Osiris, Volume 40 Tamar Novick,Lisa Onaga,Gabriel N. Rosenberg,2025-07-14 Situates animal mobility within the politics of movement opening new perspectives in the history of science Human societies often come to know the natural world by examining animals even as animals frequently both willful and animate can elude human grasps and challenge human aims Animals and their movements have underpinned many methodological moral and epistemic dilemmas that generatively trouble the field Featuring a range of geographies species languages and cultures the contributions in this volume broaden the view of the historical roles animals play in knowledge production processes Organized according to three scales of animal movement individuals groups systems the twelve richly illustrated inquiries are situated in different time periods from the sixteenth century Ottoman Empire to the recent globalized past and introduce varied forms capacities and politics of movement associated with animals The analytic attention to animal mobility deepens comprehension of animal agency and human animal interactions in unexpected spaces including airports entertainment venues living rooms dirt roads and waterways Taken together the case studies in this volume reconsider how where and by whom science is done

Chemical Signals in Vertebrates 10 R.T. Mason,Michael P. Lemaster,Dietland Müller-Schwarze,2006-11-09 The editors and contributors to this volume should be justifiably proud of their participation in the tenth triennial meeting of the Chemical Signals in Vertebrates International Symposium This meeting was held 27 years after the initial gathering of participants in Saratoga Springs New York from June 6 to 9 1976 Subsequent meetings have been held every three years in Syracuse New York Sarasota Florida Laramie Wyoming Oxford England Philadelphia Pennsylvania Tübingen Germany Ithaca New York and Krakow Poland This tenth anniversary symposium was held from July 29 through August 1 in Corvallis Oregon and was hosted by the Zoology Department and Biology Programs of Oregon State University This book also represents the tenth in a series of books on chemical communication chemical ecology olfactory and vomeronasal research in vertebrate species The species covered in the chapters herein range from fish to mammals including humans By taxonomic breakdown the mammals are the most represented in number of species and chapter contributions However the hosts of the meeting endeavored to have some representative contributions covering all of the major vertebrate taxa As in past years the meeting was well represented with just over 100 participants from 13 different nations Plenary talks focused on some of the non mammalian groups that have tended to be less represented in these symposia Thus we had a very nice overview of comparisons and contrasts of invertebrate chemical communication to vertebrate systems

Monasteries in the wild ,2024-12-05 Drawing from this wealth of experience in work and life he has distilled his insights into a book inspired by the animal kingdom Through the simple question If an animal can can t we the book invites readers to explore the valuable lessons animals have to offer The author s journey into the world of animals began with the arrival of his beloved child Veera his pet dog on March 14 2012 From that moment a magical journey unfolded Gazing into Veera s eyes he realized that if there was so much to learn from just one animal there must be countless lessons to learn from the vast array of creatures in the jungle Thus he embarked on this enlightening journey

The Social Behavior of Older Animals Anne Innis Dagg,2009-02-02 A groundbreaking study on the lives of senior mammals and birds from the aging of alphas to the role of grandmothers by the author of Animal Friendships How do young and old social animals view each other Are aged animals perceived by others as weaker Or wiser What is the relationship between age and power among social animals Taking a cue from Frans de Waal s seminal work examining the lives of chimpanzees Anne Innis Dagg in this pioneering study probes the lives of older mammals and birds Synthesizing the available scientific research and anecdotal evidence she explores how aging affects the lives and behavior of animals ranging from elk to elephants and gulls to gorillas examining such topics as longevity how others in a group view senior members in regard to leadership wisdom and teaching mating success interactions with mates and offspring how aging affects dominance changes in aggressive behavior and adaptability and death and dying At once instructive and compelling this theme spanning book reveals the complex nature of maturity in scores of social species and shows that animal behavior often displays the same diversity we find in ourselves Dagg s book should be a corrective to us all species that lose or ignore the contributions of their older members do so at their peril Literary Review of Canada Humans and chimps it turns out value age in sexual partners very differently In our species youth is prized but among chimps the reverse is the case The New York Review of Books

The Conceptual Mind Eric Margolis,Stephen Laurence,2015-05-08 The study of concepts has advanced dramatically in recent years with exciting new findings and theoretical developments Core concepts have been investigated in greater depth and new lines of inquiry have blossomed with researchers from an ever broader range of disciplines making important contributions In this volume leading philosophers and cognitive scientists offer original essays that present the state of the art in the study of concepts These essays all commissioned for this book do not merely present the usual surveys and overviews rather they offer the latest work on concepts by a diverse group of theorists as well as discussions of the ideas that should guide research over the next decade
