Secular Saints Sarah M. Misemer,2008 The sanctification of stardom Contemporary icons are drawn from popular culture musicians artists actors and other personalities we hear on radio or see on television on screen in print and in cyberspace Today s gods are media personalities and cults surround stars and artists like Frida Kahlo Carlos Gardel Eva Per n and Selena Because of transnational and global trends in importing and exporting cultural products the paintings music and politics that these figures crafted accrue symbolic meaning in multiple formats By viewing them through the lens of performance art we can begin to see how their polyvalent personas were first molded and perfected for the public through paintings tangos politics and Tejano music Once they fashioned their own complex images these multi layered icons continued to travel after death over international boundaries gendered divisions political borders and language barriers Their reincarnation on stage has allowed dramatists to affix and generate new associations thus converting them into secular saints for contemporary audiences SARAH M MISEMER lectures in Hispanic Studies at TexasA M University College Station
