Goja An Autobiographical Myth:

Goja Suniti Namjoshi,2000 Imprint Suniti Namjoshi recaptures the impact of growing up in India and moving to the West This powerful meditation part autobiography part elegy deconstructs the glamour given to wealth and power and celebrates the guest for love Author will be a guest at the Sydney Writer's Festival 2000 Who's Who in Lesbian and Gay Writing Gabriele Griffin, 2003-09-02 Who s Who in Lesbian and Gay Writing is a lively and accessible biographical guide to lesbian and gay literary culture from Sappho to modern pulp fiction Featuring authors of works with lesbian or gay content as well as known lesbian and gay writers this volume opens the boundaries of this field to include the writers of popular cultural fiction It places these alongside the canon of poets dramatists and novelists to acknowledge the importance of pop culture to gay and lesbian communities It includes fascinating entries on authors from W H Auden to Alice Walker James Baldwin to Virginia Woolf Also included are those such as Judith Butler who have theorised lesbian and gay culture and writing or have contributed to the uncovering and charting of this vibrant literary history Fully cross referenced and with suggestions for further reading this book offers an invaluable guide to a rich and varied literary culture and is indispensable for anyone with an interest in lesbian and gay writing Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography Christl Verduyn, 2008-08-14 Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography explores some of the latest developments in the literary and cultural practices of Canadians of Asian heritage While earlier work by ethnic multicultural or minority writers in Canada was often concerned with immigration the moment of arrival issues of assimilation and conflicts between generations literary and cultural production in the new millennium no longer focuses solely on the conflict between the Old World and the New or the clashes between culture of origin and adopted culture No longer are minority authors identifying simply with their ethnic or racial cultural background in opposition to dominant culture The essays in this collection explore ways in which Asian Canadian authors such as Larissa Lai Shani Mootoo Fred Wah Hiromi Goto Suniti Namjoshi and Ying Chen and artists such as Ken Lum Paul Wong and Laiwan have gone beyond what Fran oise Lionnet calls autoethnography or ethnographic autobiography They demonstrate the ways representations of race and ethnicity particularly in works by Asian Canadians in the last decade have changed have become more playful untraditional aesthetically and ideologically transgressive and New Perspectives in Diasporic Experience Connie Rapoo, Maria Luisa Coelho, Zahira Sarwar, 2019-01-04 This exciting volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Taking a transcultural and interdisciplinary approach to Diaspora studies New Perspectives in Diasporic Experience offers a wide range of new and challenging perspectives on Diaspora and confirms the relevance of this field to the discussion of contemporary forms of identity construction movement settlement membership and collective identification This volume investigates constructions of diasporic identity from a variety of temporal and spatial contexts They explore encounters between diasporic communities and host societies and examine how diasporic experiences can contribute to perpetuating or challenging normalised perceptions of the Other The authors discuss how visual and literary representations become an integral part of diasporic experiences and identities Other themes examined include communities attempts to reverse the negative effects of Diaspora and maintain cultural continuity as well as generational differences and dialogue within the Diaspora and the power that individuals have to negotiate marginal identities in diasporic settings Homosexuality in Contemporary Indian Literature : Issues and Challenges Dipak Giri, 2019-01-01 Since there is rarity and non availabilty of book compiling the works of contemporary Indian writers on the theme of homosexuality the book Homosexuality in Contemporary Indian Literaure Issues and Challenges is prepared in such a way as to meet this paucity Authors are hopeful that the book with its diversity of topics will instill knowledge into the critical minds and explore many unexplored areas of gender and sexuality Muses India Chetan Deshmane, 2013-05-04 With Salman Rushdie Arundhati Roy Jhumpa Lahiri V S Naipaul and Kiran Desai winning prestigious awards for their literary output Indian English literature has gained a voice of its own Yet as most readers of criticism of it agree there is a dearth of serious examination of its authors and their work This collection of essays attempts a contrapuntal reading of Indian English literature with what Ranjan Ghosh calls the infusionist approach Since a majority of readers are made to stay away from a branded author or work this book rejects any categorization such as postcolonial or Commonwealth It deals with a wide range of issues which human beings suffer from all over the world including those that may not have anything to do with the politicized side of the postcolonial or the Commonwealth Darkness More Visible Finola Moorhead, 2000 Annotation A new and dangerous adventure for ex cop Margot Gorman Now a free agent and a triathlete whe has the equivalent of perfect pitch in smell and naturally is a connisseur of good wine This is the Canon Joan Anim-Addo, Deirdre Osborne, Kadija Sesay, 2021-10-28 A vital and timely introduction to some of the best books I ve ever read Perfectly curated and filled with brilliant literature Nikesh Shukla The ultimate introduction to post colonial literature for those who want to understand the classics and the pioneers in this exciting area of books Symeon Brown These are the books you should read This is the canon Joan Anim Addo Deirdre Osborne and Kadija Sesay have curated a decolonized reading list that celebrates the wide and diverse experiences of people from around the world of all backgrounds and all races It disrupts the all too often white dominated required reading collections that have become the accepted norm and highlights powerful voices and cultural perspectives that demand a place on our shelves From literary giants such as Toni Morrison and Chinua Achebe to less well known but equally vital writers such as Caribbean novelist Earl Lovelace or Indigenous Australian author Tony Birch the novels recommended here are in turn haunting and lyrical innovative and inspiring edgy and poignant The power of great fiction is that readers have the opportunity to discover new worlds and encounter other beliefs and opinions This is the Canon offers a rich and multifaceted perspective on our past present and future which deserves to be read by all bibliophiles whether they are book club members or solitary readers self educators or teachers The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a fi eld of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature The Fabulous Feminist Suniti Namjoshi,2014-03-11 It was on a sabbatical in England in the late seventies that Suniti Namjoshi discovered feminism or rather she discovered that other feminists existed and many among them shared her thoughts and doubts her questions and visions Since then she has been writing fables poetry prose autobiography children's stories about power about inequality about oppression effectively using the power of language and the literary tradition to expose what she finds absurd and unacceptable This new collection brings together in one volume a huge range of Namjoshi s writings starting with her classic collection Feminist Fables and coming right up to her latest work Published by Zubaan Globalization and Sense-Making Practices Simi Malhotra, Zahra Rizvi, Shraddha A. Singh, 2023-09-11 This book presents a critical analysis of sense making practices through an exploration of acoustic creative and artistic spaces It studies how local cultures of sight hearing smell taste and touch are impacted by global discourses and media such as television popular music digital media and literature The authors look at sense making practices and spatial discourses through an interconnected discussion on thought and experience that seeks to present a multidimensional cartography of the global the local and the glocal to closely analyze the phenomenon of globalization The volume is an investigation of the possibilities of alternate sustainable modes of being and existing in a world which requires a unified ethical biopolitical worldview that challenges the disparity of its fragments while speculating on their synesthetic conditionality A unique contribution the book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of English literature media studies cultural studies literary cultures post colonial studies globalization studies philosophy critical theory sociology and social anthropology Exploring Gender in the Literature of the Indian Diaspora Sandhya Rao Mehta, 2015-01-12 Reflecting the continuing interest in the diaspora and transnationalism this collection of critical essays is located at the intersection of gender and diaspora studies exploring the multiple ways in which the literature of the Indian diaspora negotiates interprets and performs gender within established and emerging ethnic spaces Based on current theories of diaspora as well as feminist and queer studies this collection focuses on close textual interpretation framed by cultural and literary theory Targeted at both academic and general readers interested in gender and diaspora as well as Indian literature this collection is an eclectic selection of works by both established academics and emerging scholars from different parts of the world and with diverse backgrounds It brings together multiple approaches to the predicament of belonging and the creation of identities while showcasing the range and depth of the Indian diaspora and the diversity of its literary productions

Resistance and its discontents in South Asian women's fiction Maryam Mirza, 2023-08-22 Mirza s theorization of resistance is a substantive addition to feminist and postcolonial scholarship and her rich readings of different literary texts make a valuable contribution to feminist literary studies Nalini Iyer Professor of English Seattle University Resistance and its discontents in South Asian women's fiction is a rigorous and impassioned exploration of the concept of resistance in postcolonial literature It is an essential contribution to the field of postcolonial studies and a compelling excavation of resistance in South Asian women's writing Claire Chambers Professor of Global Literature University of York Mirza's comprehensive take on what counts as resistance in Anglophone fiction by women writers from South Asia and its diaspora not just its heroic manifestations but also its limits its contradictions its marginality and even its absence in the reality of women's lives makes this a provocative theoretical inquiry into female agency Resistance and its Discontents in South Asian Women's Fiction makes a major contribution to postcolonial criticism as well as feminist theory Rajeswari Sunder Rajan Formerly Global Distinguished Professor New York University Maryam Mirza's new book is sure to become a major work of reference in the field of South Asian literary studies and of literature by and on women Its breadth depth and level of detail are astonishing and it offers a thoroughly new reboot of the genre of resistance literature by enlarging and complexifying the semantic reach of the term resistance beyond its current remit within contemporary fictional narratives Neelam Srivastava Professor of Postcolonial and World Literature Newcastle University This book is an examination of how English language fiction by women writers from India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka has grappled with the idea and practice of resistance A valuable original and timely contribution to the field of South Asian literary and cultural studies this book extends and complicates existing debates about the meanings of resistance It brings to the fore not only the emancipatory potential of resistance but also the contradictions that it can encompass as well as the anxieties that it can generate particularly for women Focusing on novels and short fiction the book explores fiction by Arundhati Roy Kamila Shamsie Tahmima Anam Jhumpa Lahiri Manju Kapur and Ru Freeman amongst others Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture David A. Gerstner, 2006-03-01 The Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture covers gay lesbian bisexual transgender and gueer GLBTQ life and culture post 1945 with a strong international approach to the subject The scope of the work is extremely comprehensive with entries falling into the broad categories of Dance Education Film Health Homophobia South Asian Novelists in English Jaina C. Sanga, 2003-03-30 With the publication of Salman Rushdie's Booker the Int Prize winning novel IMidnight's Children R in 1981 followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's IThe English Patient R many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English have gained a tremendous following This reference is a guide to their lives and writings The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers. The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of Concurrent Imaginaries, Postcolonial Worlds Diana Brydon, Peter Forsgren, Gonlüg anthologies and periodicals Fur, 2017-04-24 Brydon Forsgren and Fur's Concurrent Imaginaries Postcolonial Worlds demonstrates the value of reading for concurrences in situating discussions of archives voices and history in colonial and postcolonial contexts Starting with the premise that our pluriversal world is constructed from concurrent imaginaries yet the role of concurrences has seldom been examined the collection brings together case studies that confirm the productivity of reading looking and listening for concurrences across established boundaries of disciplinary or geopolitical engagement Contributors working in art history sociology literary and historical studies bring examples of Nordic colonialism together with analyses of colonial practices worldwide The collection invites uptake of the study of concurrences within the humanities and in interdisciplinary fields Forbidden Sex, Forbidden Texts Hoshang Merchant, 2020-11-29 such as postcolonial cultural and globalization studies The book argues that there is no monolithic homosexuality there are only homosexualities that is there are as many reasons for being gay as there are gays Some people are born gay some have gayness thrust upon them and some do indeed achieve to great gayness Representation of homosexuality homoeroticism as it is understood today is thus a western import The act and public social discourses on same sex love are still illegal it is according to many against the Indian tradition and a sense of history is seriously problematic when we dig out for a past tradition of homoerotic love and desire Hoshang Merchant through an examination of texts films poetry attempts to analyse and crack the codes of sexual mis conduct in contemporary India giving short histories of the fate of several gay writers and explaining the difficulties of coming out A Girl's Best Friend Jan Fook, Renate Klein, 2001 Annotation With contributions about what their dogs mean to them this collection presents over eighty women and girls from diverse backgrounds ages and countries share their feelings and experiences of Earth Polyphony Suhasini Vincent, 2024-02-19 In Earth Polyphony Suhasini Vincent analyzes the theory living with dogs of ecocriticism in its entirety and its existence in the global paradigm of climate change Vincent shows how a polyphony of voices can affect law and decision making in the era of the Anthropocene and aptly shows how voices can coexist as in Bakhtinian polyphony where multiple perspectives coexist despite contradictions and differences Vincent argues that both material and non material worlds are endowed with storied forms of knowledge that prompt ecocritical writers to engage in new experimental modes of expression She explores the material turn the animal turn and the narrative turn to highlight how law meets literature prompts eco activism and how these crisscrossing narratives influence each other to spark judicial activism in forums around the planet Postcolonial Hauntings Sushmita Chatterjee,2024-09-10 Often examined separately play and hauntings in fact act together to frame postcolonial issues Sushmita Chatterjee showcases their braided workings in social and political fabrics Drawing on this intertwined idea of play and hauntings Chatterjee goes to the heart of conundrums within transnational postcolonial feminisms by examining the impossible echoes of translations differing renditions of queer and the possibilities of solidarity beyond the fraternal friendships that cement nation states Meaning plays or slippages through language systems as we move from one language to another play a pivotal role in a global world As Chatterjee shows an attentiveness to meaning plays discerns the past and present here and there and moves us toward responsive ethics in our theories and activisms Insightful and stimulating Postcolonial Hauntings centers the inextricable work of play and hauntings as a braided ethics for postcolonial transnational struggles
