Ecology Of Choice And Symbol:

The Ecology of Choice and Symbol Gunnar Haaland,1991 Fredrik Barth Thomas Hylland Eriksen,2015-04-20 Fredrik Barth is one of the towering figures of twentieth century anthropology This intellectual history traces the development of Barth s ideas and explores the substance of his contributions In an accessible style Thomas Hylland Eriksen s biographical study reveals the magic of ethnography to professional anthropologists and non practitioners alike Exploring his six decade career it follows Barth from early ecological studies in Pakistan to political studies in Iran to groundbreaking fieldwork in Norway New Guinea Bali and Bhutan Eriksen argues that Barth s voracious appetite for fieldwork holds the key to understanding his remarkable intellectual development and the insights it produced The book raises many of the same questions that emerge from Barth s own work of unity and diversity of culture and relativism of art and science

Guardians of Marovo Lagoon Edvard Hviding,1996-05-01 This is perhaps the best monograph on how Pacific islanders relate to their marine resources since Robert Johannes s Words of the Lagoon Fishing and Marine Lore in the Palau District of Melanesia 1981 and it stands as a major contribution to the study of indigenous marine tenure systems that should be required reading for everyone concerned with the issue of allocating marine resources American Anthropologist Pacific Islands Monograph Series No 14 Published in association with the Center for Pacific Islands Studies University of Hawai i

International Handbook of Research on Indigenous Entrepreneurship L. -P. Dana,2007 This book offers an original collection of international studies on indigenous entrepreneurship Through these specific lenses entrepreneurship greatly appears as a set of cultural values based behaviours Once more culture and human values are placed at the heart of entrepreneurship as an economic and social phenomenon Alain Fayolle EM Lyon and CERAG Laboratory France and Solvay Business School Belgium A must have for researchers of developmental economics as well as for entrepreneurship scholars this collection assembles studies of indigenous entrepreneurship from five continent The Ecology of Choice and Symbol Reidar Grønhaug,Gunnar Haaland,1991 Pastoralist Resilience to Environmental Collapse in East Africa since 1500 Gufu Oba,2024-02-23 This book explores pastoralist farmers approaches to environmental disaster management in East Africa charting their responses and adaptations to famine pandemics natural disasters and historical events Using a dynamic adaptive cycle theoretical framework it uses social memory to reconstruct an event history calendar thus combining social memory and written historical records to reconstruct the adaptive strategies of pastoralists It explores the climate history of the southern Ethiopian and northern Kenyan frontier considering in particular the impact of the colonial period and independence thereafter providing a significant contribution to debates in African environmental history Socialism C. M. Hann,2003-09-02 Socialism as a political system may be on the wane yet no one can doubt that its cultural legacies will make themselves felt for years to come and on a worldwide scale The contributors to this volume adopt a variety of anthropological approaches to illuminate changes which have removed socialists from power in many countries Presenting detailed ethnographic accounts across a wide range of countries they bring out the factors which have given socialism such a profound worldwide impact including a substantial impact upon the discipline of anthropology itself The first sustained and wide ranging investigation of socialism by social anthropologists this volume will enable readers to understand better how socialism has been experienced by millions of people and thereby to now better understand how they may cope with post socialist dilemmas The Journal of Ecology, 1923 Vols 16 21 include supplement British empire vegetation abstracts

Maximum Entropy and Ecology John Harte, 2011-06-23 Provides readers with the concepts and practical tools required to understand the maximum entropy principle and apply it to an understanding of ecological patterns The theory developed predicts realistic forms for all metrics of ecology that describe patterns in the distribution abundance and energetics of species Theory and Methods in the Social Sciences Stein Ugelvik Larsen, 2002 This book explores both the theoretical and practical underpinnings of integrated conservation and development It synthesizes existing experience to better inform conservationists and decision makers of the role ICDPs play in conservation and management and analyzes their successes and shortcomings Coming of Age Francesca Purcell, 2005-07-14 In view of the increasing number of Third World countries considering the establishment of women s colleges to meet the demand for the higher education of women presenting a case study of two key women s colleges in the Philippines Within the context of global national and local changes since the fall of Ferdinand Marcos in 1986 academic and administrative leaders at two prestigious women s colleges candidly discuss how their respective institutions adapted to their environments and how the colleges will fare in the future Preferences for large coeducational institutions the emergence of less expensive tertiary institutions and the downward spiral of a weak national economy combined to destabilized the enrollment base of these colleges Factors unique to the Philippines including an increasing number of female overseas contract workers struggles with national language preferences and the growth of feminism also affected the colleges In response the colleges expanded their curricula chose high profile presidents focused on faculty development and acquired technology Decision markers at these colleges will have to continue in their efforts at solidifying their positions in the Philippine higher education system The book that women s colleges worldwide must articulate their unique purposes and collaborate with other institutions to strengthen their organizations Proshikhyan, 2003 The Oxford Handbook of Symbolic Interactionism Wayne H. Brekhus, Thomas DeGloma, William Ryan Force, 2023-12-22 The Oxford Handbook of Symbolic Interactionism features a diverse array of cutting edge scholarship in symbolic interactionism SI The scholars featured in this volume present new and evolving outlooks on foundational SI themes including the self and identity the interactive construction of meaning classical pragmatism interactionist research methods performance culture and subcultures cognition emotion organizations and institutions and social constructionism The Symbolic Earth James G. Cantrill, Christine L. Oravec, 2021-10-21 The core dilemma in environmental advocacy may be illustrated by the question When we communicate about the world should we stress what we know or what we feel The contributors to The Symbolic Earth argue that it is more important to decide how we should talk about what we know and feel In their view the environment is largely a product of how we talk about the world Because the environment is a social construction the only hope we have of preserving it is to understand and alter the fundamental ways we discuss it This collection first examines the ways in which discourse creates environment perceptions Subjects discussed range from the description of natural scenery to the advocacy of political interest groups from the everyday interactions of citizens facing environmental crises to the greenwashing of corporate imagemakers and from the psychology of the mass public to the social constructions of the mass media The authors include nationally known scholars of environmental history rhetorical theory ethnography communication and journalism studies public policy and media criticism
