The Eleven Religions and Their Proverbial Lore Selwyn Gurney Champion, 1945 The Daēva Cult in the Gāthās Amir Ahmadi, 2015-04-10 Addressing the question of the origins of the Zoroastrian religion this book argues that the intransigent opposition to the cult of the da was the ancient Indo Iranian gods is the root of the development of the two central doctrines of Zoroastrianism cosmic dualism and eschatology fate of the soul after death and its passage to the other world The da va cult as it appears in the G th s the oldest part of the Zoroastrian sacred text the Avesta had eschatological pretensions The poet of the G th s condemns these as deception The book critically examines various theories put forward since the 19th century to account for the condemnation of the da vas It then turns to the relevant G thic passages and analyzes them in detail in order to give a picture of the cult and the reasons for its repudiation Finally it examines materials from other sources especially the Greek accounts of Iranian ritual lore mainly in the context of the mystery cults Classical Greek writers consistently associate the nocturnal ceremony of the magi with the mysteries as belonging to the same religious cultural category This shows that Iranian religious lore included a nocturnal rite that aimed at ensuring the soul s journey to the beyond and a desirable afterlife Challenging the prevalent scholarship of the Greek interpretation of Iranian religious lore and proposing a new analysis of the formation of the Hellenistic concept of magic this book is an important resource for students and scholars of History Religion and Iranian Studies The Eleven Religions, and Their Proverbial Lore. A Comparative Study ... With Introductions by Thirteen Leading Authorities Selwyn Gurney CHAMPION, 1944 A Proverb in Mind Richard P. Honeck, 2013-05-13 SEE SHORT BLURB FOR ALTERNATE COPY A complex intriguing and important verbal entity the proverb has been the subject of a vast number of opinions studies and analyses To accommodate the assorted possible audiences this volume outlines seven views of the proverb personal formal religious literary practical cultural and cognitive Because the author s goal is to provide a scientific understanding of proverb comprehension and production he draws largely on scholarship stemming from the formal cultural and cognitive views The only book about proverbs that is written from the standpoint of cognitive science cognitive psychology and experimentalism this text provides a larger more interdisciplinary perspective on the proverb It also gives a theoretically more integrated approach to proverb cognition The conceptual base theory of proverb comprehension is extended via the cognitive ideals hypothesis so that the theory now addresses issues regarding the creation production and pragmatics of proverbs This hypothesis also has strong implications for a taxonomy of proverbs proverb comprehension universal vs culture specific aspects of proverbs and some structural aspects of proverbs In general the book extends the challenge of proverb cognition by using much of what cognitive science has to offer In so doing the proverb is compared to other forms of figurative language which is then discussed within the larger rubric of intelligence and the inclination for using indirect modes of communication Child developmental and brain substrates are also discussed

The Invention of World Religions Tomoko Masuzawa, 2005-05-15 The idea of world religions expresses a vague commitment to multiculturalism Not merely a descriptive concept world religions is actually a particular ethos a pluralist ideology a logic of classification and a form of knowledge that has shaped the study of religion and infiltrated ordinary language In this ambitious study Tomoko Masuzawa examines the emergence of world religions in modern European thought Devoting particular attention to the relation between the comparative study of language and the nascent science of religion she demonstrates how new classifications of language and race caused Buddhism and Islam to gain special significance as these religions came to be seen in opposing terms Aryan on one hand and Semitic on the other Masuzawa also explores the complex relation of world religions to Protestant theology from the hierarchical ordering of religions typical of the Christian supremacists of the nineteenth century to the aspirations of early twentieth century theologian Ernst Troeltsch who embraced the pluralist logic of world religions and by so doing sought to reclaim the universalist destiny of European modernity
