Freedom The Story Of My Second Life:

Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads. Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books.

Freedom Malika Oufkir, 2007-10-09 Stolen Lives Malika Oufkir's intensely moving account of her twenty years imprisoned in a desert jail in Morocco was a surprise international best-seller and the second non-fiction title ever selected for Oprah's Book Club. In her highly anticipated follow-up, Malika reflects on the life she lived before and during incarceration and how dramatically the world had changed when she emerged. Malika Oufkir was born into extreme privilege as the daughter of the king of Morocco's closest aide and she grew up in the palace as companion to the Moroccan princess. But in 1972, her life of luxury came to a crashing halt. Her father was executed for attempting to assassinate the king, and she and her family were locked away for two decades. After a remarkable escape, Malika and her family returned to the world they'd left behind only to find it transformed. Living for the first time as an adult, Malika writes candidly about adjusting to the world we take for granted, from negotiating ATMs to the excesses of shopping malls to falling in love and sex. In Stolen Lives, Malika mourned the children she was not having as she wasted away in prison. When she is finally free, motherhood becomes crucial to Malika's ability to fully live her life; she adopts first her niece, then a baby boy from Morocco. Full of insight and piercing observations as well as humor, Freedom is as masterful and thought-provoking as the original.

Freedom Malika Oufkir, 2006-10-16 The author describes her return to the world after twenty years in a Moroccan jail as she struggled to adjust to the modern world, understand the reality of freedom, fall in love, and experience an intimate relationship for the first time.

African Women Writing Resistance Jennifer Browdy de Hernandez, Pauline Dongala, Omotayo Jolaosho, Anne Serafin, 2010-08-19 African Women Writing Resistance is the first transnational anthology to focus on women's strategies of resistance to the challenges they face in Africa today. The anthology brings together personal narratives, testimony, interviews, short stories, poetry, performance scripts, folktales, and lyrics. Thematically organized, it presents women's writing on such issues as intertribal and interethnic conflicts, the degradation of the environment, polygamy, domestic abuse, the controversial traditional practice of female genital cutting Sharia law intergenerational tensions and emigration and exile Contributors include internationally recognized authors and activists such as Wangari Maathai and Nawal El Saadawi as well as a host of vibrant new voices from all over the African continent and from the African diaspora Interdisciplinary in scope this collection provides an excellent introduction to contemporary African women s literature and highlights social issues that are particular to Africa but are also of worldwide concern It is an essential reference for students of African studies world literature anthropology cultural studies postcolonial studies and women s studies A Choice Outstanding Academic Book Outstanding Book selected by the Public Library Association Best Books for High Schools Best Books for Special Interests and Best Books for Professional Use selected by the American Association of School Libraries

Another Freedom Svetlana Boym, 2018-07-02 The word freedom is so overly used and frequently abused that it is always in danger of becoming nothing but a clich In Another Freedom Svetlana Boym offers us a refreshing new portrait of the age old concept Exploring the rich cross cultural history of the idea of freedom from its origins in ancient Greece to the present day she argues that our attempts to imagine freedom should occupy the space of not only what is but also what if Beginning with notions of sacrifice and the emergence of a public sphere for politics and art Boym expands her account to include the relationships between freedom and liberation modernity and terror and political dissent and creative estrangement While depicting a world of differences she affirms lasting solidarities based on the commitment to the passionate thinking that reflections on freedom require To do so Boym assembles a remarkable cast of characters Aeschylus and Euripides Kafka and Mandelstam Arendt and Heidegger and a virtual encounter between Dostoevsky and Marx on the streets of Paris By offering a fresh look at the strange history of this idea Another Freedom delivers a nuanced portrait of freedom one whose repercussions will be felt well into the future My Two Lives Jochen "Jack" Wurfl, 2023-09-19
