Golden Notebook:

THE GOLDEN NOTEBOOK DORIS LESSING, 1962 The Golden Notebook Doris Lessing, 1984 The experiences of two women provide the framework for this intense literary study of liberated womanhood The Golden Notebook Doris Lessing, 2013-05-14 The Golden Notebook is Doris Lessing's most important work and has left its mark upon the ideas and feelings of a whole generation of women New York Times Book Review Anna is a writer author of one very successful novel who now keeps four notebooks In one with a black cover she reviews the African experience of her earlier years In a red one she records her political life her disillusionment with communism In a yellow one she writes a novel in which the heroine relives part of her own experience And in a blue one she keeps a personal diary Finally in love with an American writer and threatened with insanity Anna resolves to bring the threads of all four books together in a golden notebook Lessing's best known and most influential novel The Golden Notebook retains its extraordinary power and relevance decades after its initial publication Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse Magali Cornier Michael, 1996-07-03 Analyzes the intersections between feminist politics and postmodern aesthetics as demonstrated in recent Anglo American fiction Literature and the Writer, 2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts The Craft of Fiction David Letzler, 2017-06 A 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title What is the strange appeal of big books The mega novel a genre of erudite tomes with encyclopedic scope has attracted wildly varied responses from fanatical devotion to trenchant criticism Looking at intimidating mega novel masterpieces from The Making of Americans to 2666 David Letzler explores reader responses to all the seemingly random irrelevant pointless and derailing elements that comprise these mega novels elements that he labels craft after the computer science term for junk code In The Craft of Fiction Letzler suggests that these books are useful tools to help us understand the relationship between reading and attention While mega novel text is often intricately meaningful or experimental sometimes it is just excessive and pointless On the other hand mega novels also contain text that though appearing to be cruft turns out to be quite important Letzler posits that this cruft requires readers to develop a sophisticated method of attentional modulation allowing one to subtly distinguish between text requiring focused attention and text that must be skimmed or even skipped to avoid processing failures The Cruft of Fiction shows how the attentional maturation prompted by reading mega novels can help manage the information overload that increasingly characterizes contemporary life

Changing the Story Gayle Greene, 1992-01-22 Changing the Story gives an excellent and well informed account of the differences between the American Canadian British and French attitudes towards feminism and feminist fiction and literary theory a very readable book which reminds us that literature can change us and that through it we can change ourselves Margaret Drabble A distinctive contribution clear elegant precise and well read to the feminist discussion of narrative of Anglo Canadian white North American novelists and to contemporary fiction Greene tracks how feminist novelists draw upon and negotiate with traditional narrative patterns and how their critical approach implicates and provokes social change The book brings us to an intelligent post humanism which does not scant the social meanings of metafictional critique And in addition this book remembers hope Rachel Blau DuPlessis Changing the Story is an invaluable guide to the feminist classics of the last three decades This is cultural criticism at its best engaged re visionary and politically astute Nancy K Miller Greene tells a very good tale about how feminist fiction emerged developed made changes in the world and now threatens to wane The Women s Review of Books Her probing analysis should captivate general readers as well as academics WLW Journal Changing the Story is an important work of feminist criticism certain to spark controversy within the feminist community American Literature The feminist fiction movement of the 1960s 1980s was and is as significant a movement as Modernism Gayle Greene focuses on the works of Doris Lessing Margaret Drabble Margaret Atwood and Margaret Laurence to trace the roots of this feminist literary explosion She also speculates on the future of feminist fiction in the current regressive period of post feminism

From the Margins of Empire Louise Yelin, 2018-05-31 Situated at the intersection of the colonial and the postcolonial the modern and the postmodern the novelists Christina Stead Doris Lessing and Nadine Gordimer all bear witness to this century s global transformations From the Margins of Empire looks at how the question of national identity is constructed in their writings These authors white women who were born or grew up in British colonies or former colonies reflect the subject of national identity in vastly different ways in both their lives and their work Stead who resided outside of her native Australia has an unsettled identity Lessing who grew up in southern Rhodesia and migrated to England is or has become English Gordimer who was born in South Africa and remains there considers herself South African Louise Yelin shows how the three writers different national identities are inscribed in their fiction The invented hybrid character of nationality is she maintains a constant throughout Locating the writings of Stead Lessing and Gordimer in the national cultures that produced and read them she considers the questions they raise about the roles that whites especially white women can play in the new political and cultural order Epic Voices Robert Arlett,1996 The path of the modern novel has been marked by a dialectic of seemingly rival impulses while certain novelists have sought to deal with wide scale social and political dimensions of modern existence others have concerned themselves primarily with interior sensibility

Re-reading the Short Story Clare Hanson,1989-06-18 This collection of essays maintaining links with theory and practice applies a critical approach to the short story form Some are theoretical in orientation covering such issues as gender and marginality while others offer readings of works by writers such as Alice Munro and John McGahern The Golden Notebook Doris Lessing,1986 Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt,2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy s Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives Languages for Specific Purposes in Theory and Practice Amazat K. Akbarov,2011-09-22 Languages for Specific Purposes in Theory and Practice is a collection of essays which will appeal to teachers of modern languages no matter the level of instruction The essays highlight the latest developments of Foreign Language Teaching in the Balkan countries Eastern and Western Europe and the Middle East The field of Language for Specific Purposes LSP is one of the richest areas of second language research and practice because increasing globalization and changing technologies spawn new modes of intercultural connection and new occasions for second language use Languages for Specific Purposes in Theory and Practice compasses this burgeoning field by presenting new research and commentary from some of the field s leading practitioners This book surveys the approaches and methods in foreign language teaching such as grammar translation language evaluation communication competence critical thinking skills communicative language teaching and the natural approach Teachers and teachers in training will discover in this book a comprehensive survey and analysis of the major and minor teaching methods used around the world It is addressed to a wide audience that includes Language for Specific Purposes teachers and researchers although the contents will also be relevant to applied linguists working in other fields This book contains research studies as well as educational experiences and proposals presented from different perspectives and backgrounds both geographical and cultural all of which are theoretically grounded and with a clear and sound rationale Readers will find a variety of educational projects and research studies situated in specific educational contexts and in particular geographical locations Literary Half-Lives R. Rubenstein,2014-05-14 While Doris

Lessing was composing The Golden Notebook she was intimately involved with Clancy Sigal and their relationship influenced the literary methods of both writers Focusing on literary transformations Rubenstein offers compelling insights into the ethical implications of disguised autobiography and roman clef

The Dialogic Self Roxanne J. Fand, 1999 By theorizing subjectivity according to the dialogic model of Mikhail Bakhtin author Roxanne J Fand posits a moderating self narrator who rather than imposing a single authoritarian voice of fixed ideology and identity negotiates among diverse internalized voices of one's social ecological milieu

Liberating Literature Maria Lauret, 2002-09-11 Liberating Literature is primarily a bold and revealing book about feminist writers readers and texts But it is also much more than that Within this volume Maria Lauret manages to look with fresh vision at the American Civil Rights movement of the 1960s socialist women's writing of the 1930s the emergence of the New Left and the second wave women's movement and its cultural practices Lauret's historicisation of feminist political writing allows for a new definition of the genre and enables her to illuminate the profound influence and importance of African American women's writing Well grounded historically and theoretically Liberating Literature speaks about and to a political and cultural tradition and offers stunning new readings of both familiar and neglected novels within the feminist canon Reader and students of feminist fiction cannot afford to be without this major new work

The Fiction of Doris Lessing Ratna Raman, 2021-10-15 Doris Lessing 1919-2013 a prolific contemporary author was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2007 for her life work Examining five decades of Lessing's unique life narrative strategies and the literary traditions that she drew upon and improvised this book highlights her extraordinary significance as a writer of our times and for our times Lessing's fiction and non fiction provide a seminal understanding of the key issues that shaped the twentieth century Autodidactic and keenly interested in the world around her Lessing flagged the problems of racism in Africa the inequity of class in modern England the limitations of white middle class women's movements that overlooked the rights of women across race and class the marginalisation of individuals the horror of nuclear war and the need for disarmament and the hazardous global expansion in the face of unrelenting technological progress Further she raised the concern of the atomisation of modern families violence and the urgent need for alternate modes of viewing voicing anxieties decades ahead of other contemporary writers Making futuristic projections through innumerable genres of writing such as realistic narratives memoirs diaries and science fiction Lessing examines myth psychoanalysis and Marxist perspectives engaging with a gamut of experiences that have defined modernity and sets up feminist blueprints that challenge atrophying patriarchal hegemonies

The Novel Today Malcolm Bradbury, 1977 Britain's most important contemporary authors reflect intelligently and imaginatively on the nature and development of the modern novel

In Pursuit of Doris Lessing Claire Sprague, 1990-06-14 The phenomenon of Doris Lessing's global reputation and readership is addressed for the first time in In Pursuit of Doris Lessing through a series of essays that also provide a provocative overview of Lessing's long career from The Grass Is Singing the first of a series of African and woman centered politically radical works to her latest galactic and politically conservative works Nine different Lessings emerge from these essays forcing us to question received propositions about the universality of literature and the stability of the text and uncovering and recovering in the process the pungent variable controversial Lessing who has been and remains as international and transcultural as she is African and English

Doris Lessing and the Forming of History Kevin Brazil, 2016-09-20 The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing s writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing s work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women s writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing s writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history

The Top Books of the Year Golden Notebook The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Golden Notebook : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Golden Notebook : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
