The Secret Elephants Gareth Patterson, 2012-09-28 The elephants of the Knysna forest have long been the subject of mystery and conjecture Over the years they have taken on an almost mythical quality with many doubting whether they existed at all In 1994 the local forestry department maintained that there was only one surviving Knysna elephant the seldom seen female known as The Matriarch The Knysna elephant was thus described as functionally extinct This was the official stance until September 2000 when forest guard Wilfred Oraai encountered and photographed a young bull from a distance of some thirty metres The question arose who was its mother And indeed who was its father In 2001 Gareth Patterson began an independent study of the Knysna elephant For the next seven years he covered thousands of kilometres on foot following ancient elephant paths through the dense Afromontane forest and the surrounding mountain fynbos He found abundant signs to suggest that far from dying out the Knysna elephants are quietly and secretly holding their own Patterson's fieldwork and his dna research in collaboration with conservation geneticist Lori Eggert established that at least five young females exist lending support to Patterson's growing evidence that the Knysna forest and its surroundings are home to a small herd of young elephants The Secret Elephants is the story of these remarkable animals that fought their way back from the brink of extinction without any help from humankind

The Psychological Effects of War and Violence on Children Lewis A.

Leavitt, Nathan A. Fox, 2014-01-14 The outgrowth of a conference planned as a response to the need for researchers and clinicians to develop integrated plans for addressing the psychological trauma of children exposed to violence this volume's goals are to summarize research on the subject with particular emphasis on the Gulf War to use this information to formulate an outline of what current knowledge suggests are reasonable approaches to public mental health intervention and to develop an agenda for future research necessary for improving clinical efforts in varying international conflicts A significant collection of diverse perspectives attending to a diversity of cultural and political contexts the contributors offer many conclusions about important dimensions for analyzing the effects of violence on children Suggesting informed approaches to public mental health efforts which can be implemented the work presented here directs attention to the need for interdisciplinary collaboration among researchers and clinicians to better understand the effects of exposure to violence on the psychological well being of children and the optimal modes of remediation on individual family and community levels

Baraboo Sauk County Historical Society, 2017 Like many small Midwestern cities Baraboo has had the usual share of postcards printed featuring its buildings and landscapes However Baraboo's unique place in Wisconsin history provided for a much richer array of subject matter As the original winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers Circus along with its proximity to Devil's Lake and its place as a division headquarters for the Chicago North Western railroad Baraboo has always provided an interesting setting for postcard images Everything Elephants Michael Don Knapik, 2002 Images and information about a wide range of elephant collectibles This compendium has over 900 color images in over 130 categories with current prices covering virtually every major manufacturer and artist past and recent These include Aronson Bayre Bratsoff Goebel Lladro Loetz Meissen Nast Neiman Passman Ronson Royal Doulton Royal Haeger Shawnee Swarovski Vanderveen Wedgewood and many many more

Postcards James Prideaux, 1970 For thirty years Margaret and Leonardo have sat each day at adjoining desks writing postcards to famous people without ever getting any answers Having run out of live personages to write to they decide to address their cards to the famous dead but suddenly much to their consternation a reply does arrive Its effect is shattering and brings on a poignant revelation of the unspoken feelings which have through all the years lay dormant beneath the calm surface of their very correct relationship Outside the Anthropological Machine Chiara

Mengozi, 2020-05-14 In the midst of the climate crisis and the threat of the sixth extinction we can no longer claim to be the masters of nature Rather we need to unlearn our species arrogance for the sake of all animals human and non human Rethinking our being in the world as Homo sapiens this monograph argues starts precisely from the way we relate to our closer companion species The authors gathered here endeavour to find multiple exit strategies from the anthropocentric paradigms that have bound the human and social sciences Part I investigates the unexplored margins of human history by re-reading historical events literary texts and scientific findings from an animal's perspective rather than a human's Part II explores different forms of human animal relationships putting the emphasis on the institutions spaces and discourses that frame our interactions with animals Part III engages with processes of translation that aim to render animals experience and perception into human words and visual language

The Tiny Museums Carolyn Abbs,2017 Highly Commended in the 2016 Dorothy Hewett Award for an Unpublished Manuscript Carolyn Abbs s poems in her poised collection The Tiny Museums live in the gap between deep time and now They are insistently alive to the rich tensions between those two registers This pairing of past present plays out in other unifying doublings and mirrorings particularly those between the UK and Western Australia between photography and poetry and a fertile creative relationship shared by sisters Abbs deftly creates the world of her book through a phenomenological approach Elegant layers of textures colours sounds and movement invite the reader into an experiential sense of this trench between the past and the present In this way her sensibility is painterly but its a Northern light in her poems reminiscent of the crisp mysteries of Vermeer Abbs s poems dealing with family grief are the centrepieces of the book and are admirable in their ability to move the reader without any cloying sentimentality Along with a skilled attentiveness to the ways in which sound moves through a line this beautifully modulated emotional intelligence is a very great strength of her poetry The 2016 Dorothy Hewett Award judges report Series UWAP Poetry Subject Poetry

The Masterwork of a Painting Elephant Michelle Cuevas,2011-10-11 Ever since he was an infant Pigeon Jones has lived on the back of an artistically gifted white elephant named Birch Birch is a loving father but that doesn t stop Pigeon from wondering about the human parents who abandoned him Birch has dreams too of being a well known artist and of finding the acrobat he fell in love with while they performed together in a circus years ago And so on Pigeon s tenth birthday their search for fame and lost loves begins Pigeon and Birch paint their way across the world dodging an evil circus ringleader freeing zoo animals and befriending singing hoboos along the way But when they reach the end of their journey Birch must master the most difficult art of all letting go and allowing his beloved Pigeon to stand on his own
