The Art of the Dessert Ann Amernick, Margie Litman, 2007-04-16 Named one of the country's top ten pastry chefs by both Chocolatier and Pastry Art Design magazines and nominated five times for the James

Beard Pastry Chef of the Year award Ann Amernick is one of the nation's most accomplished dessert makers. Now in this deliciously inspiring cookbook she shares nearly 100 recipes for artfully distinctive desserts, the summation of her long and distinguished career as a baker. Amernick's creations often recall familiar foods and flavors, a cheese danish for example or a Reese's Peanut Butter Cup, but in her hands the familiar becomes something truly extraordinary: Apricot and Custard Danish Sandwiches or Peanut Butter Cream Truffles with Shortbread and Raspberry Gelée. Spanning the whole range of dessert possibilities, cakes and tortes, pies and tarts, cookies and candies, cold desserts, warm desserts, and dessert sandwiches, The Art of the Dessert is filled with recipes that are as innovative and sophisticated as they are homey and unfailingly delicious. Chocolate Toffee Torte, Lemon Caramel Tartlets, Almond Lace Cookies, Amaretto Nougat Cups, Toasted Coconut Pecan Soufflé, Tartlets, and Pumpkin Custard Napoleons are just a few of the dazzling creations you'll discover. For each recipe, Amernick offers detailed step-by-step guidance on preparation as well as sidebars that offer options for embellishing the desserts when serving. Sixteen striking full-color photographs accompany the recipes, along with Amernick's Trucs of the Trade and expert advice on pastry making, including basic and advanced techniques, information on equipment and ingredients, and helpful tips on creating all kinds of dessert components and garnishes, from tartlet shells to fruit leather. If you want to refine your baking skills and add some show-stopping new desserts to your repertoire, let this extraordinary cookbook by a master pastry chef be your guide.

The Food Section Kimberly Wilmot Voss, 2014-04-24 Food blogs are everywhere today, but for generations information and opinions about food were found in the food sections of newspapers in communities large and small. Until the early 1970s, these sections were housed in the women's pages of newspapers, where women could hold an authoritative voice. The food editors, often a mix of trained journalist and home economist, reported on everything from nutrition news to features on the new chef in town. They wrote recipes and solicited ideas from readers. The sections reflected the trends of the time and the cooks of the community. The editors were local celebrities, judging cooking contests and getting calls at home about how to prepare a Thanksgiving turkey. They were consumer advocates and reporters for food safety and nutrition. They helped make James Beard and Julia Child household names as the editors wrote about their television appearances and reviewed their cookbooks. These food editors laid the foundation for the food community that Nora Ephron described in her classic 1968 essay The Food Establishment and eventually led to the food communities of today. Included in the chapters are profiles of such food editors as Jane Nickerson, Jeanne Voltz, and Ruth Ellen Church, who were unheralded pioneers in the field, as well as Cecily Brownstone, Poppy Cannon, and Clementine Paddleford, who are well known today. An analysis of their work demonstrates changes in the country's culinary history. The book concludes with a look at how the women's pages folded at the same time that home economics saw its field transformed and with thoughts about the foundation that these women laid for the food journalism of today.
