Electroshock The Case Against:

Electroshock Robert F. Morgan,1999 Electroshock Robert F. Morgan,1991 Madness, Heresy, and the Rumor of Angels Seth Farber,1993 This is a collection of seven true stories of individuals insulted and injured by the mental health system individuals who then fought back broke free and rebuilt their lives Madness Heresy and the Rumor of Angels is a work in the tradition of Thomas Szasz R D Laing and Erving Goffman a challenge to the delusional belief system known as psychiatry and a protest against its appalling crimes Electroconvulsive and Neuromodulation Therapies Conrad Swartz,2009-03-02 Electroconvulsive therapy ECT is a psychiatric treatment involving the induction of a seizure through the transmission of electricity in the brain Because of exploitation movies and greatly heightened drug company promotional activities ECT was used less frequently in the 1980s and 1990s Eventually these movies were understood as unrealistic Now these drugs are increasingly recognized as dangers to body health Because of recent refinements and a far better scientific understanding of the clinical procedures and mechanisms underpinning ECT this treatment modality has seen a resurgence in use and widespread appreciation of its safety This book is the new definitive reference on electroconvulsive and neuromodulation therapies It comprehensively covers the scientific basis and clinical practice of ECT as well as comparisons between ECT and medication therapies including the new generation of antipsychotic drugs It also provides readers with administrative perspectives and specific details for the management of this modality in clinical practice The new forms of nonconvulsive electrical and magnetic brain stimulation therapy are also covered in detail in a separate section The chapter authors are leading scholars and clinicians The Case Against Adolescence Robert Epstein,2007 This groundbreaking book argues that adolescence is an unnecessary period of life that people are better off without Robert Epstein former editor in chief of Psychology Today shows that teen turmoil is caused by outmoded systems put into place a century ago which destroyed the continuum between childhood and adulthood Where this continuum still exists in other countries there is no adolescence Isolated from adults American teens learn everything they know from their media dominated peers the last people on earth they should be learning from says Epstein Epstein explains that our teens are highly capable in some ways more capable than adults and argues strongly against infantilizing young people We must rediscover the adult in every teen he says by giving young people adult authority and responsibility as soon as they can demonstrate readiness This landmark book will change the thinking about teens for decades to come Mental Health Ethics Phil Barker,2010-11-09 All human behaviour is ultimately a moral undertaking in which each situation must be considered on its own merits As a result ethical conduct is complex Despite the proliferation of Codes of Conduct and other forms of professional guidance there are no easy answers to most human problems Mental Health Ethics encourages readers to heighten their awareness of the key ethical dilemmas found in mainstream contemporary mental health practice This text provides an overview of traditional and contemporary ethical perspectives and critically examines a range of ethical and moral challenges present in contemporary psychiatric mental health services Offering a comprehensive and interdisciplinary perspective it includes six parts each with their own introduction summary and set of ethical challenges covering fundamental ethical principles legal issues specific challenges for different professional groups working with different service user groups models of care and treatment recovery and human rights perspectives Providing detailed consideration of issues and dilemmas Mental Health Ethics helps all mental health professionals keep people at the centre of the services they offer Women, Madness and the Law Wendy Chan,Dorothy E. Chunn,Robert Menzies,2012-10-12 This book explores for the first time in an edited collection the intersection of three key research areas women madness and the law and advances the debates on how law and the psy sciences play a critical role in regulating and controlling women s lives Current List of Medical Literature ,1959 Includes section Recent book acquisitions varies Recent United States publications formerly published separately by the U S Army Medical Library Electroconvulsive Therapy Charlotte Kenton,1985 Electroconvulsive Therapy Richard Abrams,2002-06-27 Enthusiastically defending the controversial use of electroconvulsive therapy ECT Abrams psychiatry Chicago Medical School the director of a firm that manufactures ECT devices reviews the practice and its literature He briefly discusses the history of ECT and then outlines current practice and addresses the use of unilateral versus bitemporal ECT He argues against the studies that find ECT to be a dangerous and unhelpful procedure A final chapter considers ethical and legal issues finding that doctors who refuse to subject patients to electroshock are behaving unethically and that malpractice suits are a relatively minor problem Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Cumulated Index Medicus ,1972 Taking Sides Psychological Issues Brent D. Slife,2004 Presents opposing viewpoints on eighteen controversial psychological issues covering research biology human development mental health and other topics Epilepsy Bibliography, 1950-1975 J. Kiffin Penry,1976 1771 entries to worldwide literature mostly journal articles Intended as source of current published works on epilepsy also serves as cumulative index to Epilepsy abstracts v 1 9 1967 1976 Classified arrangement under 9 broad headings e g Seizures Etiology and Treatment Entries include bibliographical information with foreign language titles also in English and Epilepsy abstracts citations Keyword subject indexes Science Tales Darryl Cunningham,2013-06-01 Previously published as How to Fake a Moon Landing and nominated for the Great Graphic Novels for Teens List from Young Adult Library Services Association this new edition has been updated to include a clinical expos of frackingA graphic milestone of investigative reporting Cunningham s essays explode the lies hoaxes and scams of popular science debunking media myths and decoding some of today s most fiercely debated issues climate change electroconvulsive therapy the moon landing the MMR Measles Mumps and Rubella vaccine homeopathy chiropractic evolution science denialism and new for this edition fracking Thoroughly researched and sourced Cunningham s clear narrative graphic lines and photographic illustration explain complicated and controversial issues with deceptive ease Taking Sides Lisa H.
