sustaining entire relational systems in turn inspiring givers and receivers to participate out of a desire for meaningful connection Davy utilizes research from two years of participant observation in a Heathen community in Ontario Canada to show how ritual activities deepen practitioners sense of appreciation for what they have already received and instil a desire to give back Davy illustrates how making offerings and giving gifts is important not only because of what people might believe about the gods but because it gives people a sense of relatedness with their world Ritual practices may thus play a critical role in instilling an ecological conscience and can encourage ethical relations and pro environmental behavior
