author of The Three Musketeers The Count of Monte Cristo and The Man in the Iron Mask is the most famous French writer of the nineteenth century In 2002 his remains were transferred to the Panthéon on a mausoleum reserved for the greatest French citizens amidst much national hype during his bicentennial Contemporary France struggling with the legacies of colonialism and growing diversity has transformed Dumas grandson of a slave from St Domingue now Haiti into a symbol of the colonies and the larger francophone world in an attempt to integrate its immigrants and migrants from its former Caribbean African and Asian colonies to improve race relations and to promote French globality Such a reconception of Dumas has made him a major figure in debates on French identity and colonial history Ten years after Dumas's interment in the Panthéon the time is ripe to re-evaluate Dumas within this context of being a representative of la Francophonie The French re-evaluation of Dumas therefore invites a reassessment of his life works legacy and previous scholarship This interdisciplinary collection is the first major work to take up this task It is unique for being the first scholarly work to bring Dumas into the center of debates about French identity and France's relations with its former colonies For the purposes of this collection to analyze Dumas in a francophone context means to explore Dumas as a symbol of a French culture shaped by and inclusive of its former colonies and current overseas departments The seven entries in this collection which focus on providing new ways of interpreting The Three Musketeers The Man in the Iron Mask The Count of Monte Cristo and Georges are categorized into two broad groups The first group focuses on Dumas's relationship with the francophone colonial world during his lifetime which was characterized by the slave trade and provides a postcolonial re-examination of his work which was impacted profoundly by his status as an individual of black colonial descent in metropolitan France The second part of this collection which is centered broadly around Dumas s francophone legacy examines the way he has been remembered in the larger French speaking postcolonial world which includes metropolitan France in the past century to explore questions about French identity in an emerging global age Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
