The Red Widow Murders: A Sir Henry Merrivale Mystery (An American Mystery Classic) John Dickson Carr, 2023-02-21 In this baffling whodunnit from the master of the locked room mystery a man falls dead in a guarded room and Sir Henry Merrivale searches for a devilishly clever killer They say that Lord Mantling's mansion is haunted at least one room of it is Known as the Red Widow's Chamber the now sealed quarters once housed the wife of a guillotine operator in the French Revolution and since her passing have been host to a century of unsolved horrors including the death of a man in 1802 the death of a child in 1895 and a number of mysterious mortalities in the years in between Now in 1935 eight men and women join at the manor for a sinister experiment to determine the truth behind the haunting once and for all they each draw a card and whoever pulls the Ace of Spades must spend a night in that terrifying room But the challenge turns fatal when the man selected for the task is found poisoned the next morning when the doors are opened The locked room was guarded all night so nobody could have entered or escaped what's more the deadly toxin could only have entered through a break in the skin

but no wounds were discovered on the body Is this evidence at last of a nefarious spirit at work or of a diabolical and ingenious killer Only Sir Henry Merrivale called in to take note of the night s proceedings will be able to examine the clues and deduce the truth

When Husbands Die Shirley Reeser McNally, 2011-11-15 What happens to wives when husbands die The quick answer is widowhood The deeper truth is they are forced into a life change that has serious ramifications for themselves their families their friends and their futures Are poems and songs written about widow heroes does literature extol their strength and courage their independence gained their new lives discovered Hardly But women have important stories to tell about this time in their lives when they come face to face with one of the most common and devastating life experiences for women everywhere Seventy nine story tellers have joined together to tell about the tragic time that begins when in an instant the husband dies the man the lover the companion the mate is gone and so is the marriage SHIRLEY REESER McNALLY the originator of this project is a graduate of Smith College as are Barbara Harrison Mulhern Mary Witt Wydman and the majority of women whose stories are told in this book Because Smith is a liberal arts college for women it seemed logical to McNally that the alumnae of Smith would be a source and an audience for a study of widows It has turned out to be so The work she says has been arduous fascinating and redemptive The result is intended for current widows who can learn how others are handling the difficult situation forced upon them and for women still married who with their spouses must plan for what well might occur in their futures

The Greek Girl's Story Abbé Prévost, 2020-05-11 With The Greek Girl's Story Alan Singerman presents the first reliable stand alone translation and critical edition of Abb Pr vost s 1740 literary masterpiece Histoire d'une Grecque moderne The text of this new English translation is based on Singerman s 1990 French edition which Jonathan Walsh called arguably the most valuable critical edition of Pr vost s novel to date This new edition also includes a complete critical apparatus comprising a substantial introduction notes appendixes and bibliography all significantly updated from the 1990 French edition taking into account recent scholarship on this work and providing some additional reflection on the question of Orientalism Pr vost s roman clef is based on a true story involving the French ambassador to the Ottoman Porte from 1699 to 1711 It is narrated from the ambassador s viewpoint and is a model of subjective unreliable narration long before Henry James It is remarkably modern in its presentation of an enigmatic ambiguous character as the truth about the heroine can never be established with certainty It is the story of the tormented relationship between the diplomat and a beautiful young Greek concubine Th oph whom he frees from a pasha s harem While her benefactor becomes increasingly infatuated with her and bent on becoming her lover the Greek girl becomes obsessed with the idea of becoming a virtuous and respected woman Viewing the ambassador as a father figure she condemns his quasi incestuous passion and firmly rejects his repeated seduction attempts Unable to possess the young woman or tolerate the thought that she might grant to someone else what she has refused him the narrator subjects her behavior to minute scrutiny in an effort to catch her in an indiscretion His investigations are fruitless however and Th oph the victim of incessant persecution simply dies leaving all the questions about her behavior unanswered
