Sixteenth-Century English Dictionaries John Considine,2022 This is the first of three volumes offering a new history of lexicography in and beyond the early modern British Isles This volume focuses on the period from the end of the Middle Ages to the year 1600 exploring the first printed dictionaries Latin and foreign language dictionaries and specialized English wordlists      Urban Encounters Helen Liggett,2003 In contrast to Walter Benjamin Henri Lefebvre and other European thinkers engaged with the concept of the urban American intellectuals tend to envision the modern city as a dystopia their perception of urban life influenced by negative stereotypes and fictional depictions in popular culture In Urban Encounters Helen Liggett challenges this fatalism by approaching the city as a vibrant lived space Combining a sophisticated critique of the urban with striking street level images Liggett reclaims the human experience of the city Liggett s encounters with the urban are sequences of images and text that combine the joy of observing with the pleasure of making connections For Liggett this entails recognizing both beauty and danger Alternately complementing and complicating her text Liggett s photographs capture the small details the gestures glances and reflections that together compose the urban experience As a whole Urban Encounters reimagines the city as a site of profound engagement with life      Ashgate Critical Essays on Early English Lexicographers Roderick McConchie,2017-03-02 Laying the foundations for the first monolingual dictionaries of English the sixteenth century in English lexicography is here shown to form a bridge between the glossarial compilations which had slowly evolved during the Middle Ages and the more recognisably modern dictionary incorporating synonymy illustrative citations and other standard features The articles collected here treat general lexicography and dictionaries in this period their uses and the state of research in this field The volume also covers a fascinating and diverse collection of lexicographers from the well known John Palsgrave Thomas Cooper Thomas Elyot and John Florio to those about whom next to nothing is known Richard Howlet John Baret and Peter Levens
