Ferm,1923 Reclaiming Freedom in Education Max A. Hope,2018-11-02 Reclaiming Freedom in Education examines the notion of freedom within educational settings Following an investigation of the new Free Schools in the UK it argues that this name is a misnomer and instead explores the original free schools of the 1960s and 1970s using these models as a lens through which to explore contemporary examples of radical schooling notably those which describe themselves as democratic and or progressive By arguing that in radical educational contexts both positive freedom and negative freedom are apparent and that the notion that responsible freedom is more pertinent than that of absolute freedom this book posits that freedom can be seen to operate in a number of ways including freedom to be freedom to think freedom to choose and freedom to self govern The book Describes how freedom can be used to inform educational structures policies pedagogies and practices across a range of settings Features illustrative case studies of radical free schools and alternative education spaces which have been underpinned by a commitment to freedom and to advancing social justice Critiques the current policy agenda to use freedom to make education more competitive through claims that it correlates with higher test scores and academic success Considers some of the challenges for teachers educators and students of offering and experiencing freedom in education and argues that despite these the case for advancing freedom is both urgent and compelling Creating discussions about the new meaning and role that freedom can have in improving education Reclaiming Freedom in Education is a practical contribution to educational activism which will be a key point of reference for teachers parents researchers and students on undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Education Studies Early Childhood Studies and doctorates The Spirit of Freedom in Education Elizabeth Byrne Ferm,1919 Freedom in Education Hettie Millicent Hughes Mackenzie,1924 Liberty and Learning in the Schools Commission on Academic Freedom and Pre-College Education,1986 Freedom in Education Elizabeth Byrne Ferm,Alexis C.
