Spain and New Spain David Henn,2004 This is the first book length study of the six travel narratives published by the 1989 winner of the Nobel Prize for Literatures Preliminary chapters focus on technical and thematic aspects of travel writing and on the author s approach to the genre Cela s travel works which appeared between 1948 and 1986 are examined in turn with a focus on the construction of the narratives and also on the themes that are developed in each of them There is an assessment of the author s treatment of topographical cultural historical and social material in his accounts of the journeys he made through various areas and regions of Spain as well as a consideration of the way in which these narratives reflect changes taking place in Spain during the Franco regime and in the decade following the dictator s death David Henn teaches modern Spanish fiction drama and travel literature at University College London Contemporary Travel Writing of Latin America Claire Lindsay,2010-02-15 This book takes a new approach to travel writing about Latin America by examining domestic journey narratives that have been produced by travellers from the continent itself and largely in Spanish. Historically travel writing about Latin America has been written primarily from the perspective of the foreign often European traveller. As such and following the large influx of military, scientific and leisure travellers in the region since its colonisation, much of this foreign travel writing has depicted the continent in predominantly exoticist and/or imperialist terms. Lindsay explores how Latin American travellers have conceived and constructed narratives about travel at home and considers how such texts, many of them available in English translation or with subtitles, function to counter or corroborate long-standing myths about the continent. Through a series of regionally and thematically oriented case studies that engage with key issues, themes and debates in both Latin American and travel studies, Lindsay provides the first sustained interdisciplinary study of contemporary domestic travel narratives about the region and will also comprise an important intervention into methodological debates about travel and travel writing.

London Goes to Sea Peter J. Baumgartner, 2004. London Goes To Sea is Peter J. Baumgartner's candid and captivating account of restoring an ageing fibreglass sailing boat over the course of four years and then introducing it to his native New England waters. His precise records illustrate every trial and triumph of the restoration process and his careful attention to errors made along the way provides crucial insight for anyone considering a similar project. His writing combines the best elements of a brisk, entertaining narrative and a thoroughly practical handbook, making for a truly unique story that embraces every experience of the coastal sailor. His unflagging joy and enthusiasm for his old Cape Dory shine through on every page.

The Fighter's Mind Sam Sheridan, 2010-02-02. From the acclaimed author of A Fighter's Heart comes an entertaining and enlightening look inside the mental game of mixed martial arts fighting. Dave Doyle, Yahoo Sports. In his acclaimed national bestseller A Fighter's Heart, Sam Sheridan took readers with him into the dangerous world of professional fighting. From a muay Thai bout in Bangkok to Iowa where he fought the toughest mixed martial arts stars, Sheridan threw himself into a quest to understand how and why we fight. In The Fighter's Mind, Sheridan explores the mental discipline required of an elite fighter. In his training, Sheridan heard time and again in Yogi Berra fashion that fighting is ninety percent mental, half the time. But what does this mean exactly? To uncover the secrets of mental strength and success, Sheridan interviewed dozens of the world's most fascinating and dangerous men. He spoke with celebrated trainers Freddie Roach and Greg Jackson, champion fighters Randy Couture, Frank Shamrock and Marcelo Garcia, ultrarunner David Horton, chess prodigy and the inspiration for Searching for Bobby Fischer, turned tai chi expert Josh Waitzkin and the legendary wrestler Dan Gable, among others. Fantastic. One of the best MMA books I've ever read and I've certainly read my fair share. Eric O'Brien, Way of the Warrior, ESPN radio. You don't have to care about fighting or even know that MMA stands for mixed martial arts to find insights into human behavior in Sam Sheridan's The Fighter's Mind. David M. Shribman, Bloomberg.

House Inside the Waves Richard Taylor, 2002-07-16. Writer, surfer and househusband Richard Taylor is mad about beaches and islands and was inspired by a house exchange that whisked him and his family from a freezing Ottawa winter to a year of some of the world's best surf on the east coast of Australia. In an era of packaged paradises and cyber surfers, the forty-something writer's first case of the mid-life blues seduced him into recapturing his youthful romance with surfing.

Essays on Unfamiliar Travel-Writing John Anthony Butler, 2017-01-06 This book comprises a number of essays on travel narratives which are somewhat unknown to the general reader. They include writing by people who travelled from the East to the West as well as those going the usual way. The travellers include a seventeenth-century accountant, a Persian shah, an Indian rajah, and a Hawaiian king, as well as an Irish doctor, an American journalist, and a Japanese poet. The book presents these travellers in an informal manner, although there are discussions about identity, otherness, and stereotyping as they are displayed in the narratives. The book will appeal to students and academics as well as the general reader.
