America Austin Sarat's book instantly became an essential resource for citizens, scholars and lawmakers interested in capital punishment even the Supreme Court which cited the book in its recent opinion Glossip v Gross. Now in paperback the book includes a new preface outlining the latest twists and turns in the death penalty debate including the recent galvanization of citizens and leaders alike as recent botched executions have unfolded in the press. Sarat argues that unlike in the past today's botched executions seem less like inexplicable mishaps and more like the latest symptoms of a death penalty machinery in disarray. Gruesome Spectacles traces the historical evolution of methods of execution from hanging or firing squad to electrocution to gas and lethal injection. Even though each of these technologies was developed to perfect state killing by decreasing the chance of a cruel death, an estimated three percent of all American executions went awry in one way or another. Sarat recounts the gripping and truly gruesome stories of some of these deaths, stories obscured by history and to some extent the popular press.

Into the Nebula Gene DeWeese, 2000-09-22 The members of the Starship Enterprise must find the people responsible for destroying the planet before an entire civilization dies out. While exploring an unknown region of space the U.S.S. Enterprise encounters a strange nebular dust. Upon further investigation they discover a planet called Krantin on which the plant and animal life as well as the civilization are dying. A series of explosions and a ship that simply disappears into thin air lead the crew to believe another group is causing the devastation of the planet. The leader of the planet's society however is wary of trusting the Starship Enterprise crewmembers and has the away team arrested. With time running out Data must find a way to save his crewmates or watch as two worlds are destroyed. Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1955 Hearings United States. Congress. House.
