Freedom From Debt The Reappropriation Of Development Through Financial Selfreliance:

Freedom from Debt, 1998     Freedom from Debt Jacques Gélinas, 1998 This work deals with two issues the emancipation of the Third World from the debt system and the reappropriation of development by civil society through financial self reliance     Some Aspects of Community Empowerment and Resilience Venkat Pulla ,Bharath Bhushan Mamidi, 2015-07-01 With escalating poverty rising individualism outright destruction of social security networks and diminished civil liberties across the world many professionals appear to be settling down for individual fixes rather than system overhauls Social work has a rich history of community development yet seems to be a semi passive spectator to the growing listlessness in our communities Fuelled by the elites government and agencies the models of community development seem to perpetuate dependency A right oriented citizen s perspective has been a long overdue in the discourse of empowerment of people Professions with espoused commitment to human rights ought to step up their role and and rekindle the roots in community empowerment Some Aspects of Community Empowerment and Resilience addresses the above central themes and offers fresh and refined approach on aspects of coping and resilience community and building hope

Towards Financial Self-reliance Richard Holloway, 2014-04-08 Provides an excellent conceptual framework for the various approaches to resource mobilization Paiboon Wattanasiritham Director General Chief Executive Officer Government Savings Bank Thailand A clear and practical guide aimed at the managers of civil society organizations including non governmental organizations citizens movements co operatives trade unions and other grass roots organizations primarily in developing countries on how to mobilize funds and other resources and in doing so become financially self reliant The author examines numerous and varied options covering earned income local foundations governmental sources foreign agencies the corporate sector microcredit the internet and social investments setting these within a strategic overview of planning and management effectiveness     Negotiating Normativity Nikita Dhawan, Elisabeth Fink, Johanna Leinius, Rirhandu Mageza-Barthel, 2016-07-01 This volume presents the critical perspectives of feminists critical race theorists and queer and postcolonial theorists who question the adoption of European norms in the postcolonial world and whether such norms are enabling for disenfranchised communities or if they simply reinforce relations of domination and exploitation It examines how postcolonial interventions alter the study of politics and society both in the postcolony and in Euro America as well as of the power relations between them Challenging conventional understandings of international politics this volume pushes the boundaries of the social sciences by engaging with alternative critical approaches and innovatively and provocatively addressing previously disregarded aspects of international politics The fourteen contributions in this volume focus on the silencing and exclusion of vulnerable groups from claims of freedom equality and rights while highlighting postcolonial queer feminist struggles for transnational justice radical democracy and decolonization drawing on in depth empirically informed analyses of processes and struggles in Asia Africa Europe and Latin America They address political and social topics including global governance and development politics neo colonialism international aid and empire resistance decolonization and the Arab Spring civil society and social movement struggles international law democratization and subalternity body politics and green imperialism By drawing on other disciplines in the social sciences and humanities this book both enriches and expands the discipline of political science and international relations Primary readership for this volume will be academics and students concerned with globalization studies postcolonial theory gender studies and international relations as well as political activists and policy makers concerned with social and transnational justice human rights democracy gender justice and women s rights Islamic Finance in the Global Economy Ibrahim Warde,2014-03-11 A second edition of Islamic Finance in the Global Economy substantially revised and updated to take into account the recent developments in the field The History of Development Gilbert Rist,2002-10 With all its hopes of a more just and materially prosperous world development has fascinated societies in both North and South Looking at this collective fancy in retrospect Gilbert Rist shows the underlying similarities of its various theories and strategies and their shared inability to transform the world He argues persuasively that development has always been a kind of collective delusion which in reality has simply promoted a widening of market relations despite the good intentions of its advocates 100 Ways of Seeing an Unequal World Bob Sutcliffe,2001-04 This innovative book builds on the fact that there is now a large body of statistical information about today s highly unequal world Bob Sutcliffe looks at current affairs development and international relations For anyone wanting to understand the contemporary world this book probes complex economic issues using innovative diagrams and charts

International Bibliography of Economics 1998 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,1999-12-16 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures this series provides the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences Arranged by topic and indexed by author subject and place name each bibliography lists and annotates the most important works published in its field during the year of 1997 including hard to locate journal articles Each volume also includes a complete list of the periodicals consulted

Human Insecurity David Roberts,2013-07-04 Human Insecurity is concerned with our refusal to confront the millions of avoidable deaths of women and children each year Those missing millions are rarely the subject of conventional security studies yet such avoidable deaths are a vital part of the notion of security more broadly understood The book argues that such deaths are caused by the man made structures of neoliberalism and andrarchy and argues that the debate on human security can be reinvigorated by looking at the unarmed civilian role in causing the deaths of millions of innocent people from child deaths from preventable disease to honour killings David Roberts claims that by facing up to this relationship between social structures and massive avoidable human suffering we can create another system less prone to global violence This book is a powerful intervention in the debate on human security and an urgent call to face up to our responsibilities to the millions killed needlessly each year Complex Systems Theory and Development Practice Samir Rihani,2002 Ranging over a wide terrain of social political and economic thinking and specific country experiences the author explains the key concepts in complex systems theory and their possible applications in development practice He examines various development issues and institutions in the light of what he sees as the limitations of rigid linear thinking in an essentially fluid non linear world Little wonder he concludes that the results of half a century of development effort have been so disappointing

BOOK JACKET     A Theory of Global Capitalism William I. Robinson, 2004-03-12 Sure to stir controversy and debate A Theory of Global Capitalism will be of interest to sociologists and economists alike     Latin America and Global Capitalism William I. Robinson, 2008-11-24 2009 Best Book International Political Economy Group of the British International Studies Association This ambitious volume chronicles and analyzes from a critical globalization perspective the social economic and political changes sweeping across Latin America from the 1970s through the present day Sociologist William I Robinson summarizes his theory of globalization and discusses how Latin America's political economy has changed as the states integrate into the new global production and financial system focusing specifically on the rise of nontraditional agricultural exports the explosion of maquiladoras transnational tourism and the export of labor and the import of remittances He follows with an overview of the clash among global capitalist forces neoliberalism and the new left in Latin America looking closely at the challenges and dilemmas resistance movements face and their prospects for success Through three case studies the struggles of the region's indigenous peoples the immigrants rights movement in the United States and the Bolivarian Revolution in Venezuela Robinson documents and explains the causes of regional socio political tensions provides a theoretical framework for understanding the present turbulence and suggests possible outcomes to the conflicts Based on years of fieldwork and empirical research this study elucidates the tensions that globalization has created and shows why Latin America is a battleground for those seeking to shape the twenty first century's world order

The Geography of Hope Chris Turner, 2010-04-30 After the fierce warnings and grim predictions of The Weather Makers and An Inconvenient Truth acclaimed journalist and national bestselling author Chris Turner finds hope in the search for a sustainable future Point of no return The chilling phrase has become the ubiquitous mantra of ecological doomsayers a troubling headline above stories of melting permafrost and receding ice caps visions of catastrophe and fears of a problem with no solution Daring to step beyond the rhetoric of panic and despair The Geography of Hope points to the bright light at the end of this very dark tunnel With a mix of front line reporting analysis and passionate argument Chris Turner pieces together the glimmers of optimism amid the gloom and the solutions already at work around the world from Canada's largest wind farm to Asia's greenest building and Europe's most eco friendly communities But The Geography of Hope goes far beyond mere technology Turner seeks out the next generation of political economic social and spiritual institutions that could provide the global foundations for a sustainable future from the green hills of northern Thailand to the parliament houses of Scandinavia from the villages of southern India where microcredit finance has remade the social fabric to America's most forward thinking think tanks In this compelling first person exploration punctuated by the wonder and angst of a writer discovering the world's beacons of possibility Chris Turner pieces together a dazzling map of the disparate landmarks in a geography of hope While most of the world has been spinning in stagnant circles of recrimination and debate on the subject of climate change paralyzed by visions of apocalypse both natural if nothing of our way of life changes and economic if too much does Denmark has simply marched off with steadfast resolve into the sustainable future reaching the zenith of its pioneering trek on the island of Sams And so if there's an encircled star on this patchwork map indicating hope's modest capital then it should be properly placed on this island Perhaps for the sake of precision at the geographic centre of J rgen Tranberg's dairy farm There are I'm sure any number of images called to mind by talk of ecological revolution and renewable energy and sustainable living but I'm pretty certain they don't generally include a hearty fiftysomething Dane in rubber boots spotted with mud and cow shit Which is why Sams's transformation is not just revolutionary but inspiring not just a huge change but a tantalizingly attainable one And it was a change that seemed at its most workaday near effortless no more remarkable than the cool October wind gusting across the island down on Tranberg's farm from The Geography of Hope

Big Business, Poor Peoples John Madeley, 1999-06-20 Are transnational corporations TNCs the solution to poverty in the Third World or are they part of the problem John Madeley examines the impact on the poor of TNC activities in forestry agriculture fisheries mining oil extraction and tourism

DISASTER MITIGATION PARDEEP SAHNI, ALKA DHAMEJA, UMA MEDURY, 2001-01-01 Human vulnerability to natural disasters is an age old phenomenon Besides nature's wrath human interventions too have led to many calamities in the recent past The heedless pace of development has left us ecologically barren Most of the world's people live in developing economies as do most of the world's poor They also face the most debilitating consequences in the form of economic and social disruption caused by disasters The long history of disasters and their intensity has brought the question of disaster management to the forefront Disaster mitigation is a major component of a disaster management plan Mitigation entails measures to reduce the physical economic and social vulnerability of a community to disasters Disaster management is still an untouched domain suffering for want of systematic and committed research and development inputs It is essential not only to consolidate its academic stature but also to infuse the requisite knowledge skills and attitudes in the personnel connected with this field This collection of articles from several contributors is an excellent analysis of different mitigation strategies It offers insight into the different dimensions of disaster preparedness and mitigation The underlying attempt in each chapter is to illuminate the pertinence of those mitigation efforts that would prepare everyone related with disaster management to comprehend and approach the problem more holistically Besides government agencies NGOs and community based bodies the book is suitable for students pursuing the certificate programme in Disaster Management developed by the Indira Gandhi National Open University New Delhi

Empire, Emergency and International Law John Reynolds, 2017-08-10 This book analyses the states of emergency
