Global James Bond Klaus Dodds, Lisa Funnell, 2023-12-20 Global James Bond Re Imagining and Transplanting a Popular Culture Icon focuses on the ambivalent yet fascinating interplay between the global and the local in the longest running film franchise in history. It explores how James Bond established itself as a global standard for action spy film making and even as a minor global cinema i.e. imagining and how the franchise subsequently inspired a series of genre bending, blending and breaking in local visual and some literary contexts i.e. reimagining and transplanting. The chapters in this collection consider how the world is envisaged in the official series and subsequently reinterpreted on local and regional levels and how investments with alternative meanings might run counter to the dominant representational and geo-political logics of the novels and filmic texts. Global James Bond is a starting point for further conversation and exchange over an extraordinary film franchise.

East Asian-German Cinema Joanne Miyang Cho, 2021-09-29 This is the first edited volume dedicated to the study of East Asian German cinema. Its coverage ranges from 1919 to the present, a period which has witnessed an unprecedented degree of global entanglement between Germany and East Asia. In analyzing this hybrid cinema, this volume employs a transnational approach which highlights the nations' cinematic encounters and entanglements. It reveals both German perceptions of East Asia and East Asian perceptions of Germany through analysis of works by both German directors and East Asian directors. It is hoped that this volume will not only accelerate cross-cultural exchange but also provide a wider perspective that helps film scholars to see the broader contexts in which these films are produced. It introduces multiple compelling topics: not just immigration, multiculturalism and exile, but also Japonisme, children's literature, musical modernity, media hybridity, gender representation, urban space, Cold War divisions and national identity. It addresses several genres: feature films, essay films and documentary films. Lastly, by embracing three East Asian cinemas in one volume, this volume serves as an excellent introduction for German cinema students and scholars. It will appeal to international and interdisciplinary audiences as its contributors represent multiple disciplines and four world regions.
