The Journey of Modern Theology Roger E. Olson, 2013-11-01 In this major revision and expansion of the classic 20th Century Theology 1992 coauthored with Stanley J Grenz Roger Olson tells the full story of modern theology from Descartes to Caputo from the Kantian revolution to postmodernism now recast in terms of how theologians have accommodated or rejected modernity The Problem of Omnipotence in Current Theology Riichirō Hoashi, 1918

Trinity and Election in Contemporary Theology Michael T. Dempsey, 2011 A lively debate has been heating up among some of the foremost authorities on Karl Barth as they seek to answer a crucial point of contention Is the Trinity complete in itself from all eternity or is it constituted by the eternal decision of election Trinity and Election in Contemporary Theology offers a collection of essays that seek to address this question through rigorous and critical treatment of select topics in the theology of Karl Barth by contemporary interpreters from both Protestant and Roman Catholic perspectives The Praxis of Suffering Rebecca S. Chopp, 2007-03-16 Liberation and political theologies have emerged powerfully in recent years interrupting the way in which First World Christians both experience and understand their faith Through an analysis of the cultural and ecclesial contexts of these theological movements as well as a critical examination of four of their principal exponents Gustavo Gutierrez Johann Baptist Metz Jose Miguez Bonino and Jurgen Moltmann the author demonstrates that political and liberation theologies represent a new model of theology one that proffers a vision of Christian witness as a praxis of solidarity with suffering persons Themelios, Volume 42, Issue 3 D. Hugo Grotius and the Modern Theology of Freedom Jeremy Seth Geddert, 2017-02-24. Human rights are thought to guarantee pluralism by protecting individual liberty from imposed religious conceptions of virtue. Yet critics often argue that this secular focus on merely avoiding violations can also enable unfettered individualism and undermine appeals to the common good. This book uncovers in secular rights pioneer Hugo Grotius a rights theory that points toward the enlargement of individual responsibility. It grounds this connection in Grotius' unexplored theological corpus which reveals a dual metaethics and jurisprudence. Here a deontological natural law undergirds a secular theory of rights that is self-aware of its own limitations. A teleological practical reason then guides the exercise of these rights so as not to compromise the political order that defends them. The book then illustrates this symbiosis of rights and responsibilities in five areas: consent theories of government, rights of rebellion, criminal punishment, war, and international responsibility and Atonement theology. This reassesses Grotius' legacy as a secularist opponent of classical political thought and suggests that modern liberalism and universal human rights are compatible with a world of resurgent religion.

Four Views on Divine Providence William Lane Craig, Ron Highfield, Gregory A. Boyd, Paul Kjos, Helseth, 2011-04-19. Questions about divine providence have preoccupied Christians for generations: to what degree does God concern himself with and intervene in the affairs of everyday life? This book introduces readers to four prevailing views on divine providence with particular attention to the questions of human free will, the problem of evil, and God's perception of time. Volume contributors and their basic viewpoints are: Paul Helseth, God causes every creaturely event that occurs; William Lane Craig, through his middle knowledge, God controls the course of worldly affairs without predetermining any creature's free decisions; Ron Highfield, God controls creatures by liberating their decision-making; Gregory Boyd, human decisions can be free only if God neither determines nor knows what they will be. Introductory and closing essays by Dennis Jowers give relevant background and guide readers toward their own informed beliefs about divine providence Four Views on Divine Providence helps readers think theologically and biblically about all the issues involved in exploring this doctrine The point counterpoint format reveals the assumptions and considerations that drive equally learned and sincere theologians to disagreement with each other It unearths the genuinely decisive issues beneath a philosophically dense debate The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Religion, Education and Post-Modernity Andrew Wright, 2003-12-16 This book the first to explore religious education and post modernity in depth sets out to provide a much needed examination of the problems and possibilities post modernity raises for religious education At once a general introduction to this topic and a distinctive contribution to the debate in its own right Religion Education and Post modernity explores and illuminates the problems and possibilities opened up for religious education by postmodern thought and culture The book describes the emergence of post modernity considers the impact of post modernity on religion addresses its impact on the philosophy of religion and considers the nature of religious education in the post modern world Andrew Wright argues that although post modernity has much to offer the religious educator there are also many pitfalls and dangers to be avoided Steering clear of the extreme of post modern hyper realism he constructs a religious pedagogy sensitive to post modern concerns for alterity difference and the voice of the Other whilst insisting on the importance of reasons in cultivating religious literacy      Christian Doctrine and the Grammar of Difference Janice McRandal, 2015

Rees argues that the doctrinal narrative of creation fall and redemption provides resources to resolve the theological impasse of difference in contemporary feminist theology The divine economy reveals a God who enters into history and destabilizes fixed binaries and oppressive categories As created subjects we are sustained affirmed and drawn back into the Triune life patterns present in liturgy prayer and practices of contemplation The grammar of Christian faith cannot ultimately be uncovered except in prayer opened beyond itself to a source of life and giving      Bavinck James Eglinton, 2020-09-29 Dutch Calvinist theologian Herman Bavinck a significant voice in the development of Protestant theology remains relevant many years after his death His four volume Reformed Dogmatics is one of the most important theological works of the twentieth century James Eglinton is widely considered to be at the forefront of contemporary interest in Bavinck s life and thought After spending considerable time in the Netherlands researching Bavinck Eglinton brings to light a wealth of new insights and previously unpublished documents to offer a definitive biography of this renowned Reformed thinker The book follows the course of Bavinck s life in a period of dramatic social change identifying him as an orthodox Calvinist challenged with finding his feet in late modern culture Based on extensive archival research this critical biography presents numerous significant and previously ignored or unknown aspects of Bavinck s person and life story A black and white photo insert is included This volume complements other Baker Academic offerings on Bavinck s theology and ethics which together have sold 90 000 copies      Modern Christian Thought: The twentieth century James C. Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology      Law & Gospel in Action Mark C Mattes, Mark C. Mattes, John T. Pless, 2019-04-09 Mark Mattes hope is not only to secure believers consciences in Christ but also to reclaim theological and social turf which mainline Protestants have too quickly ceded to various secular agendas The collected essays engage the reality of believers death and resurrection in Christ and how that bears upon the life of faith while also attending to a wide range of relevant theological topics such as scriptural authority apologetics a critique of contemporary mainline Protestant and Evangelical Catholic ethics a critique of Lutheran Reformed ecumenism and the church s mission and outreach The collection concludes with several sermons based on Old Testament lessons seeking to show how the theology embedded in the essays can be used for proclamation      Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally, 2016-03-02 In Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally argues that in order to address current socioeconomic problems we need not more economic formulas but rather a better understanding of how the world is set up an ontology of how we and the world work Without this good proposals that arise lack political will and go unimplemented Pally describes our basic setup as separability amid situatedness or distinction amid relation Though we are all unique individuals we become our singular selves through our relations and responsibilities to the people and environments around us Pally argues that our culture's overemphasis on separability individualism run amok results in greed adversarial and deceitful political discourse and chicanery resource grabbing broken relationships and anomie Maintaining that separability and situatedness can and must be considered together in public policy Pally draws on intellectual history philosophy and especially historic Christian and Jewish theologies of relationality to construct a new framework for addressing present economic and political ills

Reason, Truth, and Theology in Pragmatist Perspective Paul D. Murray, 2004 In this work Paul Murray explores which style of rationality is most appropriate to Christian theology in the contemporary pluralist postfoundationalist postmodern context At its heart is a fresh consideration of the American pragmatist tradition focussing on the writings of Richard Rorty and Nicholas Rescher Where Rorty correctly diagnoses the failures of foundationalist objectivism Rescher's pragmatic idealism is presented as healing the ills in Rorty's own neo pragmatism The significant resonance between Rescher's view of rationality and Christian understanding of the trinity is explored In turn Donald MacKinnon's influential writings are presented as exemplifying just such an approach to theology Murray both articulates an enriched form of Christian postliberalism committed to receiving and learning from other traditions of thought and practice and probes the claim that the dynamics of human rationality can be expected to reflect the Trinitarian dynamics of God's being Paul Murray presents us here with an exhaustive and insightful study of recent pragmatic theory in which he sets up rhythms of healing and completion as well as interrogation particularly remarkable is his exploration of Christianity as the deep and in some sense final interlocutor of pragmatic tradition I strongly recommend this book Olivier Davis Professor of Christian Doctrine King's College London This is a mature wide ranging work that by uniting the intellectual and the practical carries both rational and ethical conviction It does equal justice to the classic teachings of Christianity and to the challenges to rethink them in dialogue with modern and postmodern approaches The result is a conception of Christianity both generously orthodox and deeply engaged with contemporary life and thought It is especially good to see the profound contribution of Donald MacKinnon understood and developed with such perception and relevance David F Ford Regius Professor of Divinity University of Cambridge Paul Murray is currently Lecturer in Systematic Theology within the Department of Theology at the University of Durham England He has previously held posts at St Cuthbert's Seminary Ushaw College Durham and Newman College of Higher Education Birmingham Essays of his exploring issues in philosophical theology science and theology and contemporary Roman Catholic theology have appeared in leading journals and edited collections This is his first monograph

Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, 2018-01-02 Including contributions from twenty two leading moral theologians this volume is the most thorough assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching available In addition to interrogations of the major documents it provides insight into the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era which is generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII's Rerum Novarum. The book also includes a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and offers an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address. This second edition includes revised and updated essays as well as two new commentaries: one on Pope Benedict XVI's encyclical Caritas in Veritate and one on Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si'. An outstanding reference work for anyone interested in studying and understanding the key documents that make up the central corpus of modern Catholic social teaching.
