Good Deeds In Old Age Volunteering By The New Leisure Class:

Volunteering As Leisure/leisure As Volunteering Robert A. Stebbins, Margaret Graham, 2004-04-07 Volunteerism is a topic of increasing importance in this age of budget cuts declining employment and amid the threat posed by other competing leisure pursuits There are both social and economic benefits of volunteering As we are becoming more reliant on volunteers there is a need for a better understanding of why people take up volunteering and how to recruit manage motivate and support volunteers most effectively In order for organisations that host volunteers to achieve the most from their volunteers they must understand how to give them the best leisure experience This book examines critical aspects of contemporary volunteerism from the perspective of a variety of volunteering contexts It will appeal to academic researchers and students in disciplines such as leisure recreation tourism management and sociology as well as practitioners in the voluntary sector including volunteers National and Local Government and those organising special events that depend on voluntary support Good Deeds in Old Age Susan Maizel Chambré, 1987 Leisure and the Motive to Volunteer:

Theories of Serious, Casual, and Project-Based Leisure Robert A. Stebbins, 2015-10-29 Volunteering and its nonprofit organizations have commonly been analyzed in economic terms with volunteering being referred to as unpaid productive work This economic definition has been around far longer than that of volunteering conceived of as leisure which is discussed as the volitional definition By means of a lengthy literature review this book sets out the theoretical and empirical contributions of the serious leisure perspective to understanding volunteer motivation This second approach began more than 40 years ago It answers the key motivational question of why people engage in unpaid productive work laborious or not Since in this conception payment in cash or in kind is not an incentive to perform such work what encourages people to volunteer The serious leisure perspective unlike mainstream economics can shed considerable light on this question The Oxford Handbook of Work and Aging Jerry W. Hedge, Walter C. Borman, 2012-03-16 The area of work and aging is complex and multi faceted Its foundation is formed by a wide array of disciplines that both contribute to the complexity of its understanding and offer fertile promise for research development and application in the years ahead With an ever growing population of older workers many of whom are suggesting they will likely continue to work past traditional retirement age it becomes all the more important that we increase our efforts to develop a more thorough understanding of older workers the nature of their interactions with work and the organizations for which they work and the process of transitioning to retirement Clearly there are huge societal and global challenges that will both inform and influence research and application at the individual and organizational levels The Oxford Handbook of Work and Aging examines the aging workforce from an individual worker organization and societal perspective and offers both an integration of current cross disciplinary knowledge and a roadmap for where research and application should be focused in the future to address issues of an aging workforce The volume is divided into six core sections demography theoretical and methodological issues the older worker organizational strategies for an older workforce individual and organizational perspectives on work and retirement and societal perspectives with an aging workforce Bringing together seasoned authors from diverse academic and professional backgrounds new approaches to recruiting workplace flexibility and the right mix of benefits and incentives are presented as a way of engaging an older workforce Successful Aging Through the Life Span May L. Wykle, Peter J. Whitehouse, Diana L. Morris, 2004-10-25 This book explores concepts and practices for productive aging What factors contribute to successful aging What is the role of exercise and nutrition What is the role of children and adults in interaction with elders The chapters identify the best practices for successful aging examine trends in intergenerational caregiving and define roles and responsibilities across the life span Topics addressed include how to maximize productive engagement of older adults how multigenerational issues impact successful aging the ways in which a learning environment can promote intergenerational relationships Doing Good for the Aged Pat Keith, 2003-04-30 This book is about the subjective and objective outcomes of the work of volunteer advocates in nursing facilities The majority of the volunteers were older and they served older persons through their work in an ombudsman program The extent of involvement of older persons in volunteering suggests its importance to them and it increasingly sustains human service programs for both the young and old Despite an increased emphasis on independent and assisted living for older persons the need for oversight of care welfare and rights of the aged in nursing facilities remains Indeed in recognition of the need to provide advocacy services for vulnerable elderly the Older Americans Act was amended in 1978 to require states to establish nursing home ombudsman advocacy programs Ombudsman programs are based on the assumption that community involvement through volunteers will have a watchdog effect on behalf of residents and increase accountability among staff and administrators of nursing homes The present study reveals volunteers experiences in ombudsman programs It provides insight into volunteers thoughts about their work and their capabilities prior to their involvement as well as independent measures of the work of volunteers Volunteer Coordinator's Handbook William Dzombak, 1993 Seniors in National and Community Service Marc Freedman, 1994 The Palgrave Handbook of Volunteering, Civic Participation, and Nonprofit Associations David Horton Smith, Robert A. Stebbins, Jurgen Grotz, 2017-01-18 Written by over 200 leading experts from over seventy countries this handbook provides a comprehensive state of the art overview of the latest theory and research on volunteering civic participation and nonprofit membership associations The first handbook on the subject to be truly multinational and interdisciplinary in its authorship it represents a major milestone for the discipline Each chapter follows a rigorous theoretical structure examining definitions historical background key analytical issues usable knowledge and future trends and required research The nine parts of the handbook cover the historical and conceptual background of the discipline special types of volunteering the major activity areas of volunteering and associations influences on volunteering and association participation the internal structures of associations the internal processes of associations the external environments of associations the scope and impacts of volunteering and associations and conclusions and future prospects This handbook provides an essential reference work for third sector research and practice including a valuable glossary of terms defining over eighty key concepts Sponsored by the International Council of Voluntary Civil Society and Social Economy Researcher Associations ICSERA www.icsera.org it will appeal to scholars policymakers and practitioners and helps to define the emergent academic discipline of voluntaristics

Sports Volunteers Around the Globe Kirstin Hallmann, Sheranne Fairley, 2019-01-30 This book provides an overview of perspectives and approaches to the cultural meaning of sport volunteering in different countries The main objective is to reflect on the diversity of meanings with regard to volunteering in different cultures and societies Additionally this book will shed light on volunteering practices and the impact of volunteering from both an economic and a sociological perspective The book begins with an introductory section that gives an overview of the rationale of the text and the diversity of sport volunteers in general From there the book's 25 chapters each discuss a specific country case study provided by researchers from the respective country These studies provide a comprehensive overview of volunteering in each country such as motivations of volunteers satisfaction of volunteers their perceived cost and benefits and many other areas related to the overall study By having twenty five different countries represented and a native of each country authoring the respective chapters this book serves as a comprehensive and diverse review of sports volunteering around the world and can be incorporated into courses in economics particularly those dealing with sports economics and can also be used as a reference for volunteer organizations and sports economists worldwide      Social Integration in the Second Half of Life Karl Pillemer,Phyllis Moen,Elaine Wethington,Nina Glasgow,2003-05-01 Social scientists use the term social integration to refer to individuals connections with others in their environments The concept and its consequences have been the subject of considerable study Many researchers have asserted that meaningful and enduring ties to other persons serve as a buffer against stress and thereby promote physical and mental health The results are especially pronounced for older persons Social Integration in the Second Half of Life presents integrative reviews of theory and research on this topic The editors and contributors all currently or previously affiliated with the Cornell Gerontology Research Institute also present new empirical findings of research done at their center The first section of the book discusses basic theory and principles of social integration in later life and its implications for health The second largest section examines specific issues retirement driving family support housing neighbors The third section addresses interventions to promote social integration transportation volunteering and peer support for dementia caregivers Throughout the authors focus on the diverging influences of social integration and its converse social isolation in later life      Restructuring Work and the Life Course Victor W.

Marshall,Walter R. Heinz,Helga Krueger,Anil Verma,2001-01-01 In this multidisciplinary collection of essays forty eight social scientists from seven countries examine changes in the organization of work and their impact on people at various stages of the life course      The Social Psychology of Aging Scott F. Madey,2018-12-07 This special issue highlights how social psychology can further the understanding of important social health interpersonal and intergenerational issues facing people as they age This issue has three goals to generate more interest in aging as an area of study for social psychologists by showcasing researchers who are currently integrating basic social psychological research with issues in aging and lifespan development to challenge readers to think about how their research programs can interconnect with issues in aging and to demonstrate how social psychological processes have direct application to many of the issues facing people as they age      Envisioning Education in a Post-Work Leisure-Based Society Eugene Matusov,2020-05-14 This book is both an analytic and imaginative study of the future role of education in a leisure based society Grounded in a philosophical approach that draws on the work of Aristotle Arendt Keynes and others the volume deconstructs modern work based society as well as mainstream institutionalized education which the author argues have systemically alienated students from their education authorial agency and society itself The author argues for the value of intrinsic education where the goals are based on students own needs and interests imagining new opportunities that can arise from the emergence of such a society

Productive Aging Nancy Morrow-Howell,James Hinterlong,Michael Sherraden,2003-05-01 Will 69 million baby boomers suddenly drop out of the workforce when they turn 65 It is difficult to imagine this generation with its talent education and experience idling away the last thirty years of life From the Foreword by Robert N Butler M D The Mount Sinai Medical Center Old age has been historically thought of as a period of frailty and dependence yet studies show that with the help of advances in health and medicine current populations will live longer and remain healthier than previous generations As average life expectancies rise traditional concepts of retirement need to be reconsidered on all levels from government policy to business practice to individual life planning In this volume leaders in the field of gerontology explore these changing conditions through the concept of productive aging which has been developed by leaders in the field to promote older adults contributions to society in social and economic capacities Productive Aging Concepts and Challenges treats the implications of productive aging for the discipline of gerontology and for society in general The first section defines the principles historical perspectives and conceptual frameworks for productive aging The second section takes a disciplinary approach treating the biomedical psychological sociological and economic implications of a more capable older generation The third section considers advances in theories of gerontology and the fourth section suggests future directions in practice theory and research Contributors W Andrew Achenbaum University of Houston Scott A Bass University of Maryland Baltimore Vern L Bengtson University of Southern California James E Birren UCLA Francis G Caro University of Massachusetts Boston Carroll L Estes University of California San Francisco Marc Freedman Civic Ventures co founder of Experience Corps James Hinterlong Washington University James S Jackson University of Michigan Jane L Mahakian Pacific Senior Services Harry R Moody Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Nancy Morrow Howell Washington University Philip Rozario Washington University James H Schulz Brandeis University Michael Sherraden Washington University Alvar Svanborg University of Illinois Chicago and Goteburg University Sweden Brent A Taylor San Diego State University      Proceedings of the 2005 Northeastern Recreation Research Symposium ,2006
