Irish,2009-11-02 Abby Irish's witty style will take you to a place you will never want to leave. There's Always Chocolate is filled with thoughts and ideas about marriage, family, children, friends, and lovers. It begins with the funeral of Amy's husband, and of course it's raining. Amy takes you on a short journey through one year of her life that encompasses fun, laughter, wit, embarrassing moments, and tender occasions. Her children are coping well without their dad because their mom has been there for them in times of need, but Amy is not sure how to cope with her own loss. How will she cope without her mate in life? Now that she is alone, she has many obstacles to handle all by her lonesome. Can she do it? Is she afraid of the dark, being alone, or both? Can she find another captain to sail her away to another island of love? This could happen to you, and maybe it already has. Any woman who has been married for years and has children will appreciate There's Always Chocolate. Let your worries pass you by just for a few moments during the day and see where you find yourself at the end of this witty novel.
