Gold Town Gal:

The Welsh in an Australian Gold Town Robert Llewellyn Tyler, 2010-11-15 Works which have sought to look specifically at the Welsh in Australia have been few in number and characterised by a concentration on prominent individuals and cultural religious societies thus excluding many facets of immigrant life This book provides an analysis of the Welsh immigrant community in the Ballarat Sebastopol gold mining district of Victoria Australia during the second half of the nineteenth century and considers all aspects of the Welsh immigrant experience As its focus the book has the Welsh migrant group as a whole in one particular area during one period of time for ultimately it was the migrants themselves who were responsible for the strength or weakness of Welsh religious life the success or failure of Welsh cultural institutions they who decided whether or not to retain and transmit their national language if indeed they spoke it in the first place they who chose whether or not to marry within their own group to live amongst their own to retain the ties of Welshness and pass on the values of the Old Country or to attempt full and immediate integration they who were miners or shop owners abstainers or drunkards law abiding or criminal A true picture of Welsh immigrant life can only be obtained by considering the community in its entirety to view it in the round as it were This work attempts to do just that and hopes to make some small contribution to the understanding of what it was to be one amongst the thousands of Welsh people who lived in a particular place at a certain time in a land so far from Wales

Small Town Girl Jack K. Paquette, 2013-07-10 The stories of more than two dozen ordinary people who led extraordinary lives are told here with honesty and wit by a historian who has been writing about northwest Ohio's history for more than 60 years Some of the people chronicled in the book were famous in their day but are virtually forgotten today Others gained a measure of renown for their unusual lifestyles only after their deaths And still others are receiving well deserved recognition for the first time in these pages Among those featured in the book are nationally known figures like Teresa Brewer Art Tatum Joe E Brown Millie Benson Brand Whitlock Peter Navarre Rose La Rose Ed Libbey Mike Owens and Edmund Osthaus as well as highly accomplished but lesser known folks such as Richard and Anna Mott Grant Johnson Doc and Ella Stewart Ed Russell Clyde and Carrie Tingley Dr Ernst and Therese Gottschalk Mother Adelaide Sandusky Jibby Jibilian Jorgen Faldt Larsen Colonel Christopher McLean C J Hurrle and Marjorie Whiteman
