Economies of the Middle East and North Africa Robert Springborg,2020-03-16 Despite its oil wealth the Middle East and North Africa is economically stagnating Growth rates are comparatively unfavorable and insufficient to substantially improve citizens lives Whether this economic inertia can be overcome or will continue into the indefinite future is a vital question that confronts both the region and the world In this book leading Middle East scholar Robert Springborg discusses the economic future of this region by examining the national and regional political causes of its contemporary underperformance Overgrown weak MENA states he explains have been unable to escape their unfavorable historical legacies Limited access orders and the deep states based in the means of coercion that underpin them undermine state capacities and constrain beneficial autonomous political and economic activity Increasingly challenged by their populations MENA states face the daunting and so far unmet challenge of diversifying non sustainable rentier political economies away from direct or indirect dependence on oil and gas revenues Stagnation of those revenues and failure to generate alternative income sources combined with rapid population growth presents the region with an economic challenge that can only be overcome by profound political change

The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell Young,2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis

The GCC Economies Mohamed A. Ramady,2012-04-23 The Arab Spring of 2011 has affected the countries of the region to varying degrees including the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC members comprising Saudi Arabia Kuwait Qatar the United Arab Emirates Oman and Bahrain The GCC has become a significant regional bloc playing a vital economic and political role far beyond its shores given its geopolitical strategic location a preponderance of global energy reserves and a major international player through the use of accumulated financial reserves A new Gulf is rising one that is more self assertive looking to expand its membership to other Arab countries such as Jordan and Morocco while at the same time strengthening the bloc s relationship with current and emerging trading and strategic partners in Europe USA and Asia Regional and international realities especially the uncertainties unleashed by the Arab Spring are forcing Gulf leadership to initiate new policies involving closer cooperation amongst GCC countries to address emerging challenges This volume brings together thirty renowned academics and specialists to examine a range of multifaceted social political and economic issues facing the GCC in key areas such as Diversification from a high dependency on a narrow hydrocarbon base Social transformation youth employment and effective gender participation Outward and inward foreign direct investment flows Prospects for education reforms and e learning Sustainable security in oil renewable energy including nuclear and food Corporate governance transparency and enhancing the private sector s operating environment The role and governance of Gulf Sovereign Wealth Funds in investing their surpluses The volume also offers insights for challenges facing the GCC in monetary union expanding the regional debt market and Sukuk issuance GCC intellectual property rights application detailed assessments of individual GCC country risk analysis as well as the sustainability of long term government fiscal stimulus programs at the expense of private sector involvement
