The Gold Coast Legislative Council Martin Wight,1947 The Gold Coast Legislative Council Robert James Martin Wight,1947 The Gold Coast Legislative Council ,1946 Gold Coast Legislative Council Martin Wight,1965

Standing Rules and Orders of the Legislative Council of the Gold Coast Colony Gold Coast. Legislative Council,1923 Statutory Rules and Orders Other Than Those of a Local, Personal Or Temporary Character Great Britain,1926 Ghana, Political and Constitutional Developments Tapan Prasad Biswal,1992 Ghana the torch bearer of African Independence from the yoke of colonial bondage has been pushed to the background from its earlier pre eminent position in international as well as African affairs Since independence Ghana has experienced diverse forms of Government and has almost run out of models for governing herself Instead of providing leadership to the underdeveloped countries of Africa Ghana is busy in its quest for evolving a stable and workable political system In its effort to evolve a stable political system and an operational constitution capable of providing steady economic progress and social upliftment Ghana has experimented west minister style parliamentary system a Single Party Republic and many military regimes following coups and counter coups Like many of the developing states of Africa Ghana has been plagued with post independence political instability Civilians as well as military governments have been installed with initial enthusiasm but so far none has been able to solve the pressing problems In fact the quest for a permanent solution to what appears a persistent governmental crisis has invited many coups and counter coups It addresses and analyses the maladies that has afflicted the Ghanaian body politic

Colonial Reports - Annual Great Britain. Colonial Office,1928 Each number comprises the annual report of a different colony for a particular year Education and Social Change in Ghana P. Foster,2013-08-21 First published in 1998 As the first of the newly independent nations of Africa Ghana has received fulsome attention from scholars in many fields In this intensive case study on educational development by two principal considerations The documentary materials relating to the earlier history of the Gold Coast and adjacent areas were unusually extensive and well organized Ghana now possesses the most elaborated school system in sub Saharan Africa But the expansion of this system has given rise to many perplexing problems and revealed many unexpected consequences and the author suggests that similar experiences will be the lot of many other countries even outside Africa So this is not just study of Ghanaian education alone but a case study wherein some of the basic processes underlying educational growth in states newly emerging from colonial rule are delineated This is Volume III of eighteen in a series on the Sociology of Development Originally published in 1965 As the first of the newly independent nations of Africa Ghana has received fulsome attention from scholars in many fields In this intensive case study on educational development by two principal considerations The documentary materials relating to the earlier history of the Gold Coast and adjacent areas were unusually extensive and well organized Ghana now possesses the most elaborated school system in sub Saharan Africa But the expansion of this system has given rise to many perplexing problems and revealed many unexpected consequences and the author suggests that similar experiences will be the lot of many other countries even outside Africa So this is not just study of Ghanaian education alone but a case study wherein some of the basic processes underlying educational growth in states newly emerging from colonial rule are delineated

The Origins of Modern African Thought Robert W. July,2004 For the better part of two centuries racial domination has been the central concern of African social thought Other questions among them national identity the role of chieftaincy representation justice and constitutional design have often been defined in relation to a preoccupation with racial and colonial forms of domination This book by examining the history of African thought will prove an invaluable tool to those new thinkers who have begun to revisit the intellectual history of Africa at the outset of the twenty first century

A Dam for Africa Stephan F. Miescher,2022-07-12 Since its construction in the early 1960s the hydroelectric Akosombo Dam across the Volta River has exemplified the possibilities and challenges of development in Ghana Drawing upon a wealth of sources A Dam for Africa investigates contrasting stories about how this dam has transformed a West African nation while providing a model for other African countries The massive Akosombo Dam is the keystone of the Volta River Project that includes a large manmade lake 250 miles long the VALCO aluminum smelter new cities and towns a deep sea harbor and an electrical grid On the local level Akosombo has meant access to electricity for people in urban and industrial areas across southern Ghana For others Akosombo inflicted tremendous social and environmental costs The dam altered the ecology of the Lower Volta displaced 80 000 people in the Volta Basin and affected the livelihoods of hundreds of thousands of Ghanaians In A Dam for Africa Stephan Miescher explores four intersecting narratives Ghanaian debates and aspirations about modernization in the context of decolonization and Cold War international efforts of the US aluminum industry to benefit from Akosombo through cheap electricity for their VALCO smelter local stories of upheaval and devastation in resettlement towns and a nation wide quest toward electrification and energy justice during times of economic crises droughts and climate change

The Native Problem in Africa Raymond Leslie Buell, Bureau of International Research of Harvard University and Radcliffe College, 1928

The Role of Civil Society in Africa's Quest for Democratization Abadir M. Ibrahim, 2016-12-08 This book tests many of the assumptions hypotheses and conclusions connected with the presumed role of civil society organizations in the democratization of African countries Taking a comparative approach it looks at countries that have successfully democratized those that are stuck between progress and regression those that have regressed into dictatorship and those that are currently in transitional flux and evaluates what role if any civil society has played in each instance The countries discussed South Africa Ghana Nigeria Ethiopia Egypt and Tunisia represent a diverse set of social and political circumstances and different levels of democratic achievement providing a rich set of case studies Each sample state also offers an internal comparison as each has historically experienced different stages of democratization Along the course of each case study the book also considers the effect that other traditionally studied factors such as culture colonization economic development and foreign aid may have had on individual attempts at democratization The first extensive work on civil society and democratization in Africa the book adds new insights to the applicability of democratization theory in a non Western context both filling a gap in and adding to the existing universal scholarship This book will be useful for scholars of political science economics sociology and African studies as well as human rights activists and policy makers in the relevant geographical areas
