of pure legitimate Ancient Masonry and not as a remunerative effort Its aim is to give direction to Masonic thought in the elimination and expression of the great fundamental principles of the Institution pure Universal Cosmopolitan Masonry and Charity To the Freemasons of the Old School this Book will be most welcome in view of the innovating tendencies changing the character and design of the Institution from its original aims To these and all right thinking Masons whose minds are imbued with a sense of the responsibilities resting upon them as children of the Universal Father to seek truth and to appropriate it no apology is needed for this production This Book is not written in the view of what Masonry is as expressed in these days but what it should be and its design in the fulfilment of solemn covenants assumed by every Freemason The necessity for its writing will appear in the wide departures from original fundamental principles It is not written in the popular Masonic style to allure the ignorant and unthinking masses within and outside of the Institution with the belief that Masonry is a great reformatory school neither as a propaganda effort by specious or seeming sentimental laudation to induce the outside masses to seek admission into the fraternity We have a higher aim and eschew as a Mason all efforts at popularizing Masonry outside of the exemplification of its principles in the upright and useful lives of its members their efforts to improve and benefit their fellow beings and exemplifying the great principles of Charity divinely illustrated in relief of poor needy Masons their widows and orphans The popular Masonic
