The French Consul's Wife, 1999-04-13 What a subject for a film but not please Meryl Streep Together with Dr Patricia Clancy Melbourne University and Jeanne Allen's La Trobe University elegant translation and able notes the memoirs make for a piquant informative variegated and often startling read Miegunyah Press you ve done it again Derek Whitelock Weekend Australian A former Parisian courtesan circus performer and dancer C leste de Chabrillan scandalised Melbourne society when she arrived in 1854 as the wife of the French Consul These memoirs give a vivid firsthand account of the two and a half years she spent in gold rush Victoria C leste's arrival in Melbourne was preceded by the publication of her memoirs describing her illegitimate birth miserable adolescence and celebrity career as a courtesan bareback rider and polka dancer As a result she was dubbed the consul s harlot spouse and ostracised by society Despite this C leste did not avoid the public gaze and continued to employ her literary talents Her memoirs are of a life spent in the village of St Kilda the diplomatic and government house circle and the Ballarat gold fields Her descriptions of a public hanging Governor Hotham's beer ball and her own Ball for the Victims of Crimea reveal her as a woman of great energy and wilful French Consul's Wife Jeanne Allen, Patricia Clancy, 2013-06-18 What a subject for a film but not please Meryl Streep Together with Dr Patricia Clancy Melbourne University and Jeanne Allen's La Trobe University elegant translation and able notes the memoirs make for a piquant informative variegated and often startling read Miegunyah Press you ve done it again Derek Whitelock Weekend Australian A former Parisian courtesan circus performer and dancer C leste de Chabrillan scandalised Melbourne society when she arrived in 1854 as the wife of the French Consul These memoirs give a vivid firsthand account of the two and a half years she spent in gold rush Victoria C leste's arrival in Melbourne was preceded by the publication of her memoirs describing her illegitimate birth miserable adolescence and celebrity career as a courtesan bareback rider and polka dancer As a result she was dubbed the consul s harlot spouse and ostracised by society Despite this C leste did not avoid the public gaze and continued to employ her literary talents Her memoirs are of a life spent in the village of St Kilda the diplomatic and government house circle and the Ballarat gold fields Her descriptions of a public hanging Governor Hotham's beer ball and her own Ball for the Victims of Crimea reveal her as a woman of great energy and Memoirs of a Courtesan in Nineteenth-century Paris comtesse Cäleste Vänard de wilful temperament Chabrillan, 2001-01-01 When C leste Mogador's memoirs were first published in 1854 and again in 1858 they were immediately seized and condemned as immoral and unsuitable for public consumption For a reader in our more forgiving times this extraordinary document offers not only a portrait of the early life of an intelligent courageous and infinitely intriguing Frenchwoman but also an exceedingly rare inside look at the world of the courtesans and prostitutes of nineteenth century France Writing to conciliate judges and creditors Mogador born C leste Venard in 1824 explains how with tenacity wit and audacity she managed to escape a difficult childhood and subsequent life of prostitution to become successively a darling of the dance halls a circus rider and an actress all the while attracting wealthy young men who vied for her favor Although her account gives readers a peek into the rakish demimonde made famous by Verdi s opera La Traviata its greatest value lies in its candid picture of a spunky self educated woman who doggedly transformed herself into an esteemed and prolific novelist and playwright who fell in love with a count and married him and who made her name synonymous with the bohemian life of the 1840s and 1850s in Paris Courtesan and Countess Jana Verhoeven, Alan Willey, Jeanne Allen, 2015-12-01 C leste de Chabrillan former courtesan and widow of the first French Consul to Melbourne became the most prolific female stage writer in nineteenth century France Forever haunted by her scandalous past C leste fought to hold her place in an artistic world dominated by men Courtesan and Countess tells the story not only of her struggle as a creative artist to survive and earn a living but also of her fascinating life at the centre of the bohemian circles of Paris surrounded by friends such as Alexandre Dumas p re Georges Bizet and Prince Napol on Courtesan and Countess paints a portrait of a remarkable woman and of the turbulent world of Paris during the Belle Epoque Lost for more than eighty years until discovered by the authors in the attic of a French country manor these are the unpublished and final set of memoirs from C leste de Chabrillan Gold Iain McCalman, Alexander Cook, Andrew Reeves, 2001-03-12 Throughout history gold has been the stuff of legends fortunes conflict and change The discovery of gold in Australia 150 years ago precipitated enormous developments in the newly settled land The population and economy boomed in spontaneous cities The effects on both the environment and indigenous Aboriginal peoples have been profound and lasting In this book a team of prominent historians and curators have collaborated to produce an innovative cultural history of gold and its impact on the development of The Bohemian Republic James Gatheral, 2020-11-29 In the mid nineteenth century successive Australian society cultural Bohemias were proclaimed in Paris London New York and Melbourne Focusing on networks and borders as the central modes of analysis this book charts for the first time Bohemia's cross Channel transatlantic and trans Pacific migrations locating its creative expressions and social practices within a global context of ideas and action Though the story of Parisian Bohemia has been comprehensively told much less is known of its Anglophone translations The Bohemian Republic offers a radical reinterpretation of the phenomenon as the neglected lives and works of British Irish American and Australian Bohemians are reassessed the transnational networks of Bohemia are rediscovered the presence and influence of women in Bohemia is reclaimed and Bohemia's relationship with the marketplace is reconsidered Bohemia emerges as a marginal network which exerted a paradoxically powerful influence on the development of popular culture in the vanguard of material social and aesthetic innovations in literature art journalism and theatre Underpinned by extensive and original archival research the book repopulates the concept of Bohemianism with layers of the networked voices expressions ideas people places and practices that made up its constituent social imagined and interpretive communities. The reader is brought closer than ever to the heart of Bohemia a shadowy world inhabited by the rebels of the mid nineteenth century The French Consul's Wife Clancy (Patricia), 1998 Needlework and Women's Identity in Colonial Australia Lorinda Cramer, 2019-09-05 In gold rush Australia social identity was in flux gold promised access to fashionable new clothes a grand home and the goods to furnish it but could not buy gentility Needlework and Women's Identity in Colonial Australia explores how the wives mothers sisters and daughters who migrated to the newly formed colony of Victoria used their needle skills as a powerful claim to social standing Focusing on one of women's most common daily tasks the book examines how needlework s practice and products were vital in the contest for social position in the turmoil of the first two decades of the Victorian rush from 1851 Placing women firmly at the center of colonial history it explores how the needle became a tool for stitching together identity From decorative needlework to household making and mending women s sewing was a vehicle for establishing asserting and maintaining social status Interdisciplinary in scope Needlework and Women s Identity in Colonial Australia draws on material culture written primary sources and pictorial evidence to create a rich portrait of the objects and manners that defined genteel goldfields living Giving voice to women s experiences and positioning them as key players in the fabric of gold rush society this volume offers a fresh critical perspective on gender and textile history Flirtation and Fancywork Annette Shiell, 2014-07-24 Fundraising Flirtation and Fancywork examines the history and development of the charity bazaar movement in Australia Transported from Britain the charity bazaar played an integral role in Australian communal social and philanthropic life from the early days of European settlement Ranging in size and scale from simple sales of goods to month long extravaganzas charity bazaars were such a popular and successful means of raising revenue that they sustained the majority of the nation's major public and religious institutions. The nineteenth century charity bazaar was a paradox On the one hand it encapsulated responsibility and civic duty through its raison detre which was the provision of support for charitable causes On the other it encouraged a loosening of social and gendered restraint as women of the middle and upper classes repositioned themselves in a public space where the acquisition of material goods gambling and flirting with men was actively encouraged From their inception bazaars were the domain of women They provided middle and upper class women with an opportunity to exercise their organisational creative and social skills outside the domestic sphere within a framework of socially acceptable philanthropic endeavour Women's dominance and public role in charity bazaars destabilised conventional gender relations The nucleus of the charity bazaar was the fancywork produced by women for sale on the stalls Bazaars were an accessible and important repository for the display and sale of women's creative work and the bazaar movement was instrumental in shaping women s fancywork Bazaars were revered and reviled in colonial Australia Despite the criticisms and the many social and cultural changes that occurred in nineteenth century Australia charity bazaars continued to escalate in number popularity and complexity They predated and influenced the great international exhibitions and the development of larger shops and emporiums and by the end of the century had evolved into themed entertainment and shopping spectacles known as grand bazaars Charity bazaars mirrored and shaped the social customs mores and fashions of their time and are a rich largely untapped interdisciplinary historical source Writing with a Vengeance Carol A. Mossman, 2009-01-01 Writing with a Vengeance examines the life and works of a nineteenth century French courtesan C leste V nard later the Countess de Chabrillan A notorious Paris courtesan Chabrillan married into the nobility taught herself to write penning two series of memoirs and upon being widowed wrote novels to support herself ten between 1857 and 1885 These novels and memoirs constitute exceptional literary and historical documents particularly as very few sex workers before the twentieth century have left written records of their lives Writing with a Vengeance intertwines the courtesan's autobiographical account of the horrors of her life on the streets with that era's political medical and cultural discourses surrounding prostitution Though French society both silenced and refused to pardon the prostitute Carol Mossman's literary analysis of Chabrillan's novels contends that it is through the process of writing itself that she arrived at self forgiveness and ultimately refashioned for her damaged self a new identity and narrative Nothing But Gold Robyn Annear, 1999-01-05 Gold was discovered in Australia in 1851 and within a year the infant colony was transformed from a sump for convicts to a Land of Opportunity Robyn Annear's lively history describes in detail life on the diggings the mud of winter and dust of summer the pluckiness of the women and children the grog shanties the flies the mania of mining the despair and the delirium and the much hated licensing system which was to culminate in the Eureka Stockade Robyn Annear tells the story of the 1852 gold rushes in imaginative detail she tells us how it felt to be there You find yourself worrying about the problems long ago resolved sharply aware of the gold diggers hopes and ordeals diverted by the high comedy of a chaotic life Like all good narratives it looks easy because it is so easily read and enjoyed She makes a mosaic out of small moments of experience The physical realities of the diggings are evoked with all the ingenious ways of managing tent space cooking guarding gold finding feed for horses keeping off wind and rain ants and mice Brenda Niall Robyn Annear was born in Melbourne in 1960 She spends her time writing and researching typing for other people and looking after her family She is also a part time bookseller and President of the Friends of the Castlemaine Library History from the inside wonderfully entertaining Age A welcome addition to Australian history pointing to badly needed ways in which history can be made more reader friendly Ouadrant

The French and the Pacific World, 17th-19th Centuries Annick Fourier, 2020-11-30 In The French in the Pacific World Annick Fourier has brought together an important set of studies on the French presence in the Pacific up to the start of the 20th century The volume opens with a section on the context of the French expansion including its rivalries with other European powers Following studies treat patterns of trade and exchange and settlement and migration then look at the French image of and reaction to the worlds round the Pacific and the people of the islands covering the period from the voyages of exploration to the era of colonization Black Gold Fred Cahir, 2012-09-01 Fred Cahir tells the story about the magnitude of Aboriginal involvement on the Victorian goldfields in the middle of the nineteenth century The first history of Aboriginal white interaction on the Victorian goldfields Black Gold offers new insights on one of the great epochs in Australian and world history the gold story In vivid detail it describes how Aboriginal people often figured significantly in the search for gold and documents the devastating social impact of gold mining on Victorian Aboriginal communities It reveals the complexity of their involvement from passive presence to active discovery to shunning the goldfields This detailed examination of Aboriginal people on the goldfields of Victoria provides striking evidence which demonstrates that Aboriginal people participated in gold mining and interacted with non Aboriginal people in a range of hitherto neglected ways Running through this book are themes of Aboriginal empowerment identity integration resistance social disruption and communication Women Writing Crime Fiction, 1860-1880 Kate Watson, 2014-01-10 Arthur Conan Doyle has long been considered the greatest writer of crime fiction and the gender bias of the genre has foregrounded William Godwin Edgar Allan Poe Wilkie Collins Emile Gaboriau and Fergus Hume But earlier and significant contributions were being made by women in Britain the United States and Australia between 1860 and 1880 a period that was central to the development of the genre This work focuses on women writers of this genre and these years including Catherine Crowe Caroline Clive Elizabeth Cleghorn Gaskell Mary Elizabeth Braddon Mrs Henry Ellen Wood Harriet Prescott Spofford Louisa May Alcott Metta Victoria Fuller Victor Anna Katharine Green Celeste de Chabrillan Oline Keese Caroline Woolmer Leakey Eliza Winstanley Ellen Davitt and Mary Helena Fortune innovators who set a high standard for Women Writers and Detectives in Nineteenth-Century Crime Fiction L. women writers to follow Sussex, 2010-07-16 This book is a study of the mothers of the mystery genre Traditionally the invention of crime writing has been ascribed to Poe Wilkie Collins and Conan Doyle but they had formidable women rivals whose work has been until recently largely forgotten The purpose of this book is to cherchez les femmes in a project of rediscovery Brussels Barbara Minchinton, 2024-07-02 A must read biography of an enigmatic personality who helped shape early Melbourne Madame Brussels the most legendary brothel keeper in nineteenth century Melbourne is still remembered and celebrated today But until now little has been known about Caroline Hodgson the woman behind the alter ego Born in Prussia to a working class family Caroline arrived in Melbourne in 1871 Left alone when her police officer husband was sent to work in remote Victoria she turned her hand to running brothels Before long she had proved herself brilliantly entrepreneurial her principal establishment was a stone s throw from Parliament House lavishly furnished and catered to Melbourne's ruling classes Caroline rode Melbourne's boom in the 1880s weathered the storm of the depression years in the 1890s and suffered in the moral panic of the 1900s Her death in 1908 signified the end of one kind of Melbourne and the beginning of another in terms of prostitution the city went from tolerance to complete prohibition in her lifetime Drawing on extensive research author and historian Barbara Minchinton deftly pieces together Madame Brussels story and recreates a fascinating colourful period in Melbourne's history This is a major biography of an Australian icon The Birth of Melbourne Tim Fridtjof Flannery, 2004 In 1835 John Batman sailed up the Yarra and was astonished by the beauty of the land It was a temperate Kakadu teeming with wildlife and with soils rich enough to spawn pastoral empires With the discovery of gold the city was transformed almost overnight into marvellous Melbourne Aboriginal Biocultural Knowledge in South-eastern Australia Fred Cahir, Ian Clark, Philip Clarke, 2018-05-01 Indigenous Australians have long understood sustainable hunting and harvesting seasonal changes in flora and fauna predator prey relationships and imbalances and seasonal fire management Yet the extent of their knowledge and expertise has been largely unknown and underappreciated by non Aboriginal colonists especially in the south east of Australia where Aboriginal culture was severely fractured Aboriginal Biocultural Knowledge in South eastern Australia is the first book to examine historical records from early colonists who interacted with south eastern Australian Aboriginal communities and documented their understanding of the environment natural resources such as water and plant and animal foods medicine and other aspects of their material world This book provides a compelling case for the importance of understanding Indigenous knowledge to inform discussions around climate change biodiversity resource management health and education It will be a valuable reference for natural resource management agencies academics in Indigenous studies and anyone interested in Aboriginal culture and knowledge

The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka Clare Wright, 2013-10-23 Winner of the Stella Prize 2014 The Eureka Stockade It s one of Australia's foundation legends yet the story has always been told as if half the participants weren t there But what if the hot tempered free spirited gold miners we learned about at school were actually husbands and fathers brothers and sons What if there were women and children right there beside them inside the Stockade when the bullets started to fly And how do the answers to these questions change what we thought we knew about the so called birth of Australian democracy Who in fact were the midwives to that precious delivery Ten years in the research and writing irrepressibly bold entertaining and often irreverent in style Clare Wright's The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka is a fitting tribute to the unbiddable women of Ballarat women who made Eureka a story for us all Clare Wright is an historian who has worked as a political speechwriter university lecturer historical consultant and radio and television broadcaster Her first book Beyond the Ladies Lounge Australia s Female Publicans garnered both critical and popular acclaim and her second The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka won the 2014 Stella Prize She researched wrote and presented the ABC TV documentary Utopia Girls and is the co writer of the four part series The War That Changed Us which screened on ABC1 Lively incisive and timely Clare Wright's account of the role of women in the Eureka Stockade is an engrossing read Assembling a tapestry of voices that vividly illuminate the hardscrabble lives endured on Ballarat's muddy goldfields this excellent book reveals a concealed facet of one of Australia's most famous incidences of colonial rebellion For once Peter Lalor isn t the hero it s the women who are placed front and centre The Forgotten Rebels links the actions of its heroines to the later fight for female suffrage and will be of strong relevance to a contemporary female audience Comprehensive and full of colour this book will also be essential reading for devotees of Australian history Bookseller and Publisher This is a wonderful book At last an Australian foundation story where women are not only found but are found to have played a fundamental role Chris Masters Brilliantly researched and fun to read An exhilarating new take on a story we thought we knew Brenda Niall Fascinating revelations Beautifully told Peter FitzSimons The best source on women at Eureka Big Smoke
