Going To Bed Hungry A Dialogue Of Compassion:

Western Political Thought in Dialogue with Asia Cary J. Nederman, Takashi Shogimen, 2008-12-16 Given the rise of globalization and coinciding increase in cultural clashes among diverse nations it has become eminently clear to scholars of political thought that there exists a critical gap in the knowledge of non Western philosophies and how Western thought has been influenced by them This gap has led to a severely diminished capacity of both state and nonstate actors to communicate effectively on a global scale The political theorists area scholars and intellectual historians gathered here by Takashi Shogimen and Cary J Nederman examine the exchange of political ideas between Europe and Asia from the Middle Ages to the early twentieth century They establish the need for comparative political thought showing that in order to fully grasp the origins and achievements of the West historians of political thought must incorporate Asian political discourse and ideas into their understanding By engaging in comparative studies this volume proves the necessity of a cross disciplinary approach in guiding the study of the global history of political thought

Theologies on the Move Joerg Rieger,2020-10-13 Theologies on the Move Religion Migration and Pilgrimage in the World of Neoliberal Capital speaks to the reality that many religions have developed in motion with people exploring new boundaries migrating and being displaced Consequently major religious traditions form as they come into contact with other religions and cultures typically in situations of struggle and pressure Due to neoliberal capitalism more people are on the move today than ever before Most are driven by necessity migration due to violence poverty and perceived poverty others by religious quests that are often fueled by experiences of tension pilgrimage The chapters in this volume explore the complexity of these situations examining in detail how theology and religion shape up in various contexts on the move and investigating specific problems and tensions in order to suggest solutions alternatives and new possibilities

If You Can't Come In, Smile as You Go By Cindy Rice Holster,2010-05-18 Seeking to characterize and to vitalize life in a small rural Texas community as it existed during the Depression Cindy Holster has introduced in ten short stories a number of characters whose lives reflect not only the hard times they experienced but the various ways in which they dealt with them While the stories touch on a number of issues that might be considered contemporary or even timelessracism mental illness infidelity ignorance and intolerancethey also emphasize Christian values and morality Many of the characters are recurring within the stories and some emerge as leaders Walter and Ora Mae Cooper and their son Benjamin are identifiable by their character and compassion and the Cooper Grocery is revisited again and again as the heart of the community The Coopers repeatedly reach out to the members of their community and are sought out for counsel solace and friendship The characters are colorful even eccentric and all have surprising and sometimes unsettling aspects to their lives From Culture of Fear to Society of Trust Janez Juhant, Bojan Žalec, 2013 Fear is an emotion that is strongly connected with violence and with the darkest periods of history including terrorism genocides and totalitarianism It is especially important for theology where it can be considered to have very positive aspects However worldwide cultures are too often burdened with unnecessary fear There are different factors involved in the cultivation of an adequate culture of fear and one of them is the certainly that mankind does indeed know how to cultivate it Therefore awareness and knowledge about the concept of fear is necessary This book helps to increase and widen that understanding Series Theology East West Theologie Ost West Vol 17 The Compassionate Mind Approach to Beating Overeating Kenneth Goss, 2011-01-27 This self help book explores the problems created by having ready access to high fat foods designed to taste good Because we evolved in conditions of relative scarcity we have few natural food inhibitors and so most diet books try to encourage people to inhibit their eating by highly rule governed behaviours which have to be constantly worked at However this can lead to various forms of self criticism which can undermine efforts at self control As a result our relationship with eating can be complex multifaceted and problematic Beating Overeating Using Compassion Focused Therapy uses Compassion Focused Therapy a groundbreaking new therapeutic approach to understand and work with our urges and passions for food We can learn to enjoy and accept food and pay attention to our biological and emotional needs This book is for people who have tried diets and found that they don t work and will enable the reader to have a healthier and happier relationship with food and their body Topics covered The relationship between our brains and food the evolutionary background to finding conserving and eating food How too much or too little food affects the brain why diets don t work factors affecting our eating behaviour tastes stress comfort etc Body shape and culture Developing an inner compassion for one s relationship with food recognising what we need and what is helpful
