Gold Coast Native Institutions 1st Edition:

The Pen-Pictures of Modern Africans and African Celebrities by Charles Francis Hutchison Doortmont, 2022-01-04 In the late 1920s the Gold Coast businessman Charles Francis Hutchison published the first volume of his book titled The Pen Pictures of Modern Africans and African Celebrities. The book contains 162 biographical sketches of Ghanaians that were important in business in society and the church in government and in nationalist politics both from Hutchison's own time and from the nineteenth century. The text of the biographies is in blank verse and portrait photographs accompany most sketches. Additional photographs of houses and special events and added biographical information in the form of lists of famous deceased people complete the book. The Pen Pictures is a well known source for the history of the Gold Coast modern Ghana, cited and quoted by both professional historians and interested lay people. In effect The Pen Pictures is an important socio-historical document. The format, the style of presentation, the intimacy of many of the life histories, the overview offered of non-European Gold Coast society in the 1920s, they all allow for multiple analyses by historians, sociologists, social anthropologists and scholars of language and literature. This annotated edition is the first reprint of the book and offers a lively and both historically and literarily interesting text about an important phase in Ghanaian history. The added introduction and annotation offer a context hitherto unavailable to the scholar and general reader.

The Proverb in the Context of Akan Rhetoric Kwesi Yankah, 2012 Attracting renewed attention by a new generation of scholars, the book presents a comprehensive ethnography of proverb communication in an African culture. The author critically reviews the dynamics of the proverb and explores in rich detail the proverb's creative potential, authorship and effectiveness in crisis management.

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1928 African and Caribbean People in Britain Hakim Adi, 2022-09-01 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WOLFSON HISTORY PRIZE A major new history of Britain that transforms our understanding of this country's past. I've waited so long so read a comprehensively researched book about Black history on this island. This is it, a journey of discovery and a truly exciting and important work. Zainab Abbas Despite the best efforts of researchers and campaigners, there remains today a steadfast tendency to reduce the history of African and Caribbean people in Britain to a simple story: it is one that begins in 1948 with the arrival of a single ship, the Empire Windrush, and continues mostly apart from a distinct British history, overlapping only on occasion amid grotesque injustice or pioneering protest. Yet as acclaimed historian Hakim Adi demonstrates, from the very beginning, from the moment humans first stood on this rainy isle, there have been African and Caribbean men and women set at Britain's heart. Libyan legionaries patrolled Hadrian's Wall while Rome's first African Emperor died in York. In Elizabethan England, Black Tudors served in the land's most eminent households while intrepid African explorers helped Sir Francis Drake to circumnavigate the globe. And as Britain became a major colonial and commercial power, it was African and Caribbean people who led the radical struggle for freedom, a struggle which raged throughout the twentieth century and continues today in Black Lives Matter campaigns.

Charting a course through British history with an unobscured view of the actions of African and Caribbean people Adi reveals how much our greatest collective achievements universal suffrage our victory over fascism the forging of the NHS owe to these men and women and how in understanding our history in these terms we are more able to fully understand our present moment Man, 1903 Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Empire by Treaty Saliha Belmessous, 2015 Empire by Treaty Negotiating European Expansion 1600 1900 includes indigenous voices in the debate over European appropriation of overseas territories It is concerned with European efforts to negotiate with indigenous peoples the cession of their sovereignty through treaties The Truth about the West African Land Question Joseph Ephraim Casely Hayford, 1913

Africa and World Peace George Padmore, 2019-09-16 A study of how Africa as an object of imperialism for the large capitalist nations came to be drawn into power politics Truth About the West African Land Question J.E. Casely Hayford, 2012-10-12 Hayford an African Nationalist argues that the preservation of the indigenous land tenure system was vital if the values of pre colonial Africa was to be maintained First published in 1913 Towards Nationhood in West Africa William De Graft, J. Johnson, 2019-07-23 This volume is based on a series of lectures Dr Johnson addressed to the youth of Britain The Origins of Modern African Thought Robert W. July, 2004 For the better part of two centuries racial domination has been the central concern of African social thought Other questions among them national identity the role of chieftaincy representation justice and constitutional design have often been defined in relation to a preoccupation with racial and colonial forms of domination This book by examining the history of African thought will prove an invaluable tool to those new thinkers who have begun to revisit the intellectual history of Africa at the outset of the twenty first century

Re-cognizing W.E.B. Du Bois in the Twenty-first Century Mary Keller, Chester J. Fontenot, 2007 Abstract Ethiopia Unbound J. E. Casely Hayford, 2024-09-01 This book shines a new light on J E Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound widely considered the first English language novel published by an African writer Casely Hayford drew material from his eminent career as a barrister statesman and newspaper editor to augment the book's fictional elements showcasing the tremendous intellectual versatility of West Africa Moving between London and the Gold Coast as well as across the past present and imagined future of Casely Hayford's Fante civilization Ethiopia Unbound is an essential record of how Africans at the turn of the twentieth century made sense of their place in a rapidly changing world W.E.B. Du Bois on Race and Culture Bernard W. Bell, Emily R. Grosholz, James B. Stewart, 2014-03-18 Interpreting Du Bois thoughts on race and culture in a broadly philosophical sense this volume assembles original essays by some of today's leading scholars in a critical dialogue on different important theoretical and practical issues that concerned him throughout his long career the conundrum of race the issue of gender equality and the perplexities of pan Africanism

Delivering Development Edward R. Carr, 2011-02-01 In Delivering Development author Edward Carr calls into question the very universal unquestioned assumptions about globalization development and environmental change that undergird much of development and economic policy Here he demonstrates how commonly held beliefs about globalization and development have failed the global poor Over his 13 years of working along what he calls globalization's shoreline a world region buffeted by the economic political and environmental decisions of those living in wealthier places Carr has concluded that most experts misunderstand what they are trying to fix and cannot tell if they are fixing it Delivering Development is an eye opening you are there book that compels the reader to question conventional wisdom redefines what assistance to the developing world really means and explores alternative ways of achieving meaningful enduring improvements to human well being United Kingdom Publications and Theses on Africa 1967-68 Miriam Alman, 2013-07-04 First published in 1973 This is the fifth issue in the series and covers the years 1967 and 1968 Books and pamphlets have been considered as published in the United Kingdom when their publishers are listed in Whitaker's Publishers in the United Kingdom and their addresses February 1971 This includes many foreign publishers mainly American who have branches in the United Kingdom and whose publications are listed in the British National Bibliography Books published abroad and distributed by British publishers are not included

Pan-Africanism and International Law Abdulqawi A. Yusuf, 2015-01-08 Pan Africanism offers a unique vantage point to study Africa's encounters with international law first as a continent whose political entities were excluded from the scope of application of the Eurocentric version of international law that was applied among the self styled club of civilized nations second through the emergence of African States as subjects of international law willing to contribute to the reform and further development of the law as a universal interstate normative system and third as members of the OAU and the AU acting collectively to generate innovative principles and rules which though applicable only in the context of intra African relations either go beyond those existing at the universal level or complement them by broadening their scope This study examines those encounters through the various stages in the evolution of Pan Africanism from a diaspora based movement engaged in the struggle for the emancipation of the peoples of the continent to groupings of independent States and intergovernmental organizations which continue to promote African unity and influence the development of international law to make it more reflective of diverse legal traditions and values
