Golden Age Of B Movies:

The Golden Age of "B" Movies Doug McClelland, 1981 Golden Age of B. Movies Doug McClelland, 1978 The Golden Age of Crap Nathan Shumate, 2021-04 Just because you can't respect a movie doesn't mean you can't enjoy it. A seminal text of the VHS nostalgia movement, The Golden Age of Crap serves up a sampling of junk food flicks that gained their audiences on videocassette rental shelves during the 80s and 90s, a time when one couldn't visit the video rental store without being tempted by Italian post-apocalyptic adventures, ninja revenge yarns, and zombie-filled camcorder epics. The movies covered here run from sleeper hits Phantasm II to cult favorites The Dead Next Door from unknown stinkers Plutonium Baby to undiscovered gems America's Deadliest Home Video, all examined with a critical but fun-loving eye. Now fortified in this 2nd edition with full color posters and video covers plus an exhaustive index. 1950s Science Fiction Films and 9/11 Melvin E. Matthews, 2007 1950s Cold War era monsters meet 21st century terrorists; this exploration of sci-fi movies examines the similarities and differences between the political environment and popular culture of two eras. This examination and appreciation of 1950s science fiction films includes behind-the-scenes tales about their production and many quotes from those who produced and starred in the films. The author draws parallels between the Cold War fears of the 1950s and 60s and the constant terrorism alerts of the September 11th era, exploring how the politics and the psychological climate of the times influences and is reflected in this vehicle of popular culture. This book is the first of its kind studying the pop culture genre in the wake of the September 11th tragedy. It shows that whatever the era and whatever the challenges and crises confronting America, many entertainment themes remain the same, reflecting their respective times and the relevant issues. For instance, Godzilla, the only Fifties era monster to remain a movie star beyond that era, could be fashioned to reflect whatever issues dominate the times: be they nuclear war in the Fifties, when Godzilla originated, to a Seventies Godzilla film about environmental pollution. Conceivably, a Godzilla for the age of terrorism is possible. Then the 1954 atomic mutation classic is the spiritual ancestor of the 2002 film Eight Legged Freaks. The alien invaders of the Fifties signified a Russian invasion of America, while other films of the genre, such as Invaders from Mars, depicted aliens utilizing mind control to manipulate humans to commit acts of sabotage, signifying Communist enslavement. If such a film were made now, such invaders could be seen as terrorist masterminds using human slaves to commit terrorist acts. Finally, several Fifties films depicted the end of the world at a time when Americans expected a nuclear war with Russia. The immediate pre-September 11th era witnessed films presenting galactic threats to mankind's existence: Independence Day, Deep Impact, Armageddon, while the early 2000s witnessed the popularity of the Left Behind Christian films dramatizing the Tribulation period in the Book of Revelation. The Art of Movies Nicolae Sfetcu, 2014-05-06 Movie is considered to be an important art form; films entertain, educate, enlighten, and inspire audiences. Film is a term that encompasses motion pictures as individual projects as well as in metonymy, the field in general. The origin of the name comes from the fact that photographic film, also called filmstock has historically been the primary medium for recording and displaying motion pictures Many other terms exist motion pictures or just pictures or picture the silver screen photoplays the cinema picture shows flicks and commonly movies

Public Enemies, Public Heroes Jonathan Munby, 2009-04-24 In this study of Hollywood gangster films Jonathan Munby examines their controversial content and how it was subjected to continual moral and political censure Beginning in the early 1930s these films told compelling stories about ethnic urban lower class desires to make it in an America dominated by Anglo Saxon Protestant ideals and devastated by the Great Depression By the late 1940s however their focus shifted to the problems of a culture maladjusting to a new peacetime sociopolitical order governed by corporate capitalism The gangster no longer challenged the establishment the issue was not making it but simply making do Combining film analysis with archival material from the Production Code Administration Hollywood s self censoring authority Munby shows how the industry circumvented censure and how its altered gangsters influenced by European filmmakers fueled the infamous inquisitions of Hollywood in the postwar 40s and 50s by the House Committee on Un American Activities Ultimately this provocative study suggests that we rethink our ideas about crime and violence in depictions of Americans fighting against the status quo
