Gonna Lay Down My Burdens:

Gonna Lay Down My Burdens Mary Monroe, 2010-01-07 Bestselling author Mary Monroe won rave reviews from critics and readers alike with her first two novels God Don't Like Ugly and The Upper Room both Main Selections of the Black Expressions Book Club. Now she returns with the masterful Gonna Lay Down My Burdens, that rare novel that inspires laughter, tears, and repeat readings. In the sweltering little town of Belle Helene, Alabama, Carmen Taylor keeps her weaknesses, her frustrations, and her tears to herself. She's too busy shouldering the burdens of her troubled friends like Desiree Lucienne, the petite pampered daughter of a doctor who tries to beat the wildness out of her. But it doesn't stop Desiree from trawling for men whenever she can and trying to drag Carmen along with her. It's not that Carmen hasn't had her share of boozy pick-ups. She has, but they just can't compare to the one steamy night she spent with the man she's loved since they were both kids. Now a local cop, Chester Sheffield, with his Barry White voice and his all-too-fine body, keeps showing up in Carmen's life, wanting to do something about the feelings they obviously have for each other. But that would mean abandoning her boyfriend, Burl Tupper, and that's something Carmen just can't do. Ever since Burl ended up in a wheelchair because of a foolish teenage prank she played on him, Carmen's promised herself that she'd spend the rest of her life making it up to him. When Carmen doesn't take her chance with Chester, Desiree does, and when she learns that she's pregnant with Chester's child, it's almost more than Carmen can bear. Still, her loyalty to Desiree goes back a long way, and she's not about to let a man get in the way of their friendship, even when Desiree starts stepping out on Chester. Then, on a sultry, reckless moonlit night, Carmen commits a desperate crime of passion, and with Desiree, hits the road running. But she can't run from the truth she's avoided for years, and in a seedy hotel in the middle of nowhere, she confronts her demons head-on. Now Carmen has two choices: a life on the lam or a full circle return to Belle Helene, the place where it all began, and the only place in the world she can lay down her burdens and seize her one true chance at love and redemption. Freedom Struggles Adriane Lentz-Smith, 2011-09-30 For many of the 200,000 black soldiers sent to Europe with the American Expeditionary Forces in World War I, encounters with French civilians and colonial African troops led them to imagine a world beyond Jim Crow. Lentz-Smith narrates the efforts of these African American soldiers to gain full citizenship rights as recompense for military service. Mississippi Writers Dorothy Abbott, 1985 Drama recounting the experience of growing up in the Deep South. In Search of a Father's Love Loretta (La-Rue') Duncan-Fowler, 2010-06-14 Loretta La Rue Duncan-Fowler strips off fears and uncertainties as she walks back to a darkened past to bring inspiration to readers. In Search of a Father's Love, her new book released through Xlibris, offers a collection of poems, prose, and short stories that all chronicles one woman's journey to finding real happiness. Childhood was anything but normal for the author. At the age of five, she found herself begging for her father not to abandon her. The incident only marked the beginning of the many trials she had to face: sexual molestation, pregnancy, a miscarriage, and incestuous relationships. She finally opened her heart to find the sanctuary that she deserved In her unending search for her father through abusive husbands and a string of bad relationships she realizes that the one salvation that she truly needed had always been inside her within her heart Through poignantly crafted poems and prose coupled with Bible verses La Rue relives in this edifying book how she stepped out from the darkness and moved on to the light and found the Faith to do more than survive she thrives Our Daily Bread Jackie

Alexander,2012-09-25 From renowned playwright Jackie Alexander comes a captivating masterfully told coming of age novel of a young man struggling through his haunting past to discover and save himself Stigmatized at birth due to his interracial parentage and reared in a household poisoned by domestic abuse Kevin Matthews is orphaned at age ten after losing his mother to a violent attack at the hands of his father who is jailed for the crime Raised by his paternal grandfather a Baptist Minister who instills values of the church as a base for recovery Kevin is content with life in rural Louisiana during the 1970s until disturbing news surfaces regarding his mother s attack news that sheds doubt on his father s guilt and leads Kevin to relive painful memories As Kevin grows up the emotional scars of his childhood cast dark clouds over his relationships with women and his life begins to spiral out of control Faced with losing all that he loves Kevin is forced to confront the man who holds the key to his salvation his father Our Daily Bread is a rich and compelling coming of age story of a young boy whose journey takes us from the bayous of Louisiana to the big city lights of New York and Paris Examining family race religion and the lingering effects of domestic abuse Our Daily Bread questions what defines one s legacy the surroundings we are born into or the choices we make thereafter Foxes Dexter Flanders,2022-06-02 Think how many others there are like me hiding in the shadows operating in the night like foxes for fear of rejection and a life of ridicule I ve worked too hard to gain my respect only for it to be taken from me because of something I can t control Foxes follows Daniel a young Black man trying to keep up with his life which is moving fast When his relationship with best friend Leon brings an unexpected change it creates turmoil bringing a taboo into his family home that has the power to tear the closest and most loving relationships apart Shortlisted for the 2018 Alfred Fagon Award Dexter Flanders s debut play Foxes explores masculinity and identity within London s Caribbean community and Black street culture This updated and revised edition was published to coincide with the premiere at London s Seven Dials Playhouse in May 2022 Rebuilding Urban Places After Disaster Eugenie L.

Birch,Susan M. Wachter,2013-01-09 Disasters natural ones such as hurricanes floods or earthquakes and unnatural ones such as terrorist attacks are part of the American experience in the twenty first century The challenges of preparing for these events withstanding their impact and rebuilding communities afterward require strategic responses from different levels of government in partnership with the private sector and in accordance with the public will Disasters have a disproportionate effect on urban places Dense by definition cities and their environs suffer great damage to their complex interdependent social environmental and economic systems Social and medical services collapse Long standing problems in educational access and quality become especially acute Local economies cease to function Cultural resources disappear The plight of

New Orleans and several smaller Gulf Coast cities exemplifies this phenomenon This volume examines the rebuilding of cities and their environs after a disaster and focuses on four major issues making cities less vulnerable to disaster reestablishing economic viability responding to the permanent needs of the displaced and recreating a sense of place Success in these areas requires that priorities be set cooperatively and this goal poses significant challenges for rebuilding efforts in a democratic market based society Who sets priorities and how Can participatory decision making be organized under conditions requiring focused strategic choices How do issues of race and class intersect with these priorities Should the purpose of rebuilding be restoration or reformation Contributors address these and other questions related to environmental conditions economic imperatives social welfare concerns and issues of planning and design in light of the lessons to be drawn from Hurricane Katrina

The Complexity and Progression of Black Representation in Film and Television David L. Moody, 2016-06-02 The Complexity and Progression of Black Representation in Film and Television examines the intricacies of race representation Black masculinity sexuality class and color in American cinema and television Black images on the silver screen date back to the silent film era yet these films and television programs presented disturbing images of African American culture and regrettably many early films and small screen programs portrayed Black characters in demeaning and stereotypical roles In order to fully analyze the roles of Black actors and actresses in film and television Moody addresses the following issues the historical significance of the term race films female Black identities and constructs queerness and Black masculinity Black male identities and Black buffoonery in film and television

Polytropos Ajax Silvia Speriani, Stephen Harrison, 2024-10-07 Meanings are realized at the point of reception and this volume intends to offer an in depth discussion of some of the meanings associated with and raised by the figure of Telamonian Ajax at various specifically contextualized and yet somehow connectable points of reception Part 1 looks at how and from where and with what effects the epic and tragic figure of Ajax is constructed and re defined in archaic and classical Greece Part 2 moves on to Roman Ajax es evaluating how he is used in and by Latin literature as a tool for window references and innovation and for reflecting on national identity and cultural categories Part 3 discusses various ways in which the myth of Ajax especially in its Sophoclean version has been translated into theatrical psychological and philosophical discussions This is not an attempt to look for Ajax's true nature an ill posed question in itself Nor is it a claim to evaluate Ajax's features as if they could be placed on a straight evolutionary line they never can be On the contrary the volume provides a multiform and interconnected ensemble of relevant patterns always particularly situated and constantly changing The Twisted Muse Richard Corey, 2014-12-30 Author Richard Corey has worn many different outfits in his young life As a student in his undergraduate studies at Concord University to his master's studies at Ohio University he paid his way through school by performing musically and gambling professionally throughout the southeastern United States Shaping his life and bending his mind to create The Twisted Muse which he started as early as 1989 to present day he presents a work of poetry that witnesses the evolution of his life from Diary of a Psychopath to the song I Am Struggling with economic hardship and bipolar disorder as well as almost losing his writing hand in a horrific accident in 2009 he selected these poems and songs from his handwritten pages Through these works Corey shares his multifaceted persona as a seeker a reader a lover of nature of country music and cowboy movies Filled with many vivid images and pleasing sonic effects this collection of poetry offers insight into how Corey grew as a writer lyricist and person while living with bipolar disorder Historically African American Leisure Destinations Around Washington, D.C. Patsy Mose Fletcher, 2015-12-07 From the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth century African Americans in the Washington D C area sought leisure destinations where they could relax without the burden of racial oppression Local picnic parks such as Enrcka and Madre's were accessible by streetcars Black owned steamboats ferried passengers seeking sun and sand to places like Collingwood Beach and African American families settled into quiet beach side communities along the Western Shore of Maryland Author and public historian Patsy M Fletcher reveals the history behind Washington's forgotten era of African American leisure Book jacket Just as I Am Cicely Tyson, 2021-01-26 In her long and extraordinary career Cicely Tyson has not only succeeded as an actor she has shaped the course of history President Barack Obama 2016 Presidential Medal of Freedom ceremony Just as I Am is my truth It is me plain and unvarnished with the glitter and garland set aside In these pages I am indeed Cicely the actress who has been blessed to grace the stage and screen for six decades Yet I am also the church girl who once rarely spoke a word I am the teenager who sought solace in the verses of the old hymn for which this book is named I am a daughter and a mother a sister and a friend I am an observer of human nature and the dreamer of audacious dreams I am a woman who has hurt as immeasurably as I have loved a child of God divinely guided by his hand And here in my ninth decade I am a woman who at long last has something meaningful to say Cicely Tyson The Community Handbook Alexander Nunn, 1948 No Man Can Hinder Me Velma Maia Thomas, 2001 In an extraordinary book and CD package the talented charismatic author of Lest We Forget chronicles the harsh realities of slavery and brilliantly brings to life the spirit of a people determined to be free A vibrant legacy of the past and an expression of hope for the future African American songs and spirituals formed an oral history during the perilous era of slavery Illustrated with photographs drawings and reproductions of original documents No Man Can Hinder Me traces the spiritual from its arrival in America to its importance as a mode of secret communication to its role
