The Elfin Artist Alfred Noyes, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from The Elfin Artist And Other Poems The Elfin Artist In a glade of an elfin forest When Sussex was Eden new I came on an elvish painter And watched as his picture grew A harebell nodded beside him He dipped his brush in the dew And it might be the wild thyme round him That shone in that dark strange ring But his brushes were bees antennae His knife was a wasp's blue sting And his gorgeous exquisite palette Was a butterfly's fan shaped wing And he mingled its powdery colours And painted the lights that pass On a delicate cobweb canvas That gleamed like a magic glass And bloomed like a banner of elf land Between two stalks of grass About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
