The Paine-French Genealogy Beverly Marion (Paine) Martinoli, 2011-02-18 The Paine French genealogy continues the story captured in an earlier book The Paine Shepard Genealogy 1463 1913 written by Clara Paine Ohler published in 1932 and traces the descendants of Merton K Paine and Ella Gordon French Paine to the present day While the book includes background from Clara Ohler's publication it also refers to census reports that identify Paine and French family direct ancestry with references to other side branches The chapter on Cemeteries reveals information on ancestors in Ludlow Belchertown and Springfield MA as well as Simsbury CT While William French's travels both as a single man and later after his marriage took him and his family to several interesting places eventually ending up in MA the Paine Family ancestry can be found mostly in MA and CT The book also includes interesting information concerning our direct ancestors John and Sarah French and their son William H French and his wife Mary Dugan parents of Ella Gordon French Paine Readers will find the chapters concerning the USS Constellation the historically verifiable accounts of William H French's service aboard that venerable ship and his subsequent service in the Union Army during the War of Rebellion of particular interest French Warships in the Age of Steam 1859-1914 Stephen S. Roberts, 2023-01-04 This outstanding book will be essential for future studies of naval policy in the period between la Gloire and the Great War The Naval Review This book is the first comprehensive listing in English of more than 1400 warships that were added to the official French navy fleet list between 1 January 1859 and World War I It includes everything from the largest battleships to a small armoured gunboat that looked like a floating egg Reflecting the main phases of naval policy the ships are listed in three separate parts to keep contemporary designs together and then by ship type and class For each class the book provides a design history explaining why the ships were built substantial technical characteristics for the ships as completed and after major reconstructions and selected career milestones including the ultimate fate of each ship Following the earlier volumes written jointly with Rif Winfield French Warships in the Age of Sail 1626 1786 and French Warships in the Age of Sail 1786 1861 this trilogy now provides a complete picture of the development of French warships over a period of almost three centuries As a technical reference on the French ships of 1859 to 1914 this book is a must for the serious naval architecture student modeler or enthusiast So much solid information is packed in this book arranged logically clearly and with so many illustrations I cannot see where another volume on this subject can compete Highly recommended Nautical Research Journal Superlatives abound in describing this book arguably the finest naval shiplist ever created Warship International the educational times, and journal of the college of preceptors, 1877 A Catalogue of the very splendid Collection of Italian, Spanish, French, Flemish, Dutch, and English pictures of Monsieur Nieuwenhuys, which will be sold by auction by Messrs. Alison,1855 Two Old French Satires on the Power of the Keys Daron Burrows,2017-12-02 The thirteenth century French comic dits of Les Escommeniemanz au lecheor and Le Pardon de foutre are two of the earliest vernacular texts to articulate anticlerical satire against the abuse of excommunications and indulgences In Les Escommeniemanz a relentless series of excommunications is promulgated against a broad range of social groups accused of activities ranging from the illegal and the immoral through the socially disruptive to the profoundly nonsensical and obscene while in Le Pardon a cardinal freshly arrived from Rome offers indulgences to groups whose shocking alleged sexual incontinence appears scarcely to merit pardon Burrows new edition of two hitherto unedited poems so important to the understanding of lay attitudes towards ecclesiastical authority in thirteenth century France is complemented by an English translation and a detailed commentary on the texts literary linguistic codicological ideological and socio historical content and context

Story, Myth, and Celebration in Old French Narrative Poetry, 1050-1200 Karl D. Uitti,2015-03-08 Twelfth century France has been described as the key to many of the most important developments of medieval civilization Nowhere is this description more accurate than in the domain of poetic invention The years 1050 to 1200 witnessed the development of a brilliant body of vernacular narrative that not only expressed the complexity of its own time but also bequeathed to posterity a wide gamut of creative possibilities Although much has been written about the works of this period Karl Uitti offers the first critically orientated overview of this poetry as poetry In the sections devoted to the Songs of Alexis and Roland he studies the narrative as it serves in various ways truths exterior to its own organization These include the implications of Alexis imitation of Christ and the way the Song of Roland is history conceived in literary and poetic terms Although a number of devices are examined the poems are seen in terms of their total significance The second part of the book dedicate principally to the uvre of Chr tien de Troyes discusses a new kind of poetry poetry whose truth depends on the reader s submitting entirely to the internal coherence of each work in a very meaningful sense the poem itself is the thing What it says is specifically a matter of how it says it No higher claim for the dignity of poetic activity has ever been made Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

French Revolution becoming an important pedagogic topic and a common theme of doctors professional identities in postrevolutionary biomedicine Older women were identified as an important patient cohort for the expanding medicalisation of French society and were advised to entrust themselves to the hygienic care of doctors in managing the whole era of life from around and after the final cessation of menses However menopause owed much of its conceptual weft to earlier themes of women as the sicker sex of vitalist crisis of the vapours and of astrological climacteric years This is the first comprehensive study of the origins of the medical concept of menopause richly contextualising its role in nineteenth century French medicine and revealing the complex threads of meaning that informed its invention It tells a complex story of how women s ageing featured in the demographic revolution in modern science in the denigration of folk medicine in the unique French field of hygiene and in the fixation on women in the emergence of modern psychiatry It reveals the nineteenth century French origins of the still current medical and alternative health approaches to women s ageing as something to be managed through gynaecological surgery hormonal replacement and lifestyle intervention
